French Minister Predicts
End of Franco-Italian Problems

Mar. 3—(U.P.)—The naval accord reached last week at Paris was "merely the prelude to the rapid ending of all Franco-Italian problems," Foreign Minister Aristide Briand said today in debating the foreign affairs in the chamber of deputies. He described the accord as a move toward world disarmament.

The naval accord represents another step in the general direction of total world disarmament," said Briand. "Italy must be praised for her unselfish role."

The conclusion of a naval armistice is merely a prelude to the rapid ending of all Franco-Italian problems, including the 30-year discussion of the status of our in Tunisia and of the colonial frontiers."

The Franco-Italian controversy in northern Africa has been a source of trouble in the past, particularly in connection with claims of Italian support of the rebels in Libya. At one time it was believed that Italy had demanded sat-

Take Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

and You'll Jump Out of Bed
the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the food looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative or chewing gum and expect to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two quarts of liquid bile into your bowels.

It takes those good CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute.

As Frazer Confessed

Five hours of constant grilling failed to shake the story of William M. Frazer, of Rahway, N. J., that the shooting of Mrs. Phoebe Stader was an accident. Frazer is pictured with Abe J. David, prosecutor of Elizabeth, N. J., and William N. Frazer, the accused.

Reds of people gathered near the building. They were driven back by police before removing the bomb.

JOBLESS RIOT IN LEGISLATURE

As session failed, the troopers started using their clubs. Several troopers were clawed and a few appeared severely scratched and cut when they came down from the west gallery.

Speaker McGinnies sought to keep the assembly in session, but the members stood on their seats the better to see the struggle in the gallery.

The fight still raged in the west gallery when other delegates, who had made their way into the east gallery, began shouting down at the house, where by this time there was no semblance of the usual dignity. Clerks and attaches crowded into the chamber and booted back at the shouts of the delegates.

Leader of the outbreak in the east gallery was known as "Emma Rollins," a red-haired woman who had taken a leading part in the parade to the capitol which preceded the riot.

The unemployed marchers, most of whom came from New York City, had promised their leaders that if admitted to the legislature they would not interrupt the proceedings and later would be content to send a delegation to interview legislative leaders.
