To The Voters
- of -
Washington Twp.

It has been an impossible task for me to see all the voters of the township. I wish to thank the many men and women who have assisted me in my campaign and I will greatly appreciate the votes of all citizens of the township, for whom I have worked willingly and faithfully the last four years.

I am a candidate for reelection as Washington township trustee and I earnestly solicit your vote next Tuesday, on the Democratic township ticket.

I promise to continue with all my efforts to carry on the work of my office to the best advantage of all and to the very best of my ability.

T. R. NOLL,
Democratic candidate for Trustee, Washington tp.

Wabash, Ind., Oct. 30.—(UP)—The big cabin in which Mrs. Salome Myers has spent 25 of her 101 years, served as the reception place for guests who called upon her yesterday to help celebrate her first birthday in the second century of life.

When Mrs. Myers was six years of age her parents built the cabin in which she now lives with two daughters. She was married in the cabin, and continued to make it her home when her husband was killed in the Civil War.

Mrs. Myers' health is good, although she is nearly blind.
