Notice is hereby given that upon petition filed in said court by Old Adams County Bank, Administrator of said estate, setting up the insufficiency of the estate of said decedent to pay the debts and liabilities thereof, the Judge of said Court did on the 6th day of October 1930 find said estate to be probably insolvent, and order the same to be settled accordingly. The creditors of said estate are therefore hereby notified of such insolvency, and required to file their claims against said estate for allowance.

Witness the Clerk and seal of said Court, at Decatur, Indiana, this 6th day of October 1930.

NOTICE:

Our directors have made application to change our Charter to a STATE one.

We shall have same shareholders, same directors, same officers as at present. We believe that we can more nearly meet the requirements of our community under the State system.

To meet the details of this change it is necessary to give the following notice for 61 days:

The First National Bank located at Decatur, in the State of Indiana is closing its affairs. All not-holders and other creditors of the association are therefore hereby notified to present the notes and other claims for payment.

DRY LEADER'S BROTHER HELD IN WASHINGTON

by Emmet which said:

"My personal relations with F.
Scott McBride are friendly. We are only estranged in politics and business. He is not sincerely a temperance reformer. He has had no lively conscience against the evils of the liquor traffic and little heart interest for those who suffer from drink. His interest has always been the publicity and political connected with the reform program and with the abundance of contributed money to handle and speculate with."

At that time Dr. F. Scott Mc-Bride issued a statement saying his brother Emmet, was "practically an invalid" and often was "irresponsible."

Stevensville, O., Oct. 15.—(U.P.)— Emmet McBride, brother of Dr. F.
Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League was arrested in Washington on charges of passing a $35 worthless check on an official of the Steubenville Bank and Trust Company, the United Press was informed today by County Prosecutor Jesse K. George.

McBride will be extradited to Ohio to face trial if he refuses to waive extradition, George said.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS
Notice is hereby given that Monday, November 3, 1930, will be the last day to pay your full installment of taxes. The county treasurer's office will be open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. during the tax paying season.
All taxes not paid by that time will become delinquent and a 10% penalty will be added. Those who have bought or sold property and wish a division of taxes are asked to come in at once.

Call on the Auditor for errors and any reductions. The Treasurer can make no reductions.
The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty of delinquent taxes resulting from the commission of tax-payers to state delinquency of what property, they desire to pay, in what name it may be found, in what township or corporation it is situated.

Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once, the law is such that there is no option left for the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes.

The annual sale of delinquent lands and lots will take place on the second Monday in February 1931 at 10:00 A. M.

County orders will not be paid to anyone owing delinquent taxes. All persons are warned against them.

No receipts will be held after expiration of time, as the new depository law requires the Treasurer to make daily deposits.

Particular attention: If you pay taxes in more than one township mention the fact to the Treasurer also see that your receipts call for your real estate and personal property.

In making inquiries of the Treasurer regarding taxes, insure reply do not fail to include receipt postage.
Ed. A. Ashbaugh,
Treasurer Adams County, Indiana.

Mr. Gillig reviewed several business problems before the local congregation and asked the united support and cooperation of its members in carrying out and in assisting in the program sponsored by the pastor and trustees.

Father Seimetz expressed his appreciation to the men for the wonderful turn out and to those who assisted and gave of their time in making the drive for members. He thanked everyone concerned and stated that he was inspired with the sentiment and co-operation expressed at the meeting.

Father Hennes, who is also athletic director of the Decatur Catholic school, spoke on school athletics and outlined a program of activities for the year. He stated that a meeting of the congregation would be held Thursday evening, October 23 at the Catholic school building for the purpose of organizing an athletic association, whose function it would be to assist him in planning and carrying out the basketball schedules

WOMAN RETURNS

she and her mother were surprised by the armed kidnaper Monday night and the younger woman forced into her own automobile.

"I saw only one of the men all the time I was away," she said. "He talked about meeting some other men in the hills near Stockton. I was lost and don't know exactly where we were."

"The kidnaper threatened me only once. That was when he let me go. He said he would kill me and murder my father if I told any one where we went or attempted to identify him."

"Forcing me to drive my own car, the kidnaper first took me to Arcola. Then he took the wheel and drove west into the hills. Near Jericho Springs he hit a stump and wrecked the car. Then he forced me to walk about eight miles farther into the hills. Finally he released me with the threats."

Officers heading the posses were convinced that the kidnaper belonged to the same band that abducted Samuel Katz, wealthy Kansas city druggist, recently and forced him to pay $100,000 for his release. The officers said they believed the plan of the kidnappers was to hold Mrs. McKinley far back in the hills and extort a large ransom from her father, who made his millions in Oklahoma oil and retired to Greenfield.
