

SOCIETY

Miss Mary Macy
Miss Margaret Hale
Phone 1000-1001

CLUB CALENDAR

Friday
Pleasant Bible Class, Mr. and Charles Barnhouse, 8 p.m.
Conservation League, Mrs. Langston 7 p.m.
Evangelical Halloween Party in basement—7:30 p.m.
H. E. Society
Brethren V. I. S. Class
Society party Miss Glennys and Arnold, 7:30. Meetat the

MASQUERADE DANCE TO BE GIVEN HERE

The American Legion Drum Corps will sponsor a Masquerade Dance to be held Halloween night, Friday, October 31, at the K. of C. Hall. This will be given in conjunction with the General Electric Band who is sponsoring the big Halloween parade, and will complete an evening of fun, festivities, and dancing.

The legion has been fortunate in obtaining the famous Tri Lake orchestra who played during the past summer season at the Tri Lake pavilion. Good music is guaranteed, and there will be entertainment for everyone.

Liberal prizes will be given for the best costumes and everyone is urged to come masked. The public is invited to attend the dance and all are welcome to come masked or not masked.

MISS MARSHIA OHLER HONORED WITH SHOWER

The Misses Esther Sunderman, Vivian Lynch, and Mary Macy united in entertaining last evening at the home of the latter on Winchester street, with a party and shower of girls, honoring Miss Marsha Oehler, whose marriage to Clarence Smith will take place Saturday, October 25.

Small tables were arranged about the living room, where games were played, and Miss Dorothy Spauler was awarded the prize, which she in turn presented the bride-elect. A Fruitful Romance also furnished entertainment for the evening, after which the small tables were laid with dainty luncheon cloths and a luncheon in one course was served by the hostesses.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, a sinner of beautiful and useful gifts were presented the honored guest.

Those present at the party were the Misses Marsha Oehler, Helen Coon Ruth Hammond, Marcella Martin, Grace Elston, Elva Anspaugh, Dorothy Spauler, Mary Engle, Doris Elzey, Esther Sunderman, Vivian Lynch, and Mary Macy.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY

Ralph Hawkins entertained a number of his little friends, Tuesday evening with a Halloween party at his home on Russel street. The home was decorated with Halloween colors of black and orange and pumpkin faces cast a weird light about the home.

The conclusion of the luncheon, a sinner of beautiful and useful gifts were presented the honored guest.

Ninety seven calls were reported for the past month, and the following committees were appointed for the next month: calling committee, Mrs. Ben DeVor, and Mrs. William Little; Lookout committee, Miss Elsie Blackburn and Mrs. Jesse Nidick.

Following the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The regular business meeting was followed by a demonstration by Mrs. Charles Barnhouse on "The Value of a Dollar, in Buying." Mrs. Charles Gage gave a very interesting talk on storing of vegetables for winter.

Mrs. R. O. Wynn was welcomed into the club as a new member Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the club brought their canned fruits for the Adams County Memorial Hospital, at this meeting. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual Guest Day in November at the home of Mrs. Cal Kunkel.

ENTERTAINS
BRIDGE CLUB

Black cats, witches, and orange and black tapers were used about the entertaining rooms of the Forest Elzey home last evening when Miss Charlotte Elzey entertained the members of her bridge club. Five games of bridge were played and Miss Marga C. Haley received the prize for high score.

The small tables were laid with faint linens and centered with orange and black tapers in keeping with the season of Halloween, and a one course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Helen Gerber will entertain the club members at her home in two weeks. The members of the club which was recently organized include the Misses Betty Macklin, Aleta Harlow, Margaret and Dorothy Haley, Helen Gerber, Isabel Hower, and Charlotte Elzey.

EVANGELICAL LADIES
HOLD AID SOCIETY MEETING

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical Church met in the church parlors. Thursday afternoon, for the regular social and business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Linn, the president of the society had charge of the business session, and Mrs. George Dutcher, Junior, led the devotional service. The members voted to each give a dollar at the all-day meeting of the society which will be held in Decatur, at which times the final reports of the organization will be made. They also decided to hold the annual Christmas dinner and exchange of gifts this year.

Fifty-two members and eight children were present at the meeting and the collection amounted to $36.66 dollars and twenty-four cents.

A fine donation of canned fruits, vegetables, and jelly was presented to Rev. M. W. Sunderman at the close of the meeting.

The church parlors were decorated for the meeting yesterday with Halloween streamers of black and orange, and black cats and owls added to the seasonal decorations.

Following the business session, the ladies were invited to the dining room, where tables were arranged, centered with bud vases of fall flowers. A luncheon consisting of sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, coffee, and candy was served by Mrs. Earl Butler's section, the members of which are Mrs. Sam Black, Mrs. Dan Eckrodt, Mrs. E. U. Cramer, Mrs. Harry Staley, Mrs. Frank Peterson, Mrs. Fred McConnell, Mrs. Addie Sheets, Mrs. Dan Helm, Mrs. Ivan Stucky, Mrs. D. F. Roop, Mrs. Dallas Spauler, Mrs. William Klushman, Mrs. Charlene Lamlin.

W. O. M. L.
HAS BUNCO PARTY

A fair sized crowd enjoyed the public Bunco Party given by the Women of Mooseheart Legion at the Moose Home last evening. After several games of bunco were played prizes for high score were awarded Mrs. Walter Eicher, Mrs. William Noll, and Frank Lynch. The Messmates George Tester, Dora Cook, and Archie Long were the committee in charge of the party. Another similar party for the public will be given at the Moose Home in two weeks.

LADIES AID
HAS BUSINESS MEETING

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Leigh Bowen, Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Martin Gilson, the assisting hostess.

The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Charles Polking, after which the regular routine of business was held. The ladies made the final plans for the New England dinner and cafeteria supper which will be held in connection with the bazaar on November 3.

Ninety seven calls were reported for the past month, and the following committees were appointed for the next month: calling committee, Mrs. Ben DeVor, and Mrs. William Little; Lookout committee, Miss Elsie Blackburn and Mrs. Jesse Nidick.

Following the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The regular business meeting was followed by a demonstration by Mrs. Charles Barnhouse on "The Value of a Dollar, in Buying." Mrs. Charles Gage gave a very interesting talk on storing of vegetables for winter.

Mrs. R. O. Wynn was welcomed into the club as a new member Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the club brought their canned fruits for the Adams County Memorial Hospital, at this meeting. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual Guest Day in November at the home of Mrs. Cal Kunkel.

ENTERTAINS
BRIDGE CLUB

Black cats, witches, and orange and black tapers were used about the entertaining rooms of the Forest Elzey home last evening when Miss Charlotte Elzey entertained the members of her bridge club. Five games of bridge were played and Miss Marga C. Haley received the prize for high score.

The small tables were laid with faint linens and centered with orange and black tapers in keeping with the season of Halloween, and a one course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Helen Gerber will entertain the club members at her home in two weeks. The members of the club which was recently organized include the Misses Betty Macklin, Aleta Harlow, Margaret and Dorothy Haley, Helen Gerber, Isabel Hower, and Charlotte Elzey.

EVANGELICAL LADIES
HOLD AID SOCIETY MEETING

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical Church met in the church parlors. Thursday afternoon, for the regular social and business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Linn, the president of the society had charge of the business session, and Mrs. George Dutcher, Junior, led the devotional service.

The little guests arrived at the party masked and after the identity of each had been guessed games were enjoyed. Betty Hower, Juanita McKean and Orval Irwin won the prizes awarded. Following the games refreshments were served to the following: Paul Baumgartner, Margaret and Milton Hoffman, Velma and Orval Irwin, Kathrine, Rosemary, and Betty Brown. Martha Elsen, and Betty Hower, Annabelle Joan, Juanita and Orlie McKean Bobby and Alice Owens, Bobby Baker, Bobby Egley, Dixie Miller, Forrest and Pauline Hawkins, Marie Strand, Bobby Collier, Paul Burgess, Ralph, Paul, and Billy Hawkins.

made. They also decided to hold the annual Christmas dinner and exchange of gifts this year.

Fifty-two members and eight children were present at the meeting and the collection amounted to $36.66 dollars and twenty-four cents.

A fine donation of canned fruits, vegetables, and jelly was presented to Rev. M. W. Sunderman at the close of the meeting.

The church parlors were decorated for the meeting yesterday with Halloween streamers of black and orange, and black cats and owls added to the seasonal decorations.

Following the business session, the ladies were invited to the dining room, where tables were arranged, centered with bud vases of fall flowers. A luncheon consisting of sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, coffee, and candy was served by Mrs. Earl Butler's section, the members of which are Mrs. Sam Black, Mrs. Dan Eckrodt, Mrs. E. U. Cramer, Mrs. Harry Staley, Mrs. Frank Peterson, Mrs. Fred McConnell, Mrs. Addie Sheets, Mrs. Dan Helm, Mrs. Ivan Stucky, Mrs. D. F. Roop, Mrs. Dallas Spauler, Mrs. William Klushman, Mrs. Charlene Lamlin.

W. O. M. L.
HAS BUNCO PARTY

A fair sized crowd enjoyed the public Bunco Party given by the Women of Mooseheart Legion at the Moose Home last evening. After several games of bunco were played prizes for high score were awarded Mrs. Walter Eicher, Mrs. William Noll, and Frank Lynch. The Messmates George Tester, Dora Cook, and Archie Long were the committee in charge of the party. Another similar party for the public will be given at the Moose Home in two weeks.

LADIES AID
HAS BUSINESS MEETING

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Leigh Bowen, Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Martin Gilson, the assisting hostess.

The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Charles Polking, after which the regular routine of business was held. The ladies made the final plans for the New England dinner and cafeteria supper which will be held in connection with the bazaar on November 3.

Ninety seven calls were reported for the past month, and the following committees were appointed for the next month: calling committee, Mrs. Ben DeVor, and Mrs. William Little; Lookout committee, Miss Elsie Blackburn and Mrs. Jesse Nidick.

Following the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The regular business meeting was followed by a demonstration by Mrs. Charles Barnhouse on "The Value of a Dollar, in Buying." Mrs. Charles Gage gave a very interesting talk on storing of vegetables for winter.

Mrs. R. O. Wynn was welcomed into the club as a new member Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the club brought their canned fruits for the Adams County Memorial Hospital, at this meeting. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual Guest Day in November at the home of Mrs. Cal Kunkel.

ENTERTAINS
BRIDGE CLUB

Black cats, witches, and orange and black tapers were used about the entertaining rooms of the Forest Elzey home last evening when Miss Charlotte Elzey entertained the members of her bridge club. Five games of bridge were played and Miss Marga C. Haley received the prize for high score.

The small tables were laid with faint linens and centered with orange and black tapers in keeping with the season of Halloween, and a one course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Helen Gerber will entertain the club members at her home in two weeks. The members of the club which was recently organized include the Misses Betty Macklin, Aleta Harlow, Margaret and Dorothy Haley, Helen Gerber, Isabel Hower, and Charlotte Elzey.

EVANGELICAL LADIES
HOLD AID SOCIETY MEETING

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical Church met in the church parlors. Thursday afternoon, for the regular social and business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Linn, the president of the society had charge of the business session, and Mrs. George Dutcher, Junior, led the devotional service.

made. They also decided to hold the annual Christmas dinner and exchange of gifts this year.

Fifty-two members and eight children were present at the meeting and the collection amounted to $36.66 dollars and twenty-four cents.

A fine donation of canned fruits, vegetables, and jelly was presented to Rev. M. W. Sunderman at the close of the meeting.

The church parlors were decorated for the meeting yesterday with Halloween streamers of black and orange, and black cats and owls added to the seasonal decorations.

Following the business session, the ladies were invited to the dining room, where tables were arranged, centered with bud vases of fall flowers. A luncheon consisting of sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, coffee, and candy was served by Mrs. Earl Butler's section, the members of which are Mrs. Sam Black, Mrs. Dan Eckrodt, Mrs. E. U. Cramer, Mrs. Harry Staley, Mrs. Frank Peterson, Mrs. Fred McConnell, Mrs. Addie Sheets, Mrs. Dan Helm, Mrs. Ivan Stucky, Mrs. D. F. Roop, Mrs. Dallas Spauler, Mrs. William Klushman, Mrs. Charlene Lamlin.

W. O. M. L.
HAS BUNCO PARTY

A fair sized crowd enjoyed the public Bunco Party given by the Women of Mooseheart Legion at the Moose Home last evening. After several games of bunco were played prizes for high score were awarded Mrs. Walter Eicher, Mrs. William Noll, and Frank Lynch. The Messmates George Tester, Dora Cook, and Archie Long were the committee in charge of the party. Another similar party for the public will be given at the Moose Home in two weeks.

LADIES AID
HAS BUSINESS MEETING

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Leigh Bowen, Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Martin Gilson, the assisting hostess.

The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Charles Polking, after which the regular routine of business was held. The ladies made the final plans for the New England dinner and cafeteria supper which will be held in connection with the bazaar on November 3.

Ninety seven calls were reported for the past month, and the following committees were appointed for the next month: calling committee, Mrs. Ben DeVor, and Mrs. William Little; Lookout committee, Miss Elsie Blackburn and Mrs. Jesse Nidick.

Following the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The regular business meeting was followed by a demonstration by Mrs. Charles Barnhouse on "The Value of a Dollar, in Buying." Mrs. Charles Gage gave a very interesting talk on storing of vegetables for winter.

Mrs. R. O. Wynn was welcomed into the club as a new member Thursday afternoon.

The ladies of the club brought their canned fruits for the Adams County Memorial Hospital, at this meeting. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual Guest Day in November at the home of Mrs. Cal Kunkel.

ENTERTAINS
BRIDGE CLUB

Black cats, witches, and orange and black tapers were used about the entertaining rooms of the Forest Elzey home last evening when Miss Charlotte Elzey entertained the members of her bridge club. Five games of bridge were played and Miss Marga C. Haley received the prize for high score.

The small tables were laid with faint linens and centered with orange and black tapers in keeping with the season of Halloween, and a one course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Helen Gerber will entertain the club members at her home in two weeks. The members of the club which was recently organized include the Misses Betty Macklin, Aleta Harlow, Margaret and Dorothy Haley, Helen Gerber, Isabel Hower, and Charlotte Elzey.

EVANGELICAL LADIES
HOLD AID SOCIETY MEETING

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Evangelical Church met in the church parlors. Thursday afternoon, for the regular social and business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Linn, the president of the society had charge of the business session, and Mrs. George Dutcher, Junior, led the devotional service.

TO TEMPT YOU AND KEEP YOU WELL

Now you can have, in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a ready-to-eat cereal that is as delicious as it is healthful. Two delightful styles to choose from: the famous krumble cereal, or the new Biscuit.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is far better than habit-forming laxatives. It sweeps out body-poisons, and banishes constipation.

It is guaranteed. Two table-spoons of the krumble, or at least one Biscuit daily, will prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal.

ALL-BRAN also provides the body with iron. At your grocer's in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. The original All Bran.

Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Welder, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jackson and granddaughter Janice, Mrs. Ocia Barkley and granddaughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Shiffler and children, Eldred, Ermil Dale and Mildred. The honored guests were the recipients of many birthday gifts.

Get the Habit—Trade at Home.</