SPORTS

PIRATES WILL TACKLE TOUGH TEAM SUNDAY

Local Independent Baseball Aggregation to Meet
Fort Wayne Team

The Decatur Pirates, independent baseball team, will meet the Fort Wayne Independents, conquerors of Berne A. C.'s, in a baseball game at the South Ward diamond here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The local team has been bolstered for the occasion.

Tiny Horton, Decatur high school football mentor, will don a Decatur uniform for the game. White and Ladd will form the local battery and Fravel, Geneva baseball star, has consented to play with the local diamonders.

No admission will be charged for the tilt but a collection will be taken to defray expenses. The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock, daylight saving time.

Frank Peterson will umpire. The local team has been going good the last few weeks and indications are tomorrow's game will develop into a great battle. The Fort Wayne team has not lost a game this season and will be out to maintain a clean record.

TERRY, WILTON MOST VALUABLE?

New York, Aug. 30.—(U.P.)—When the National league heads voted to abolish the "most valuable" player award they deprived some honest, hard-working athlete of $1,000 in cash and much space in the newspapers, but they also forestalled many a bitter argument.

Today, with the season fast nearing a close, there are several players whose work is so outstanding that quite a lusty shriek would be raised if any of their names were not inscribed on the scroll.

Bill Terry of the New York Giants and Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs would be the chief contenders for the award if it was being made this year, with Terry having a possible edge. Terry has been a great ball player for several years but never received the acclaim he was due.

Terry is a "ball player's" ball player. That is, he makes his job seem so easy, does his work so quietly, that the fans overlook him.

The latest records reveal that Terry leads the league in hitting with a .404 average and has made more than 200 hits. In addition, he is the greatest fielding first baseman in baseball. When the Giants slumped badly earlier in the season, Terry almost single-handedly saved them from dropping to the bottom of the second division.

There are many who would award the palm to Wilson. And the followers of the bandy-legged, barrel-chested outfielder are not without their statistics. Wilson, though batting some 50 points lower than Terry, has hit 44 home runs and leads the league in runs driven in. Wilson also can play centerfield with the best of them and his flaming, never-say-die spirit means more to the Cubs than his home runs.

Kiki Cuyler, Wilson's team-mate, is another who would warrant serious consideration. Fast on the bases, a great fielder, and a strong hitter, Kiki has done a large share toward keeping the Cubs in the league lead.

Rabbit Maranville, ancient but spry shortstop of the Braves, wouldn't be overlooked entirely when the award was being made. Rabbit has been the sparkplug of the Bostonians all season.

There are others, many others, but none probably who compare in importance to these four.

THREE HITTERS IN NAT LEAGUE

New York, Aug. 30.—(U.P.)—Three men, Bill Terry of the New York Giants, Chuck Klein of the Phillies, and Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs, dominate the National league batsmen according to the figures compiled by United Press and including games played Thursday, August 28.

Terry leads in hitting with an average of .404, and is tied with Klein, who boasts an average of .387, for the most hits, with 203. Klein also heads the double hitters with 45.

Wilson tops the league in home runs with 44 and has also batted in the most runs, 149. Wilson's 44 homers, incidentally, constitute a new league record.

Adam Conorsky, Pittsburgh, leads in triples with 23. Cuyler, Chicago, is the premier base stealer with 32, and has scored the most runs, 129.

Pat Malone, Chicago, is the leading pitcher of the league with 16 wins and 6 defeats for an average of .727.

New York is the best batting club with an average of .320, while Cincinnati, last in batting, tops the league in fielding with a .974 average.

Lou Gehrig is the king of American league batters. The big New York Yankee first baseman leads the league with an average of .396; has made the most hits, 188, and has batted in the most runs, 148.

Babe Ruth is right behind his team mate with two league honors. Ruth leads in home runs with 44, and in runs scored with 134. Heinie Manush, Washington, and Johnny Hodapp, Cleveland, are tied for the lead in two-baggers with 39 each. Earl Combs, New York, has made the most three-baggers, 17. Marty McManus, Detroit, tops the base stealers with 18.

Bob Grove, Philadelphia, is the leading hurler, with 21 victories and 5 defeats for an average of .808.

New York leads in club batting with .309, while Washington heads the fielding parade with .974.

BASEBALL BRIEFS

By United Press
With the Chicago Cubs 5 1/2 games out in front, the National league race today seemed to have developed into a three-cornered battle for second position between the New York Giants, the Brooklyn Robins, and the St. Louis Cardinals. These three clubs were bunched today as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.
New York	69	54	.561
Brooklyn	71	57	.555
St. Louis	70	57	.551

The Cubs, faced with a long road trip, may yet crumble but it is not likely. They proved themselves real champions Friday by twice coming from behind when the game appeared hopelessly lost to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 9 to 8 in 12 innings. Trailing 5 to 9 when they went to bat in the ninth inning, the Cubs batted around to score five runs and tie the score. The fans started a rush toward the exits in the 11th when Bottomley's home run gave the Cards three runs. The Cubs, however, drove Bell to the showers and then nicked Grimes for a single in the 13th after Stephenson tripled and Grimes purposely passed the next two men.

The Giants regained second place by eking out the Robins 3 to 2 in the third game of the series. Allen's home run tied the score after the Giants had trailed for eight innings and Jackson's single scored the winning run a few minutes later.

The Boston Braves took an 11-inning game from the Phillies 9 to 8. Rabbit Maranville got four hits and handled ten chances in the field.

Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were rained out.

In the American league the Chicago White Sox took a 13-inning game from the Cleveland Indians 3 to 0. Caraway went the route for the winners and allowed but three hits. Clint Brown did the pitching for Cleveland, and was nicked for 15 safeties.

The St. Louis Browns defeated the Detroit Tigers 9 to 6 in the only other American league game. The Browns scored six runs off Whitehill in the first inning while only one man was retired.

Yesterday's hero: Pat Caraway, who allowed but three hits as the Chicago White Sox defeated Cleveland 3 to 0 in 13 innings. Caraway also hit two doubles.

FOUR INJURED IN AVALANCHE

ing their vacations had amputated an arm from one youth and a leg from another, using a kitchen knife as a surgical instrument. Even that makeshift treatment was delayed 48 hours because the spot is almost inaccessible.

The operations were performed by the light of a kerosene lamp in a tent, it was reported.

The avalanche occurred Tuesday afternoon when a heavy blast of dynamite was set off by the construction gang building a trail from Mount Whitney to the Yosemite valley. The four students—unable to the ways of dynamite—failed to leave the scene in time. The blast started a slide 500 feet up the mountain side and hurled tons of dirt and boulders on top of the youths. Fellow workmen estimated the slide ran 12 miles to a camp and told the story. The Rangers rode 22 miles over trails to the nearest wire and put into effect the machinery of an organized rescue.
