The Man Who Succeeds
The man who makes a better job out of the job he has instead of always looking for a better job is the man who succeeds.—Florida Times-Union.

No Peace and Quiet

"A day at the office with a constant stream of salesmen coming in puts no gilt on your frame of mind," says Neal O'Hara.—Ameri can Magazine.

"Parting Shot" in Will

The will has just been proved of a man living in a suburb of London who died last November, in which he left to his wife: "One pair of my trousers, free of duty, and carriage paid, as a symbol of what you wanted to wear in my lifetime, but did not." That was one time a woman didn't get in the last word.—Capper's Weekly.

Death Date Is Set

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 11.—(UP)—Governor Fisher today set the week of January 12 for the execution of Irene Schroder and Glenn Dague convicted of the murder of Corporal Brady Paul of the Pennsylvania state highway patrol.

Seek Meanest Man

Indianapolis, Dec. 11.—(UP)—Police today searched for an "unemployed racketeer" who took a family's last $3 in return for a fake union card with which the father was to obtain employment at a high salary. The man also visited other families besides that of Everett Ellis, it was reported.

To Build New Cabinet

Paris, Dec. 11.—(UP)—Senator Theodore Steeg, former governor general of Morocco, accepted in principle a commission to form a cabinet from President Gaston Doumergue today. "I will seek a union of the Republican group," Steeg told the United Press after he had conferred with the president at Elysee palace.

A cover has been invented for outboard motor propellers that reduces the speed of a boat when a fisherman wishes to move slowly enough to troll.

Pressing a button on the end of a new tooth brush of English invention switches on electricity to revolve the bristles against its user's teeth.

An oil well bit that has been invented for both rock and soft formations alike is equipped with a large reamer to insure a round and full sized hole.

An international exhibit of housing and town planning will be held as part of the German building exhibition at Berlin from May to August next year.

For drying clothes or towels in a kitchen a stool has been invented containing rods that are drawn up through the seat and turned outward to form racks. Gas filled tubes for illuminated signs have been developed that can be operated with a direct instead of an alternating electric current. A novel night light is made in the form of a doll's head, an electric bulb that it contains being illuminated by pressing it against a battery in its pedestal.

History of Visiting Cards

It is believed that something similar to the modern calling (or visiting) card was used by the Chinese or some other Oriental people in very early times. It was first used in the Western world by the Germans in the Sixteenth century, and was soon adopted in France and elsewhere. The French, under Louis XIV, used very elaborate and ornate cards. When England took up the use of the cards in the Eighteenth century simplicity was made the standard.

quired to post deposits with Landahl so the road would not be sold to a practical joker without funds. Competition from automobiles and motor busses and a coal miners' and railroad workers' strike several years ago brought the Chicago and Alton into its present difficulties. Revenues decreased, liabilities increased and a receiver was named. The road, including its good will, was understood to be valued by the owners at about $125,000,000. The interstate commerce commission has set a value of $80,000,000.

A "Medal of Honor" for the ONE you love best

A gift idea that's new this Christmas

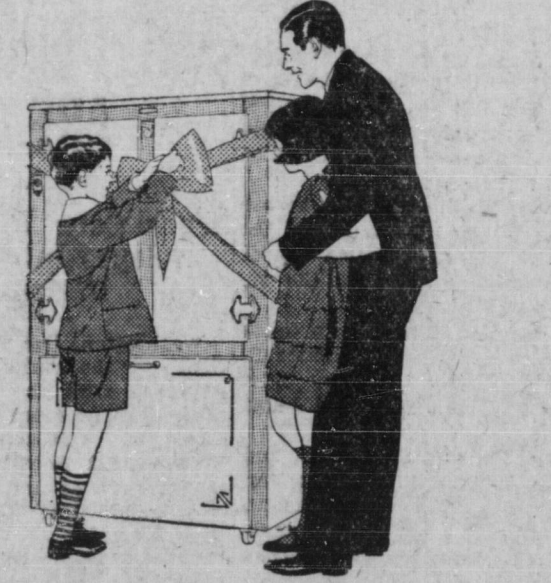

How shrewdly they keep us from knowing—these wives and mothers of ours. They never show their disappointment when they unwrap some curious knickknack. Instead, they hide their tears and tell us it's just what they wanted.

But it's time to end this "error of judgment" and give them a real Christmas thrill for a change.

It's such an easy thing to do. The price of a few Christmas trinkets will put a Frigidaire in your home. And that's a gift of which any wife or mother will be proud. Not only that, it's a gift that is lasting—a gift that she'll use every day in the year—a gift that really shows how much you love her.

FRIGIDAIRE Aristocrat of Christmas Gifts August Walter DECATUR, INDIANA

In short, it's the aristocrat of Christmas gifts. Yet prices are lower than they've ever been before. And we offer such liberal Christmas terms that no one has the slightest excuse for holding back! Why not drop into our Display Rooms today and let us help you set the stage for a Christmas thrill she'll never forget.

The "Medal of Honor" Frigidaire

Here is the beautiful sterling silver medallion or "Medal of Honor" that goes on the cabinet of all gift Frigidaires this Christmas, at no extra charge. It may be engraved with the name of the recipient or with both her name and yours. Or, if you prefer, you can present the medallion alone (in a handsome velvet case) and let her select her own Frigidaire at her leisure, later on.
