New Mexico Town
Wiped Off The Map

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 25 —(UP)—Dawn revealed the town of San Marcial, N. M., 100 miles south of Albuquerque had been swept off the map by flood waters of the raging Rio Grande.

Only two buildings withstood the onslaught. They are the property of the Santa Fe railroad and the house, on second floors, the 45 residents who remained in the town.

All other structures in the town, which had a population of more than 1,000, succumbed to the turbulent river as it raced to wreak destruction to the south.

Northwest Conference
Methodists Meet Today

Laporte, Ind., Sept. 25.—(UP)—Dr. J.
M. M. Jay, Detroit, was principal speaker on today's program of the northwestern Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which opened yesterday to continue through Sunday.

Bishop William Frazier McDowell, Washington, is presiding at the annual meeting. The program last night was devoted to a memorial service, the sermon being delivered by the Rev. James G. Campbell, retired Greencastle minister.

Mayor John Line welcomed the visitors to Laporte.

Friday will be laymen's day and an attendance of 500 is expected. Ministers attending number 250, representing the churches in Greencastle, Crawfordsville, South Bend and Lafayette districts, which comprise the conference.

PEACOX TAKES
WITNESS STAND

Curtails Chances Of Insanity Plea By His Own Defense Testimony

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(UP)— Earle Francis Peacock today apparently curtailed chances of using insanity as a defense against the charge of murdering his wife and then burning her body. When he testified, he regarded himself now and in the past as sane.

On cross examination, he told of having been examined by several alienists.

The questioning of Peacock today concerned almost entirely scenes in the room after he had killed his wife.

The witness began to show nervousness as he told how he had seen his wife's head in a small pool of blood and how he had tried to clean up the blood with waste rags and towels.

Then District Attorney Frank H.
Coyne started questioning regarding the economic side of the unhappy marital life of Peacock and his wife.
It was brought out that some of the furniture came from Mrs. Peacock's mother.

"Did you ever give Dolly any clothing between January and April?" he was asked.

"No I didn't."

"Did you give her any money during that time?"

"Yes."

"How much?"

"Sometimes $15 a week, sometimes $20 and sometimes $5."

He had testified that during that time he earned $15 a week as a radio instructor and picking up a little money on the side in servicing radio machines. Some of the furniture he bought was purchased with the money given him by his wife.

The cross examination finally was completed and Peacock's own attorney started a re-direct examination.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of Sue E. Harruff, deceased, hereby gives notice that by virtue of an

13-YEAR SEARCH
IS SUCCESSFUL

Texas Sheriff Goes Halfway Around World To Capture His Man

Auckland, N. Z., Sept. 25.—(UP)—A search that lasted 13 years has ended at Helensville, near here, with the arrest by a Texas sheriff of John Grey, land agent at Helensville, on a charge of defrauding Texas banks of $250,000.

Grey had lived at Helensville for 11 years. He was identified by Sheriff Bingham, Bell county, Tex., as A. B.
Crouch, formerly a large grain broker in that state.

Grey was accused of mulcting the banks by forged waybills for grain.
He was placed in jail and probably will fight extradition.

The search which brought the sheriff halfway around the world was estimated to have cost $4,000.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan III In Washington

Washington, Sept. 25.—(UP)—Mrs.
William Jennings Bryan, widow of the great commoner, is ill here.

She has been in bad health for several months, but her illness is not critical, according to her friends.

She came here recently from Miami, Fla., to be near her daughter, Ruth Bryan Owen, now a Florida congresswoman. She has secluded herself entirely.

Mrs. Bryan has been an invalid for many years, but even confinement to a wheel-chair had not entirely tied her down. She was with her husband during the last great fight of his career, his defense of Tennessee's anti-evolution law at the Scopes trial at Dayton.

Since Bryan's dramatic death at Dayton a few days after the Scopes trial ended, she has been in retirement, spending her time with relatives and friends in Florida mostly.
