Fliers Are Missing

Paris, Dec. 19.—(U.P.)—As hours passed without word from the three French aviators, Lassalle, Robard and Faltot, attempting a flight from Le Bourget field to Saigon, French Indo-China, authorities feared today they had met af ate similar to that of the British fliers, A. G. Jones-Williams and N. H. Jenkins, who died in a crash yesterday in the Tunisian desert.

The three Frenchmen left Tunis Sunday and were believed to have encountered some of the storms that have been prevalent over the desert southeast of Tunis for the past three or four days.

Town Talk

W. A. Klepper is home from a week of business in the east. Tuesday afternoon he played golf at Pittsburgh, wearing light summer togs and in his shirt sleeves, the thermometer showing 67 degrees temperature.

The young men and women who are attending college will begin arriving tomorrow and by Sunday most of them will be home for the Christmas holidays which begin Saturday and continue two weeks.

The Detroit News carried a three column picture of Miss Martha Newton, and says: "Attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lewton of Cherokee road, member of the committee arranging for the dancing party to be sponsored by the Amies club January 3. The affair will be one of the most important of the season for the younger members of society," Mrs. Newton was formerly Miss Fanny DeVilbiss of this city.

Please telephone in the arrival of guests for Christmas or the departure of members of family or friends for the holidays. We want to mention these items in our town talk column.

Saturday of next week will be trading day in Decatur with a number of features. Watch for further announcements.

The Decatur bus line was the only one which operated out of Fort Wayne this morning, the roads into this city being in better condition than any in northern Indiana it is claimed.

A. J. Smith and Earl A. Crider left yesterday for South Bend where they attended to business.

Ross W. Stoakes, Jr., student at Depauw University, arrived home today to spend the holiday vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Stoakes.

Mrs. E. Nudings of near Franklin is visiting with her son-il-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Lamb.

Cars parked along Second street yesterday afternoon had a hard pull to get out and several perched all night. Dr. Rayl worked a full half hour getting his Cadilac out of the drift in front of this office but finally made it with the assistance of I. Bernstein, Wal Wemhoff, Chief Melchi and others.

William Ruppert of near Monroe was in early this morning and said the road was fairly good north and south but some of the side drives were full and running over.

Tommy Durkin, who is completing his sixth year at the St. Joseph's College in Renssalear, will arrive home Saturday for the holiday vacation.

A letter was delivered to the Auditor's office today from Jos. Kane of Whiteinch, Glasgow, Scott land, wanting information about an ancestor who lived in Indiana. The letter was postmarked Scottland and came al the way across the Atlantic for a three half pence stamp.

Hoover's Plan Doomed For Delay In Senate

Washington, Dec. 19 — (UP) — President Hoover's plan for an immediate investigation of Haitian conditions appears doomed to indefinite delay.

Although a resolution authorizing appointment of a commission of seven members and expenditure of $50,000 was adopted in the house late yesterday, it encountered a cloudy situation in the Senate today.

Chairman Borah of the Senate foreign relations committee, who never has been sympathetic with the Harine policy in Haiti or Nicaragua, declared his committee would be unable to consider the matter until after the Christmas holidays. As the Senate already has entered a gentleman's agreement to consider no matters save tariff after the Holidays the resolution may not reach the Senate floor ntil February or later.

Miss Ruth Castle of Fort Wayne visited here this afternoon.
