recognized," he was asked.
"No," Christoff replied.
"Didn't you say that it was Thompson who made a suggestive remark and washed his bloody hands?"
"No," said Christoff.
Elsie Draves, 21, sister of the dead girl, was called as the second witness.
Garments worn by Arlene the night of the drinking party at the Thompson home were identified by the sister.
The garments were torn and bloodstained.
The state had been expected to close its case after the testimony of one or two persons.
In addition to Dr. Stoner, the state had called Ellis Thomas, Gary policeman, Murrell Clemens, Arlene's brother-in-law, and William Davidson and Harry Parker, Gary youths.
Thomas was in Christoff's lunchroom when Kirkland and two companions entered, leaving Arlene's body in an automobile outside.
Davidson and Parker saw the girl's body in the automobile, told Kirkland she was dead, and went with him to a physician; they were not involved in the events preceding Arlene's death.
Robert Moore, attorney for the four youths indicted with Kirkland, announced today his plans for their trial.
The four, Thompson, Leon Stanford, Harry Shirik and Paul Barton, are in jail at Gary. Kirkland was granted a separate trial and a change of venue.
Moore indicated he would move for the same procedure for each of the other four.

NEEDY FARMERS
APPLY FOR AID
patriation approved two weeks ago by President Hoover.
Ten thousand loan application blanks were being sent to offices at Bismark, N. D., which will disburse the loans.
The army of hungry farmers is mobilizing in 21 states to borrow Federal money with which to buy food, clothing and medicine. As collateral, they must give a first lien on their crops, as in the case of loans under the $45,000,000 drought relief appropriation.
Two classes of loans will be made.
1. Loans to individuals for erection or expansion of capital structure of agricultural and livestock credit corporations in local communities.
2. Loans for the "rehabilitation of agriculture."
The latter is the phraseology included in the bill at the insistence of President Hoover, who feared any loans other than those under the $45,000,000 seed, feed and fertilizer fund would be mistaken as "doles."

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde has interpreted "rehabilitation of agriculture" to mean "just what it says," the money to be used for "loans not gifts."
Under the first classification, $10,000,000 is available for loans to farmers who subscribe to capital stock in credit corporations. In no case will loans be extended to members of corporations who tal stock totals less than $250.

Under the second classification, the agriculture department make loans direct to farmers who are not members of credit corporations, according to Hyde.
Applications for loans first be approved by the county which is to be formed in one of the 21 states. Only one has far been organized—in Arkansas, but the department has lists of prospective members of other state committees and expects to complete them this week.
