Crime Prevention

H. E. Barnes says: "First step in preventing crime is to see that the human individual is well born, second, adequate education; third, sufficient manual or vocational education to provide means of making a living; fourth, efficient method of aiding backward children who might become victims of crime; I suggest."

Pinchot May Lead Independent Program

Governor-elect Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, is being mentioned as a possible rallying point for the independent program that would receive impetus if the proposal of Senator George W. Norris of Ne-
