Joe McGinnity Dies

New York, Nov. 14.—(U.P.)—Joe McGinnity, baseball's famous iron man, died at his home in Brooklyn at 6:07 a. m. today.

The athlete who won fame years ago by pitching and winning double headers had been ill for some time and several days ago physicians announced only his tremendous vitality was keeping him alive.

McGinnity had been suffering from a tumor for several months. His daughter, Mrs. Margaret Lappen, and her husband, A. C. Lappen, were at the bedside.

MACADAM ROAD BOND SALE

Notice is hereby given that the treasurer of Adams County, Indiana, will receive sealed bids at 10:00 o'clock A. M., on Tuesday, November 19, 1929, for the following road bond sale to wit:

The Robert W. Glendon Macadam Road Hartford Township, Adams County, Indiana, and the amount being $2,600.00.

Said bonds will be issued in series of twenty bonds dated October 15th 1929 bearing interest at the rate of 4 1/2% per annum, payable semi annually on the 15th day of July and on the 15th day of January each year, as evidenced by and upon the surrender of the annexed coupons as they severally become due.

Said bonds will mature and become payable serially as follows: Bond No. 1 will become payable on 15th of July 1930 and one bond every six months thereafter.

Said bonds have been issued in strict compliance with the laws of the State of Indiana, with an order duly endorsed upon the records of the board of commissioners of said county authorizing the issue and sale of the same, for the purpose of providing funds for the construction of the above mentioned road.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Said bonds will be sold for not less than par together with interest and accruing interest.

Transcripts will be on file at the office of the Auditor of Adams County, Indiana.

If said bonds are not sold on said date said sale will be continued from day to day thereafter until sold.

State Motor Police
Is Seriously Hurt

Rochester, Ind., Nov. 14.—(U.P.)—Injuries which may prove fatal were suffered here last night by John Stanley, state motor policeman. The motorcycle he was riding crashed into the side of an automobile driven by George Helficker, 17.

The accident occurred 12 miles south of Rochester on State road 25. As near as could be learned Helficker misjudged the speed of the motorcycle approaching him and pulled from a side road directly in front of it.
