The football player who gets knocked over and gets up smiling is a dangerous contestant. The same thing is true in this game we call life. Ever notice it?

Lady voters are urged to remember and to attend the afternoon meeting at the Decatur Country Club tomorrow afternoon. The program will interest you and the entire afternoon will prove a happy event. Be sure to go.

Boost along the Halloween celebration to be given by the G. E. band boys. Its going to be a fine party and one that you can bring the children to with the assurance of safety and a good time. They will enjoy the masquerade parade, the music and the sport.

The wets are fighting Senator Walsh in Montana and may defeat him. Well they will beat a mighty good senator if they do and an honest man who has always stood just where he stood and why. At least even his enemies cannot deny his sincerity and his ability.

Mr. Curtis says the farm outlook is better. It may appear that way in Washington just now on the eve of an election but he probably did not convince many of those farmers who gathered in New Albany the other evening if the drought stories recently sent from southern Indiana were accurate.

The political campaign is getting lively over the state and the next three weeks will bring numerous meetings and radio speeches. You will have no difficulty in ascertaining that the issues this year are the old ones of non-employment, the tariff, taxation and mismanagement.

There are numerous indications of a democratic victory in Indiana this year and newspaper writers every where are predicting it. An article in this week's Collier says that at least nine of the thirteen congressmen to be elected this year, will be democrats, which would be a gain of six from this state.

The democratic candidates in this county are making a clean, honest and straight forward campaign. They are capable and deserving and are entitled to the support of the party for which they have fought for years. We believe they will have it and that the entire ticket will be elected by a majority which will show the appreciation of the public.

Guy Mahorney of Hartford City, who is the republican candidate for state senator in this district says he is in favor of laws that "will make the bank depositors money safe and in favor of better laws for equalization of taxes." Well, who isn't? We are sure his opponent, Senator T. A. Gottschalk of this county is and that because of his experience in the legislature is better qualified to get something done.

"The Richmond city council and the mayor are quarreling over the management of the city electric light plant, worth about $5,000,000 and yielding a profit to the city of $400,000 yearly. Municipal ownership would be more popular, if politics were kept out of it. The Hartford City waterworks is an example of the benefits derived from municipal ownership. Everywhere that a municipal plant — waterworks, electric light and power, or street car — has been managed right, it has been a good thing for the people. It is the word "it" that tells the story."—Hartford City News.

Vice-President Curtis speaking at Indianapolis said "there still is as much money as ever and we will recover from this depression just as we have from the previous ones." May we ask where and when? Any way the republicans really do admit when pressed, that a depression can occur during a republican administration. They excuse it by saying it is world-wide. Well, what made that? Perhaps it started on Wall street a year ago and spread across the ocean for we notice that when the stock market here slumps, it registers in other countries almost immediately.

The last legislature appropriated $10,000 per year for maintenance of the governor's mansion. Reports show that this money is being drawn monthly but instead of being used for the purpose, is going for furniture and other items. The sum of $182 was spent for fumigating and we wonder if that's sufficient for other articles include $9.00 for an ash tray and $20.25 for another; $203 for card tables and chairs, $15 for a cigarette box, $245 for a vanity mirror and $315 for a commode. The governor has also bought a Lincoln car for $4,500 out of his contingent fund and some other things that look a little peculiar.

Packing Glass
When one must move after the winter's fruit is put up, the glass jars can be kept from cracking by cutting off inner tubes into sections the right length, and slipping them over the jars.

Curling Feathers
Dissolve equal pounds of quicklime to the same number of gallons of water. Let it settle well and pour off the liquid. Soak feathers in this solution for 4 or 5 days and then rinse in several changes of water, and dry.

Lumpy Gravy
To prevent gravy from becoming lumpy, add a pinch of salt to the flour that is used for thickening, before mixing it with the water.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Should a girl, when in a restaurant, ever place her gloves and pocket book on the table?

A. No; she should either put them on an empty chair or keep them in her lap.

Q. Should a girl thank a man for taking her to some place of amusement?

A. No; but she should tell him that she has had a pleasant time.

Q. Is it discourteous to watch the players' hands at a bridge or card game?

A. No; it is not rude to watch a card game in a home where one is a guest, but strangers do not watch a card game if they are well-bred.

Lessons In English

Words often misused: Do not say "His words made me mad." Say, "angry."

Often Mispronounced: Patima. Pronounce fat-i-ma, first syllable as "fat," i as in "it," last a as in "ask" and accent first syllable, not the second.

Often Misspelled, Cater-cornered (not cat'a nor cat'ry.)
Synonyms: Destiny, fate, doom, fortune, lot.

Word Study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: Preeminence; quality or state of being prominent among those who are distinguished. "He is a man who occupies a position of world preeminence."

JACK DIAMOND, FAMOUS GANG LEADER SHOT

many enemies he had made in his career as a powerful Broadway racketeer.

A phone call, received as he sat eating a late breakfast in the room of 29-year-old Marian Roberts, red-haired Ziegfeld beauty, lured him into the trap that had been set for him many months ago.

Diamond had the reputation in the underworld of having had a hand in the death of about 50 men. He has been mentioned in connection with practically every murder of any prominence in the last few years, although police never were able to fasten any of them on him.

The gangster told police that he did not know who shot him.

"If I knew I'd tell you," was his only statement.

Commissioner Mulrooney said today, however, that he had obtained an account of the incident from Miss Roberts, Diamond's chorus girl sweetheart. It was said that she had tentatively identified two photographs in the rogues' gallery at police headquarters as those of the men who called the gang leader on the phone.

After receiving the call, she said, Diamond told two men to come upstairs and took them into his own room.

She heard him pleading for his life just before the burst of shots, she said. She dressed quickly and fled. Later she was found hiding under some clothes in a closet in the apartment of Agnes O'Laughlin, another showgirl, who recently sued Andy Vallee charging breach of promise.

The story the showgirl told Mulrooney today conflicted in several details with previous statements attributed to her.

ists shouted: "starvation dictator!"

Cat calls and hisses greeted the fascists and there was continual disputing and bitter antagonism between the radical factions. The most serious blow to the government was believed to be the economic party order for its cabinet member, Minister of Justice Johann Brodt to resign from the government. The party also demanded formation of a cabinet of experts to meet the present political crisis.

Yesterday, the 600 delegates heard Raymond Robins, New York, and Mrs. Mary Harris ARMOR, Atlanta, speak in defense of the present prohibition laws and urge stricter adherence to prohibition. Robins asserted that the prohibition amendment expressed the will of the people and praised the prohibition administration department for their enforcement of it.

Mrs. ARMOR said the dry cause was firmly installed and the fight would be continued until the world was free of liquor traffic. She cited figures of the nation's growing wealth to support assertions that prohibition was the cause of increased prosperity.
