VOTE IN THE CITY ELECTION.
THAT'S WHEN WE EMPLOY
THOSE WHO WILL SERVE DE-CATUR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS.

You are cordially invited to attend the democratic meeting in headquarters at 7:30 o'clock this evening.
A program of interest has been arranged and you will enjoy it if you believe in Decatur.

A hundred men in Indiana University have joined the "no shave" club and taken a solemn obligation not to shave until three days after the Purdue-Indiana game, last of the season or until the I. U. football team wins a game, which is going to be plenty tough on the young ladies down there.

The first cold wave of the year was sufficient to make many predict an old fashioned winter which may come and may not, but you can feel sure that you will need plenty of fuel and reasonably warm clothing the next several months. Decatur stores and shops are well stocked with fine goods of every kind at the lowest prices and with reputable firms back of the merchandise.

For some years Mr. Trester has been permanent secretary of the Indiana high school athletic association.
Now his title has been changed to commissioner. He will act as does Judge Landis in baseball as the czar of basketball and other school sports, which won't make much difference for he has to all intents and purposes been that ever since he took the secretarial job.

An efficient fire department with first class equipment saved a loss of more than $150,000 in fires occurring in Decatur the past year. That's important in any city for good concerns will not invest unless they know they will have fire protection. We may well be proud of the fire fighting organization here and their record which has been good enough to secure a reduction in fire insurance rates on both dwelling and business properties. The administration has been doing every thing possible to make this department as good as can be found any where.

The city debt has been entirely paid off excepting a $50,000 bond issue due in 1931 and for which the funds have been set aside. That's going some when we consider that a few years ago the debt was more than $136,000 and that during the past six or seven years we have spent twice that much for improvements to the city plant, the parks, the streets, the fire equipment and the installation of ornamental lights. These facts ought to interest you intensely at this time when the campaign is on for the election of those who will conduct city affairs in Decatur the next four years.
George Krick with a strong ticket asks your support.

A sincere desire to help every one in this community has been the outstanding point in the George Krick administration. He and the others in his administration have made every effort to cooperate with the industries of the city because in these hundreds of men and women find employment. They have extended water mains, have reduced power rates, made possible a reduction of insurance rates and otherwise done excellent work. Such service deserves your sincere approval and merits your vote for the democratic ticket on November 5th.

So far the interest manifest in the approaching city election has been below par, at least so far as any public demonstration has been made. It is to be hoped that there will be sufficient activities the next ten days to bring out a large vote. We insist that this election is of vast importance for those whom you elect as mayor, coun-cilmom, clerk and treasurer will conduct the business affairs of this city from 1930 to 1934. With a million-dollar city plant and all the other matters to be carefully watched, these jobs are about as important as any in the community. Plan to vote and do more than that. Show an interest in Decatur by aiding in getting out the vote in your precinct.

The Swartz Case

Daily Democrat.
What has become of the "Skeeter" Swartz bootlegging case? Was it ever tried and what was the result?

"Inquisitive".

Our information is that Harold (Skeeter) Swartz was arrested for violation of the prohibition laws about six months ago. He was tried before Mayor Krick, with Prosecuting Attorney Nelson appearing for the state.
He was convicted and fined $100 and given a penal farm sentence of sixty days.
He appealed to the circuit court where the case is still pending because no jury trials can be heard until the court room is completed. Another case is

TO RECOMMEND LOAD LIMITS

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—(UP)—Rigid load limits, and curtailment of use of long vehicles, on Indiana highways, will be recommended to the next legislature by John J. Brown, director of the state highway department.

Brown outlined his program in an address here. It included empowering the state highway department to determine a speed limit for all detours.

"Our permanent highways were not designed for the tremendous tonnage that is now placed on them," Brown asserted.

Brown cited the many trucks and trailers on Indiana roads that make a train so long as to shut off vision of other motorists, thus endangering lives.

He declared that other states have load limits and it often happens that three trucks will transport cargo to the Indiana line, where they will reload and put the entire shipment into two trucks for the unlimited traffic through this state.

"We should not permit those trucks to travel our highways with the weight of a loaded freight car," he continued. "Our roads can never withstand such a strain."

"CANNOT PRAISE NEW KONJOLA TOO HIGHLY!"

Lady Grateful For The Quick Relief New and Different Medicine Brought Her

MRS. JAMES WARMOTH

"I cannot praise this new Konjola too highly, for it surely brought me wonderful relief from my suffering," said Mrs. James Warmoth, 840 West State street, Kokomo, Ind. "For a long time I suffered from stomach trouble. Indigestion followed my meals. My kidneys and liver were in poor condition and I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. Finally rheumatism developed and I suffered terribly from this affliction."

"I heard a lot about Konjola and the relief it gave in cases like my own. Now I am certainly glad to give it a trial. My stomach trouble has been corrected in every respect.
My liver and kidneys have been restored to a healthy normal condition.
Rheumatism is all gone and there isn't an ache or pain left. My nerves are calm and never bother me any more. I am glad to endorse Konjola and only hope that my experience will help others to find relief from their suffering."

Konjola is sold in Decatur at the Smith, Yager & Falk drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

KIDNAPING IS CLEARED TODAY

Detroit Youth Found By Police After Missing
Twenty-Four Days

Detroit, Oct. 24.—(UP)—The most sensational and baffling kidnaping in recent Detroit police history was believed cleared today with the rescue by black hand squad detectives of Jackie Thompson, five-year-old son of Henry S. Thompson, wealthy real estate dealer.

After 24 days of intensive police search for the Thompson boy, he was reported found by officers in a kidnapper's lair on the outskirts of the city, apparently little the worse for his long captivity.

Shortly after the safe return of the boy to his parent's home, police authorities announced the arrest of two suspects, who gave their names as James Fernando, 39, and Emil Soaze, 23. One of the pair is said to have admitted taking part in the kidnaping.

Mrs. O. T. Johnson returned Wednesday from Toledo, Ohio, after spending a several days visit with her sister, Mrs. S. N. Young.
