He was placed in an ambulance and rushed to ward Laramie for medical attention. The car hit some loose gravel and smashed into a pole. Higginson finally reached the hospital with a broken arm to match his broken leg.

OBITUARY
"Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words:
"We must forever part."
Dore W. Deboit was born in Adams county, Indiana, in 1883. The greater part of his life was spent in Decatur. He was called to his Eternal home Sunday, April 27, 1930, after a brief illness. He leaves to mourn his departure, his wife, four daughters, Mrs. A. Bailey and Mrs. L. Springer of Decatur, Lucille and Lavon at home, two sons Chester and Kenneth Lewis at home. One son, Harold, preceded the father in death. He also leaves four brothers, one sister, four grandchildren, and numerous other relatives and friends.

We could not believe you were going, dear one, but we knew by your peaceful face that God had taken you by the hand and was leading you home. We know that God in His loving heart understands and keeps, and some day we shall meet you in our Heavenly home where death and earthly cares shall no longer sadden our hearts.

But let us not grieve for him who has gone on. We know he is in a happier land, watching us with the same cheerful smile he gave us when he was with us. His hand will ever be upon our hearts. In life he was a kind and loving husband and father. In death he is our guide and unseen helper.

"Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark
For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar."

Card of Thanks
I want to thank the voters of St. Mary's Township for their support in the primary election.
