Officials Begin Task Of Arresting 300 Persons

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Arrests of 300 persons indicted by a U.
S. grand jury which ended a five-weeks session here Friday, were scheduled to start today.

Chief interest centered in serving of capias on 80 persons named in secret indictments, comprising nearly a third of the total of 131 returned.
The jury is believed to have directed a large share of its attention to alleged corrupt conditions in Lake county, and District Attorney Oliver M. Loomis has indicated there would be "some surprises" in referring to the secret true bills.

All defendants will be arraigned in federal court here Nov. 4, before Judge Thomas W. Slick.

SET NON-STOP FLYING RECORD

Coste And Bellonte Are Safe After Fear Had Been Expressed

Peking, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—The French legation received a telegram from the French fliers Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte today saying they had flown 5,988 miles without a stop from Le Bourget field, Paris, to Manchuria, to break the world's record for non-stop, long distance flight.

The telegram, signed "Coste and Bellonte" read:
"Landed safely on remote desert of Heilung, China, Sept. 29. Covered 5, 988 miles continuous flight breaking all records. Traveled week, reaching Tsitsihar, Oct. 6."

The estimate of the distance of the flight made by Coste and Bellonte was considerably higher than early approximations which had been made on a basis of geographical position.
However, considering that the fliers left Le Bourget with fuel for 50 hours flying and that aided by favorable winds they had average at times as high as 125 miles per hour, the 5,988-mile figure appeared probable.

Because of the scarcity of reports, it could not be determined to what extent the airmen varied from the straight line course, which would account for the nearly 1,000 miles difference between their estimate and the straight-line distance between Paris and Tsitsihar.

Their statement that the flight had been made without a stop left no doubt but that they had broken the record of the Italians, Arturo Ferrar-in and Carlo Del Prete, who flew from Rome to Brazil in July, 1923.

LOBBYING PROBE TO BE THOROUGH

Sub-Committee Will Call All Propagandists Before It To Testify

Washington, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—The inside story of Washington, with chapters on how lobbyists work to influence government policies, how society affects congressional votes and how former congressmen and government officials are employed by interests here, promises to be started this week before a new senatorial investigating committee.

It will be the most extensive un-taking in the investigating line congress has inaugurated and, according to those who are sponsoring it, all propagandists, large and small, secret and open, good and bad, will be called upon to reveal their activities.

The sub-committee which is to conduct the inquiry will be selected today at a meeting of the senate judiciary committee.

Among those expected to serve are Sen. Thomas J. Walsh, who uncovered the Teapot Dome oil scandal in a senatorial investigation; Senator Caraway, Dm. Ark., author of the project and perhaps chairman Norris of the judiciary committee.

Plans for the inquiry have been officially outlined by expressions from most of those who are expected to serve. They want to begin hearings before the end of the week, delving first into the tariff lobbies. During every tariff contest various manufacturers associations maintain attorneys or publicity representatives or both here to see their interests are either benefitted or protected.

Darrow Denounces Idea Of Sterilizing Morons

London, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Declaring that Morons are highly valuable to society and compose the class of any population that does the "mass of the world's most important work," Clarence Darrow, noted American lawyer, in an exclusive interview with the United Press today, attacked and denounced the movement to sterilize mental and moral defectives.

It is the Moron, he argued, who shoulders uncomplainingly the unpleasant tasks of life. If any steps are taken to prevent the reproduction of Morons, "many lawyers, doctors, parliamentarians, preachers and congressmen would have to go to work," Darrow contended.

Describing the propaganda for sterilization of defectives as "impracticable, unscientific and cruel," Darrow said:

"This is a new fad which I hope will pass away. The idea that a burglar will breed a burglar is utterly absurd. So far as heredity is concerned, a preacher is just as apt to produce a burglar as a burglar is.
The training that is given to the individual after birth doubtless has a good deal to do with it.

"As to sterilizing having anything to do with preventing criminal conduct it is well to understand the starting point. Technically crime means violation of a statute. A man may be kindly and humane and yet he may violate a statute. He may be cold, heartless and crafty and yet he may conform to all printed laws.

Eunice Pringle Takes Stand Again Today

Los Angeles, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Eunice Pringle will be on the witness stand in superior court again today so attorneys for Alexander Pantages may continue their attempt to break down her testimony that she was attacked by the wealthy theater man.

She already has been subjected to the cross examination of Attorney Jerry Teisler, but he has failed to shake her story.

The 17-year-old dancer, speaking in a soft, confident voice, told the jury Friday that Pantages lured her to his secluded consultation room to discuss booking for her act and then made frantic love and attacked her.

She probably will be asked by Geis-ler to re-enact the asserted attack scene for a third time.

After she has concluded, W. L. Gordon, tenant of the Pantages theater building, will be called by the state.
He was one of the first to reach the consultation room after the girl ran into the corridor, screaming for help.
He is expected to testify concerning an unidentified woman reported to helped Pantages arrange his clothing in the excitement which followed Miss Pringle's screams.

EIGHT DEAD IN AERIAL MISHAPS

Week-end Air Accidents Oc- cur In Widely Separat- ed Parts

Chicago, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Aerial accidents claimed eight lives in widely separated parts of the country yesterday.

Four men were killed when a monoplane crashed from 1,500 feet near Leona, Tex. A torn wing folded over the cockpit and prevented their jumping. The dead: Marvin Potter, Teague, Tex.; Lieut. Jack Brooks, pilot, Dallas; Leon Lynch, Centerville, Tex.; Allan Powell, Centerville.

Bryan Hefflin, pilot, Huntville, Mo., and Rowland and Miss Deldee Hardin, Moberly, Mo., passengers, were killed when the airplane in which they were flying crashed from 400 feet during ceremonies at the opening of a municipal airport at Moberly.

Thousands of persons saw Baker Diehl, 22, plunge 2,800 feet to death when his parachute failed to open at Altoona, Pa. He leaped from a plane piloted by Lieut. Ernest Hewitt.
