SEVERAL UPSETS IN HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL GAMES

Central, of Fort Wayne Is Credited With Biggest Upset of Week-end

By Dick Miller,
UP Special Correspondent
Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Coach Murray Mendenhall's central high school football team of Fort Wayne presented the surprise package in football last week over the state when they defeated Chelsea Boone's Elkhart eleven 40 to 6.

It was six years ago that the two teams began mixing it on the gridiron but the Fort Wayne boys never knew the taste of a victory until last Saturday. Two ball totting halfbacks, Biggs and Babb, made the upstarts dizzy as they slashed tackles, circled ends and romped over the chalk lines for touchdowns. Undoubtedly it was the day's biggest upset and ranks Central at the top in prep grid circles.

An argument between South Side of Fort Wayne and Huntington last spring over a baseball championship, recently ended when Huntington withdrew from the Northern Indiana High School conference. Imagine the feeling that existed between the two teams when they met in football at Huntington Saturday. Had the argument last spring been a question of football the Fort Wayne team would have settled it to the satisfaction of all for the Green Archers defeated the Vikings.

When Coach Waldo Fisher spurred his Munde team on to a tie with the rivals of Newcastle a week ago he must have sent them into a winning disposition for Saturday they continued their inspired performances and upset the fast going Logansport Berries, 16 to 0.

It appears that the north end of the state grid championship will be settled the same time as the Gary city championship. Horace Mann of Gary swamped Mishawaka Saturday, 34 to 0; Froebel outplayed Hammond, 21 to 1; and Emerson displayed power in trouncing Michigan City, 32 to 13. As the steel city boys mow down the northern conference teams one by one the interest leans toward the city series with each of the three teams looming strong.

The big dent in the dope bucket in the western Wabash valley circuit was made by Garfield of Terre Haute. The Purple Eagles were figured with much chance before their struggle with the "kings of Sullivan" a big and powerful eleven scored a 10 to 0 win.

Wiley of Terre Haute had tough time of it at Worthington winning 13 to 6.

Western Indiana has two great prep school halfbacks this fall in Tobin of Greencastle and Fuqua of Brazil. Tobin lead his team to a 98 to 0 victory over Shelbyville this week-end, scoring 64 points himself. Fuqua, the whole show of the Brazil backfield this fall, a perfect triple threat man, was at his best while Brazil defeated Crawfordsville, 45 to 9.

Clinton got back into the win column again defeating an old mine region rival, Bicknell, 13 to 0.

Glenna Collett Wins Fourth Golf Title

Detroit, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Holding her fourth American title, an honor achieved by no other woman, the great Glenna Collett stood out as America's premier woman golfer today.

Miss Collett won her fourth title Saturday when she defeated Mrs. Leona Pressler, a fellow Californian 4 and 3 in the final match of the 33rd national women's tournament.

TEAMS READY FOR OPENING GAME TUESDAY

Cubs And Athletics Are Ready For First Game At Wrigley Park

Chicago, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—The eve of another world series, post-season feature of baseball, finds the contenders evenly matched, and both clubs ready for the brief but strenuous struggle.

To an impartial overseer it appears that the Chicago Cubs have an excellent chance of wiping out memories of successive four-game victories for the American league, and of defeating the Philadelphia Athletics this year.

It is true the betting odds favor the American league champions, but in baseball wagering is by no means indicative of eventual victory.

Both clubs have enjoyed the best of luck as far as personnel is concerned. The Athletics, so frequently hampered by injuries in the past, have gone through a highly successful season with all their regulars and replacements intact. The Cubs lost their captain and first baseman, Grimm, for about six weeks, but he is back as good as ever.

Joe McCarthy, manager of the National league champions, agreed to announce this morning that Charley Root would be his starting pitcher. Connie Mack, whose Athletics were due here at noon, said he would not tell who would start until tomorrow, but it is no secret that it will be "Lefty" Grove.

The club which wins the first game in a world series enjoys a tremendous advantage, both psychological and mathematical. In the forthcoming series everything favors the Cubs. They are opening at home, on a field which will be strange to their rivals. They have in their lineup a number of "money players" who are ready to put in their best ticks.

No series in recent years has aroused the strenuous enthusiasm which will be on tap this week, and possibly next. Nearly two decades ago the Cubs and Athletics met in the world series, and the latter won in four out of five games. Since that time, Chicago, city and ball club, has been waiting for revenge.

Local enthusiasm over the series has reached a peak which one would scarcely have credited in view of Chicago's disastrous experience with its late world series, the affair in 1919 when the White Sox threw the engagement to the Cincinnati Reds for a consideration.

Apparently all memory of those bitter days have been wiped out, and the city once more is backing its ball club with the last cheer and the last dollar.

The weather forecast for the series is favorable, which is just as well since postponements would interfere seriously with arrangements. Two games will be played in Chicago, on Tuesday and Wednesday, after which the clubs will journey to Shibe park, Philadelphia.

We don't know whether Bluffton is to be congratulated or Auburn is to be laughed at—Anyhow Bluffton and Auburn played a 6-6 football game Saturday afternoon.

Huntington, after a hard battle man aged to keep step with Decatur and lost another game—This time to the South Side grid aggregation.

The Yellow Jackets go to Portland next Saturday. If the Jackets don't get a little more confidence in themselves—it's hopeless. They're big enough and know a lot of football—but the old machine sure needs its valves ground.

And Gee Whiz there's Gerber, Brown, Musser, Hurst, Zerkle, Williams, and Schnepf—that are good enough to play on any football team—and then Debolt, Hain, Green and Roop, in the backfield—What in the world is the matter boys?

Then we've got a lot of good reserve stuff—Well if we don't win at least three out of four games, the rest of this season—Jackets, you ought to be ashamed of yourselves.

The caddies at the Decatur golf course are still finding golf balls in the woods with Bluffton markings on them. And now we know why Bluffton golfers don't pay any attention to all these 72-hole guarantees for golf balls. What's the use if you only use a ball for five or six holes and then push it into the tall grass.

Pete and Kay can have a lot of fun this week telling all about the Bluffton-Auburn game. Which reminds us that according to the law of averages a poker player can draw a straight in the middle once out of 1,000 attempts.

"Cousin Brick" Tyndall, who wandered away from the fertile fields of Adams county a year ago or so and since that time has been making a vain effort to "dress up" the male population of Bluffton—returned in a sad condition Saturday night. Brick actually stood up in Joe's Y. M. C. A. Saturday and gave three cheers for BLUFFTON.

And now the WORLD SERIES will consume the sporting world at least until next Saturday. WE'RE STILL PICKING THE CUBS, Pete.

The game by innings will be carried each night in the DAILY DEMOCRAT if you want to know the score, call 1000 or 1001.

There were 49 guesses on the Decatur-North Side game and we've got them counted but can't announce the winner until Tuesday—because—we must admit we were heart-broken over Sunday after Cousin Brick startled the town Saturday night by cheering for the west suburb, and just couldn't work Sunday.

In the meantime folks, send in your guesses on the Decatur-Portland game.

WE STILL FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT ATHLETIC OFFICIALS SHOULD CARRY RULE BOOKS WHEN OFFICIATING HIGH SCHOOL EVENTS.

And we've learned too why Pete, in Grid Gabs, sides in with the officials—it is a known fact that Pete was a whistle-blower once—which makes us laugh heartily—we remember now that Pete worked a Decatur-Bluffton Second team game once—and we also remember that following the game we were unable to break through the mounted police to tell Pete what we thought of him—

And that's one exception to the rule—it wouldn't do Pete any good to have a rule book handy when he's officiating a Decatur-Bluffton contest. Decatur lost that contest on a foul.

Kay, let's you and I start officiating!

Let's take 'em as they come, Jack—Beat PORTLAND—at least play 60-minutes of football next Saturday.

All the Conference teams came through Saturday except Indiana—which was expected. And next Saturday the Conference season opens in earnest.

Central of Fort Wayne continued its hammering drive toward the state high school football title Saturday by defeating Elkhart, 40-6.

Typewriter behave! It hurts—but here's CONGRATULATIONS TO BLUFFTON.

At the world series opener tomorrow folks who were lucky enough to get reserved space inside the big board fence will see Martie Mylott and "One-Eyed" Conolley in boxes—and unless he forgets his tools and has to rush home, Irish Pat Hyland, well-known northern Indiana athletic official, WHO BELIEVES IN CARRYING A RULE BOOK, will also occupy a box seat. Ask no questions.

We've got to quit because we're still laughing over the fact that Pete, Grid Gab artist, was once an official.

BEAT PORTLAND.

TWO CASTOFFS LEAD LEAGUES

New York, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Two "cast-offs"—Frank (Left)—O'Doul, Philadelphia Nationals outfielder, and Lew Fonseca, Cleveland first baseman, won the batting championships of their respective leagues Sunday without swinging a bat in the final games of the season.

O'Doul finished the season with an average of .400, 16 points ahead of his nearest rival, Babe Herman of Brooklyn, who batted .384. Both the Phils and Dodgers were idle Sunday.

Fonseca did not play in the Indians' doubleheader with St. Louis and completed the season with an average of .369, five points ahead of Al Simmons, Philadelphia Athletics, who was second with .364.

The new National league batting king started his major league career as a member of the New York Yankees and has since been discarded by the Red Sox, the Cubs and the Giants, going to Philadelphia last winter in a trade for Fred Leach. In winning his title O'Doul established a new National league record for hits in a single season with 254. Four more than the previous record held by Rogers Hornsby.

Fonseca, the American league winner, was waived out of the National league at the close of the 1925 season. The Indians purchased him from Newark in the International league in 1927. Because of an injured arm he was considered uncertain of a regular position when the Indians went to training camp this spring.

Hornsby, Cubs, and Terry, Giants, finished third and fourth in the National with .380 and .372, and Manush, St. Louis, and Foxx, Philadelphia, took similar positions in the American with .355 and .354.

Football Game Ends In Riot In Chicago

Chicago, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—The Orioles Negro football team leading the Cossacks, white players 6 to 0, decided to quit yesterday because of darkness. A mixed crowd of 200 swarmed onto the field for a free for all. Three white players were stabbed by negroes and another was slugged and trampled.

FALL BRIBERY TRIAL OPENS

Former Interior Secretary Arises From Sick Bed To Attend Trial

Washington, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Albert B. Fall arose today from his sick bed where he has been ill with bronchitis for several days and went to District of Columbia supreme court for the opening of his trial on a charge of bribery.

The 68-year-old former interior secretary moved feebly, and had to be helped out of the car at the court house.

Fall was attended by several members of his family. His color was fairly good and he smoked a big cigar. Earlier in the day his physician had expressed doubt that he would be able to attend court.

Fall reclined in a huge green leather upholstered arm chair that was brought into the court room for him. He was dressed in black.

Fall listened impassively as Justice William Hitz read a decision overruling the defense pleas of double jeopardy attacking validity of the bribery indictment. Calling of jurors was started at once, after defense counsel noted an exception to the ruling.

Dr. H. T. Safford and a trained nurse sat beside Fall and the counsel formally entered a plea of "not guilty" for the aged cattle man.

The first 12 talesmen called included three negroes and two women.

Shipwreck Toll Is 45 Off Coast of Norway

Copenhagen, Denmark, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Forty-five persons were drowned and others were rescued from choppy seas last night when the Norwegian steamship Haakon VII was wrecked in a heavy fog near Floroe on the west coast of Norway.

The vessel sank in three minutes after striking rocks, and indescribable panic was reported. The captain was found later on a desolate cliff, suffering so badly that he was unable to explain the disaster.

The Norwegian steamer San Lucar hurried to the rescue of the sinking craft and picked up 57 passengers and members of the crew.

Another steamer, Arnfinn Jarl, belonging to the same company which owned the Haakon VII, piled through the fog and was wrecked some 500 yards from where the Haakon VII sank. None of its occupants was drowned, however.

Scores D. A. R. For Naval Parley Part

Boston, Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Senatorial investigation into activities of the D. A. R. was recommended by the Rev. William L. Stidger in a sermon at the Copley Methodist-Episcopal church.

He referred to the D. A. R. as a lot of old ladies who sit at home basking in the unearned increment of dead ancestors, satisfying their sense of self-importance by sending forth the stupid propaganda of war and allowing William B. Shearer to use their organization as a cats paw to rake his hot coals out of the fire.

Referring to the famous D. A. R. blacklist of a year ago, Dr. Stidger declared the hour had come "for the church to publish its own blacklist, and on that blacklist of men and

Special Grand Jury Called At Bloomfield

Bloomfield, Ind., Oct. 7.—(U.P.)—Information collected by combined county and federal law enforcement agents in an investigation here last week, today was given a special county grand jury.

The investigation resulted from the death of Delmar Oliphant, 19-year-old high school athlete, who was stabbed to death during an attack of citizens upon Wayne Lucas, a paid dry informer. Oliphant was trying to act as peacemaker when Lucas is alleged to have killed him.

It was rumored after the stabbing affair that high school boys were being sold liquor and an investigation was started.

Three men were arrested and taken to Terre Haute to face federal charges. Observers believed today there would be several more arrests made of persons violating state and county laws.

Officials expressed the opinion Saturday that there would be sufficient evidence for the grand jury to return affidavits for transportation and contributing to the delinquency of boys under the age of 16, and other misdemeanors.
