Church and Sunday School

United Brethren in Christ

R. E. Vance, Pastor

In the past few weeks I have given you the scriptural conditions of salvation. The benefits of salvation, which are many will appear each week for a time. I. Jesus said, in John 10:10, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

Remember to set your clocks back to standard time before retiring tonight. The S. school will begin at 9:15. Instruction and worship service combined. Subject of morning message, "Before Men"

The Senior C. E. will meet at 6:00 o'clock. Intermediates and Juniors at 6:30. Evening service 7:30. Subjects: "The Crisis" Next Sunday is Promotion Day. A certificate will be given to those promoted.

October 13th is Rally Day. A program of music and song and a pageant entitled, "Forth To Serve" will be given. Someone said "lets" set the goal at 500. That means someone, yes, everyone, will have to do his or her best. Let us be working.

Baptist Bulletin

O. E. Miller, Pastor

The Morning service begins at 9:30 and closes at 11:00. There will be the study of lessons by classes and promotion of students who should be advanced to higher classes. From ten thirty to eleven o'clock will be the message of the morning, Subject, "Holy Brethren". B. Y. P. U. at six o'clock.

The evening hour of praise and evangelism at seven. In this hour there is congregational singing, inspiration and worship. Subject of message, "God's Signet Ring."

All service will be on Central Standard time. Note the time of evening service, seven instead of 7:30.

Prayer meeting and Bible lesson Wednesday evening 7:30. We will study together the first psalm. Sunday October 6 will be Rally Day. A cordial welcome to these services.

Presbyterian

Harry H. Fernthell, Pastor

The Juniors will meet in the church parlors at 9:00 o'clock. This society is organized for the religious education of the boys and girls in worship. Your boy or girl should attend. Sunday school at 9:30. Mr. Ed Ashbacher is the superintendent. Sunday is Rally day and Promotion day. A special program has been arranged. A special offering will be gathered which will go toward meeting the church quota for the Board of Christian education. This means that Colleges, Sunday schools week day schools will be helped by our gifts.

Morning Worship at 10:30. The pastor will have message on the subject, "The Necessity of Christ." The Young Peoples Choir will assist in the ritualistic part of the service. Christian Endeavor at 6:00. Please note the change of time. Richard Schug is the leader. A good program is arranged and every boy and girl of Endeavor age should make it his business to be present.

Evening Services at 7:00 o'clock. Please note the change in time. The pastor will preach on the subject, "A Pharisee and Jesus". Perhaps some of us are in the same class. Everybody is welcome to attend all of the services. Beginning Sunday September 29th the services in this church will be held on Central Standard time.

First Evangelical Church

Winchester Street

Rev. M. W. Sunderman, pastor

"I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever." Sunday will be a happy day at the Evangelical church. The morning program will open promptly with a spirit of worship at 9:15. There will be classes for all ages, with competent teachers for all. This is our annual day of promotion service in the Bible School. The pastor will speak on: "What can we do for our own church." The choir anthem is: "I will sing unto Thee," by Chas. H. Gabriel. Every member of the church and Sunday School should be present at this service.

The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:15. Leader: Paul Spuller. This will be a service that will grip the interest of all young people.

Evening Evangelistic service at 7 o'clock. The pastor's sermon theme will be: "Tomorrow." Special violin solo: "Face to Face", by Herbert Johnson—Donald Gage. The choir anthem: "The Mighty God" by Chas. Gabriel.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday night, at 7:00. Sunday school board at 8:00.

Quarterly Conference on Friday night, at 7:00, by the Presiding Elder, Rev. J. O. Mosier.

Next Sunday is our Big Rally Day. Remember we go by standard time now.

pressional service at 10:30 by Otis Shifferly, Class Leader. Worship with sermon by Rev. M. W. Sunderman on Thursday Night at 7:30 Standard time.

The new song books will be used and thirty minutes will be devoted to singing. It will be a real pep service preparatory to the Rally Day Sunday October 6th. The quarterly conference will convene on Friday night 7:30 at the First church.

The Methodist Episcopal Church

Decatur, Indiana

R. W. Stoakes, Pastor

All services at hours designated on Standard Time.

The Church School will meet promptly at 9:30 A. M. It is desired that every teacher and worker be in his or her place on this Sunday especially as the Sunday precedes the "Rally Sunday." Then too the officers and teachers wish that this School Service might be a pre-rally Sunday. E. D. Colter, Superintendent.

The morning hour of worship will be conducted by the pastor. The service will have special music as a help to deep spiritual worship. The service will be at 10:45.

The 10:45 hour will also be the hour for the Junior Church. This will be in charge of Mrs. Stoakes and her helpers.

The Intermediate League will meet at 5:00 P. M. This service will be directed by Miss Bernice Nelson. This is one of the very active groups in the League and each department is competing with the other for attendance.

The High School League will have a very full evening. The program begins with the luncheon at five o'clock. The regular devotional hour at 6:00 and then the Young Methodist's service in the auditorium at 7:30. Every young person is asked to be in this service.

The evening services in the auditorium at 7:30 hour is some what of a departure and will be designated as "A Young Methodist Men's Night." The entire church and its friends are invited to this meeting. James Burk is to be the speaker.
