Zion Reformed Church
A. R. Fledderjohann, Pastor.
Man is primarily spiritual and continually has the sense of the Eternal. He cannot root out faith. Man is a seeker of foundations. He wants to feel at home somewhere. The Sunday school and worship services deal with our relationship to the Eternal God. Let us be there tomorrow.

Sunday school at 9:15 o'clock. Lesson, "A Pioneer of Faith." Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Sermon subject, "Freedom and Baptism of the Holy Spirit." The first Union Sunday night service will be held at the Presbyterian church with Rev. R. E. Vance of the United Brethren church preaching. We want to be well represented at these services.

Official board of the church will meet in regular session on Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Baptist Bulletin
O. E. Miller, Pastor
The morning service at 9:30 with a program of worship and study of the Bible lesson. The sermon subject will be, "Seeing the Unseen." After eleven o'clock the Lord's Supper will be observed.

Remember this ordinance is in memory of Him.
The Union services of the evening will be at the Presbyterian church with Rev. R. E. Vance speaker.
Prayer and meditation Wednesday evening 7:30.

"O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

United Brethren Church
R. E. Vance, pastor.
The Psalmist declares the sweetness of God's word.—Ps. 119-103. How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!—Ps. 19:10. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb. Sugar is one of the staple articles of every home, no table in hotel, home or restaurant is without it. Both young and old are delighted with its sweetness. And thus we may continue. The Word of God holds a like place and taste in every life. Many do not know of its sweetness because they have not tasted that the Lord is good. Come with us tomorrow and taste of the sweetness of his Word, at 9:15 o'clock. Worship service following the Sunday School.

Notice: During the month of July we will join with the other churches in the Union meetings. The first union service will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Bring your friends and come along.

Our regular official board meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Wednesday night prayer service at 8 o'clock.

First Presbyterian Church
Harry H. Ferntheil, pastor.
Sunday School at 9:30 o'clock.

Wilson Lee will act as superintendent. Every class is going at top speed in spite of the summer months. There is no summer slump. Let us keep up the good work right through. The topic for the lesson in the adult classes is "A Pioneer of Faith." There is a class and a teacher for everyone.

Morning worship at 10:30 a. m. The pastor will preach on the theme, "A Righteous Notion." The choir will assist in the ritualistic part of the service and sing some special numbers.

The evening Union services will be held in this church and Rev. R. E. Vance of the U. B. church will be the preacher. The Presbyterian choir will furnish the music for this union service. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

First Evangelical Church
Winchester Street.
M. W. Sunderman, pastor.

The First Evangelical church does not believe in freezing up in summer. Last Sunday the attendance was at high tide. Everything is set for another record attendance Sunday at 9:15 o'clock with a program of music, instruction and worship in sermon. The Men's Chorus will sing at the morning service. This service, as usual, will close at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach upon: "The Power of the Spiritual Life."

There will be no evening service. This church will join in the union services of the city. The first service will be held at the Presbyterian church.

The Evangelical Brotherhood will go to Celina, Ohio, on Tuesday night, where they will have charge of the program of a union meeting with the Brotherhood of the Evangelical church. The Men's Chorus will have a special rehearsal at the close of the worship on Sunday morning.

The "Church at Prayer" service on Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m.

The annual Sunday School picnic on Friday afternoon and evening at Lehman's Park in Berne. The committee is planning for the biggest and best picnic yet.

state today, as they sailed north by northeast, according to reports reaching headquarters of the national balloon race officials here.

The first reported move across the state line came at 9:15 a. m., when three balloons were sighted over Shreveport, La., and crossed into Arkansas.

The location indicated the huge gas bags now are heading east, after an almost due north flight during the night, and will cross the Texas line into Arkansas near Texarkana.

The 15 balloons, nine commercial entries and three each entered by the Army and navy, got off faultlessly at dusk yesterday, while a crowd estimated at nearly 50,000 jammed the Bellaire speedway and choked all roads leading to the starting field.
