Harrison Name Again

in Hoosier Politics

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29—(UP)— Another member of a family engaged in politics for 90 years will have his name on the ballot list this ad when Marion county voters go to the polls to decide whether they will put William Henry Harrison 3rd in office as state representative.

The Harrison family began its political career when the first William Henry Harrison, of "Tippecanoe and Taylor, Too" fame became president of the United States. Benjamin Harrison, a grandson, also became president and the son of Benjamin, Russell, served in the state legislature and is a present consul to Mexico.

EDISON TEST BOYS GATHER

broadcast. Wilbur L. Huston, of Port Madison, Wash., Edison's pretense of last year, was present to welcome the aspirants.

Yesterday the boys submitted to a psychological test, but today's festivities were of a social nature, and the youth's main problem was picking out a girl to take to tonight's dance.

There was young "Mr. Alabama" for instance.

"What do you want to do?"
someone asked him.

The youth pointed out the picture of a girl on the society page of the paper he was reading.

"I want to take her to the dance," he said.

The group includes farmers' sons from North Dakota, South sons from Maine and Tennessee.

Stanford Neal, Kentucky's best, is the son of a Winchester minister, and Robert P. Howell, Jr., of Delaware, is the son of an army colonel.

Judges in the contest will be Harvey S. Firestone, Henry Ford, William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana University; George Eastman, Hubert S. Howe and Lewis Perry, headmaster of Phillips Exeter Academy.

Filling Station Ban

Ruling Reaches Court

Richmond, Ind., July 29—(UP)— Arguments were heard in circuit court here today on a recent ruling of state fire marshal Alfred M.
Hogston, forbidding operation of "self service" gasoline stations.

The case was one in which Thomas Jenkins, president of the Nu-gas company, sought to enjoin the fire marshal from enforcing his order. Earl Stroup, deputy attorney general, and Paul Brady, legal advisor for the fire marshal, argued for the state and contended that the stations were a fire hazard.

Attorneys for the gasoline company contended that Hogston exceeded his authority in issuing the ruling and that he had no authority to forbid operation of a filling station.

NEW CHAPEL TO BE DEDICATED

Gift of Haynes Family to Be Dedicated at Winona Sunday

Winona Lake, Ind., July 30—Dedication of a new chapel, given to the Presbyterian synod of Indiana by Mrs. Bertha B. Haynes and Mrs.
Bernice Haynes Hillis, in memory of their husband and father, Elwood Haynes, maker of the first automobile, will be dedicated at Winona Lake on Sunday, August 3rd. The dedication service is scheduled for 3 o'clock, Central Standard Time.

The chapel will be used in connection with Camp Kosciusko which is conducted by the Committee of Christian Education of the Synod of Indiana, under personal direction of Robert J. McLandress, of Indianapolis. This camp this year will entertain six groups of Presbyterian Young people, each group consisting of about 200 boys or girls. The young people are housed at Kosciusko Lodge, a 200 room hotel donated to the Presbyterian Church several years ago by Mrs.
"Billy" Sunday. The new chapel was erected this year. Rev. Rhys Price Jones, D. D. of South Bend, moderator of the Synod of Indiana, will deliver the dedication sermon. The dedicatory service will be in charge of the Rev. Harry L. Crain, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church of Frankfort and Chairman of the Presbyterian church of ET EA000 Committee of Religious Education of the Synod. Mrs. March Haynes, well known singer, will sing at the exercises.

Presbyterians from all parts of the state are expected to attend the exercises and inspect the church's splendid camp.

CHINESE TOWN IS PILLAGED

China fighting the powerful northern rebel coalition.

The natives who succeeded in escaping before the communists arrived fled in such haste that they left all their belongings behind them. They hastened northward in the direction of Hankow, hoping the communists would abandon their advance with the capture of Changsha.

The communists spared nothing as they milled through the city, looting even the properties of foreign consulates.

Washington, July 30—(UP)—The 45 Americans evacuated from the bandit-pillaged city of Changsha, China, are safe aboard the American gunboat Palos, the state department has been advised by Frank P.
Lockhart, American consul general at Hankow. Three American missionaries refused protection and remained in the stricken city.

Lockhart's message stated the U. S. S. Guam had been ordered to Chenglingchi to protect Americans there. The consul general has advised Captain Moore of the Guam that a destroyer should be sent to protect Americans at Hankow and to insure maintenance of communications.

Hankow is quiet. Lockhart reported, but he added that the continued presence of the U. S. S. Mon-coacy at Kinkiang is advisable.
The Palos had been ordered to remain at Changsha as long as possible, but late official advices said the gunboat, which had been struck by gunfire Monday night, had been forced to depart due to the overwhelming number of Communists, and by reason also of the rapidly falling water mark. The British and Japanese ships departed and anchored five miles down the river at about the same time.

The "Communists" were in control of the city and were firing public buildings and invading the international settlement when the American and other vessels arrived here stated. Looting pant, the reports added.
Americans at Tahan were urged to withdraw to place safety.
