Man Charged With First Degree Murder

Muncie, Ind., Dec. 18—(UP)—Two indictments charging James Wood, 30, World War veteran, with first degree murder of George and Elizabeth Heath, aged farmers of near Muncie, Tuesday night, Dec. 10, were returned by the Delaware county grand jury today.

Wood was arraigned immediately after the indictments, and entered a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.

The trial date was set for Jan. 20, 1930.

Three Are Murdered

Romney, W. Va., Dec. 18—(UP)—Enraged because of his arrest on a liquor law charge, Walter Crabtree, 28, called three men to the doors of their homes here early today and shot them to death.

The victims were Justice of the Peace H. C. Inskip, 35; Ben Miller, 45, turnkey at the Hampshire county jail, and Ed Wolford, 18.

Three women, caught in the line of fire, were slightly wounded.

Long Suffering Quickly Ended By New Konjola

Rheumatism Of Twenty Years Standing Relieved Quickly By New Medicine

MR. CHARLES AZBELL

"I have suffered from rheumatism and neuritis for twenty years," said Mr. Charles Azbell, Route No. 5, Logansport. "These pains at times settled in my hips, knees, arms, back and ankles. There was scarcely a point in my body that did not feel the agony of these pains. Only those who have suffered from rheumatism and neuritis know what I suffered. To add to my misery my stomach became disordered and my food didn't digest.

"A neighbor told me about Konjola and said it helped him wonderfully. This medicine went to work at once and my pain and misery gradually disappeared. The swelling in my joints went down and I no longer felt the burning inflammation of neuritis. My stomach soon became normal and I eat heartily without discomfort. I rid my system of the poisons which made rheumatism a horror for years. I wish to recommend this medicine most highly."

Konjola is sold in Decatur at the B. J. Smith drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Colds are serious. Even mild cases are dangerous. Remember KONJOLA COLD COMPOUND (tablets) is giving amazing relief to thousands of cold sufferers every year. These tablets are of the same high quality as Konjola.
