ITALIAN SAVANT RELATES TRIALS ON PRISON ISLE

Escaping Professor Roselli Views Fascist Camp As "Barely Supportable"

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Mussolini's prison islands for political prisoners are breeding places for vice and school of demoralization, according to Prof. Carlos Roselli, one of three men who succeeded in escaping from Lipari, which with Ponza and Ustica form the archipelago to which suspected or convicted anti-Fascists are sent.

"For intellectuals of strong will, life on the islands is barely supportable," Roselli said, "but for workmen, manual laborers, and other not accustomed to mental efforts, life becomes an inferno, and slowly, bit by bit, the strongest characters disintegrate."

"Lipari is the largest of the three islands. It contains other inhabitants besides prisoners, and the space in which we were allowed to circulate—I spent three years on Lipari—is relatively large, being about a kilometer and a half in length 150 meters in width. The 500 prisoners move in this small area guarded by almost twice their number."

Pay of $50 Daily

"Each prisoner receives ten francs a day, or fifty cents, to pay for food and lodging which is just about enough to enable a man to buy a few scraps and find a place in a room already occupied by several others in which to sleep. Where the prisoner has brought his family, which is not infrequent, the prisoner either starves or lives on the bounty of his comrades—if bounty is the word. A prisoner may receive money for a parent or a brother or a sister, but money coming from a friend is confiscated and the friend is arrested as an anti-Fascist."

"But the punishment of Lipari is the monotony, the hours and hours of boredom, the dearth of occupation or amusement. A student can have books and papers to write upon if he tries hard enough, but a man whose one occupation was of a manual nature turns in a circle endlessly until his mind goes, or until he takes refuge in a degrading practice of some kind."

"Lipari is the mildest of the three islands. On Ponza and Ustica the room for circulation is smaller than a football field. Ustica is the worst of the three for its prisoners are largely criminal, 800 to be exact. Dr. Nello Roselli, an unworried historian, interested only in his sermons and statistics, was sent when the Italian government learned that I had escaped. In Ustica the prisoners sleep in barracks."

Early Indoors

"On Lipari we were forced to be indoors at seven o'clock in winter; nine o'clock in summer. Terms on the island vary from one to five years. In the past three years, 2,500 political prisoners have been received on these islands."

In Prof. Roselli's opinion one of the most humiliating aspects of the Italian government's procedure is the method by which the prisoners are taken to Lipari, Ponza and Ustica.

"One day you are presented with a small yellow slip of paper informing you that you are a prisoner and will be taken to Lipari. The slip bears your name and describes your offense in the most general terms, to wit, 'anti-Fascist activity.' There is no judge no habeas corpus, no lawyers—you are guilty without a trial and off you go."

Hands Manacled

"Your hands are manacled, and like the prisoners in the salt mines of Siberia you are chained together, the chain running from manacle to manacle, and thus you tramp through the street, a warning to all timid souls who would defy the Fascist regime. You are placed in a prison train, each in a narrow cell. The train goes slow, very slow. At the end of twelve hours riding you have travelled from Turin to Milan, ordinarily a ride of a few hours."

Washington's Slaves

George Washington's will included the following provision: "Upon the decease of my wife, it is my will and desire that all slaves whom I hold in my own right shall receive freedom." Provision was made for the maintenance of such slaves as could not care for themselves.

NOW SHOWING—"ACCIDENTAL MATHEMATICS"

Church and Sunday School

Zion Reformed Church
Corner Third and Jackson Sts.
A. R. Fiedlerjohann, Pastor.

Let us continue our church program with the fine interest and inspiration with which we resumed our services last Sunday. The Sunday school opens at 9:15 o'clock. We want each teacher and pupil in his place. We were glad to announce last Sunday that two of our pupils, Miss Mildred Worthmann and Miss Bernadine Koltz were winners in the stewardship essay contest put on earlier in the season in the schools of our Fort Wayne district; each one receiving a check of three dollars.

Morning worship service at 10:30 o'clock. Sermon subject, "The Man That Walked With God." Junior and Senior C. E. societies meet at 6:30 o'clock with an interesting topic for discussion, "Putting God into the Budget."

Evening services at 7:30 o'clock. The next few Sunday nights will be devoted to a series of messages on the subject, "Man's Growth." The first of this series being, "Foundation and Character." These services will be worth your while. A cordial invitation is extended.

Methodist Church
R. W. Stoakes, Pastor.

The church school will meet at the regular time of 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. D. Colter and the association superintendent will be in charge. Now that school is on and regularly has been established in the home, we anticipate large classes, therefore every teacher is asked to be present. The morning hour of worship will be in charge of the pastor who will conduct the service throughout. The time is 10:45 a. m.

There will be no league services throughout the day and the young people of the church are asked to attend the times of worship either in the morning or in the evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The public is asked to note the change in time of service for the evening hour. It is now conducted at 7:30 p. m.

Presbyterian Church
Harry H. Fernthell, Pastor.

Behold! All things are now ready. The vacation season is past and the fall is at hand. Let us now be ready for the harvest. Bring the fruit of your labors unto Him who is the Lord of the Harvest.

The Juniors will meet in the church parlors at 9:00 o'clock. Your boy and girl should have the fact of religion and worship impressed upon their minds. Bring them to Junior where worship, devotion and reverence are taught.

Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock. Mr. Ed Ashbacher is the superintendent. A class and a teacher for every age. Come and let us help you find your place. This is a school which has only one subject to teach.

Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. The pastor will have a message on the subject, "The Forgiveness of Sin." The choir will assist in the service with appropriate music.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Miss Bernice DeVoss is the leader. A well prepared meeting awaits all high school age boys and girls.

Evening service at 7:30 p. m. The sermon subject is "The Workmanship of God." This is a message everyone should hear. We are expecting you to be in your place.

The mid-week service will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:15 p. m. Let us begin our weekly services with a good attendance.

United Brethren in Christ

R. E. Vance, Pastor

An essential condition of salvation in CONFESION. "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." I John 1: 8, 9.

"Back To Sunday School and Church" let that our motto be. Vacation time is past. School days are here. Sunday school days continue on through the whole year, but perhaps you have been absent for a number
