CHINESE BANDIT GROUPS LOOTING IN WIDE AREA

Civil Turmoil Prevents Government From Quelling Disturbances

By D. C. Bess

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Peiping, Dec. 30 — (UP) — An alarming increase in banditry in at least 10 China's 18 provinces is indicated in reports received by foreign Legations here from their consuls.

This state of affairs is attributed chiefly to the persistence of civil war.

The consular reports state that most of the bandits are not professionals, but men and women who have been driven to prey upon their neighbors because of desperate need of food. In some of the cases reported whole villages banded together to make raids upon neighboring villages to obtain food supplies.

Such instances were reported from Szechwan, Hupeh, Kansu, Anhwei and Fukien provinces.

In several provinces—notably Honan, Shantung and Kwangsi—consular reports indicate that former soldiers grouped into well-organized bandit gangs have looted towns and villages and kidnapped persons even of moderate means for ransom.

Several army commanders have not paid their troops for months, even years, and eventually the soldiers desert to become robbers.

North Manchuria has been a chief sufferer from the recent spread of banditry. During recent years, with comparative peace and order, this section has prospered and the government had succeeded in suppressing the Mongol, Chinese and White Russian robbers who infested the area.

But the dispute with Soviet Russia has preoccupied the government troops, with the result that the bandits have become more active than ever. The 2,000-mile border between Siberia and Manchuria is out of reach of the Chinese troops, and affords easy prey for the robber bands.

PROHIBITION IN LIMELIGHT OVER WEEK-END

is the goal of opponents of the present law.

"Wets" in congress prepared to consolidate their position to take advantage of the split threatened among the dyes by Senator Borah's assertion that prohibition enforcement is a failure.

Buffalo, reputed wettest city in the nation, where a suspected rumrunner was slain last night, was reported preparing for bitter warfare between rival liquor gangs.

Stutz Concern May Form Merger

Indianapolis, Dec. 30 — (UP) — Plans for merger of the Stutz motor car company of America with a prominent and leading automobile manufacturing concern are near completion, M. E. Hamilton, treasurer of the Stutz company, said today.

With three suits, two asking appointment of a receiver, filed against the Stutz company in state and Federal courts today, reorganization of the Stutz interests probably will be announced definitely tomorrow when E. S. Correll, president returns to Indianapolis, according to Hamilton.

To Open Ticket Sale

Indianapolis, Dec. 30 — (UP) — Advance sale of tickets for the annual 500 mile International stakes at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Friday, May 30, will be opened January 10. Mail orders will be taken at that date and counter ticket sale will open Monday, Jan. 13.

Violence Threatened

Lahore, India, Dec. 30 — (UP) — A swing of conservative Indian leaders toward a policy of "non-cooperation" to obtain self-government from Great Britain was indicated today in debate in the Indian national congress.

The resolution and subjects of the congress, which is attended by 3,000 delegates from parts of the country, accepted tonight the plan of Mahatma K. G. Gandhi for a civil boycott of British goods.
