BEARS COMING
ON WEDNESDAY

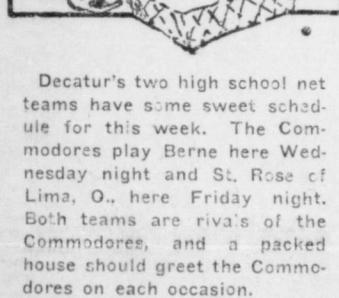

Berne high school basketball team will come to Decatur Wednesday night for the first of a two-game series with Catholic high school Commodores. The Bears started off strong early in this season but have taken a decided stand.

On the contrary the Commodores are hitting their stride better each week and indications are the Lancers will turn back the Bear invasion. Berne lost last Saturday to Petroleum, but the game can hardly be considered in summing up the ability of the two teams because three Berne regulars were on the bench for violation of training rules.

The game is scheduled to start Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock. The two second teams will play at 7:30 o'clock and the two eighth-grade teams will play at 6:30 o'clock. Bob Wemhoff, St. Joe coach said today that his squad was pointing for the Berne game, figuring the Berne graders as one of the contestants for the county title.

The gymnasium will open at 6:15 o'clock and a big crowd is expected to arrive early for the 6:30 o'clock game.

Coach Laurent is drilling his Commodores hard for the main game and a real scrap between the two natural rivals is expected. Berne fans report that about 75 to 100 will accompany the team to this city.

MAT CARD TO BE PRESENTED

Decatur's two high school net teams have some sweet schedule for this week. The Commodores play Berne here Wednesday night and St. Rose of Lima, O., here Friday night. Both teams are rivals of the Commodores, and a packed house should greet the Commodores on each occasion.

Herb Curtis will take his Yellow Jackets to the west extreme of Decatur for a clash with Bluffton. The game will be interesting—and no matter if one team is rated at 20 points better (we don't know which) it will be a great contest—Bluffton-Decatur games always are.

Our first guess is that Decatur will win comfortably—Our second guess is that Bluffton will win. Take your choice.

On comparison of records the Curtismen should have little trouble with the Tigers—Decatur has won four straight since the disastrous early-season road trip. Bluffton has dropped games to Hartford City, South Side and Auburn in a row.

The main bout brings together two such well known grapplers as Eddie Marshall, marvel of the Pacific Coast, and Al Newman, outstanding challenger of the eastern seaboard. Marshall, appearing here shortly before the holidays, stole the show when placed in the semi-windup of a card, while Newman made himself solid with the fans in two great battles against Regis Siki, the giant Negro and Jumping Joe Savoldi, once the pride of Notre Dame's famous football team. Both are recognized throughout the country as leading contenders for the heavyweight championship.

In the semi-windup, Siki comes back to tackle Charles Stanton, another eastern wrestling of question ability. Siki is well known to mat enthusiasts here, while Stanton gave an excellent account of himself on one card at the outdoor arena last summer.

The main go will be a three-fall match with a time limit of two hours. The semi-windup, also a three-fall match, will be limited to 45 minutes.

PURDUE TRIMS

teams cannot play in the national tourney at Chicago.

One news story stated that the schools sanctioned the ruling—We're still looking for the representative of Decatur Catholic high school who voted for the ban.

Anyway it's going to take a lot of fun out of spring basketball and our best guess is that it will be the crucial test for the state association—This year Central Catholic of Fort Wayne; Cathedral of Indianapolis, and Washington Catholic all have good teams—probably good enough to win the national tourney.—We'll just have to wait and see if they go to the tourney.

On the face of it, it appears as if the state Catholic group was getting ready for a merger with the I. H. S. A. A., and there are lots of arguments both ways concerning that point. No doubt, several sectional tourneys, now merely breaking even would make money if the Catholic schools were taken into the I. H. S. A. A.—but how about the national tourney?

The Barne Review sports writer makes an appeal today for his town's high school net players to observe training rules—it's a fine pleat which all high school players should observe.

Wooden and Stewart led Purdue's attack, scoring 14 points each. Hoffer scored three long baskets in the final part of the game to give Ohio State a 1-point victory over Illinois. Kamp was the leading scorer of the Illinois-Ohio game with six baskets and one foul throw for 13 points. Reiff led Northwestern in scoring with 12 points. Posner scored 13 of Wisconsin's points and tossed the basket which tied the score at 23-all.

"East" and "West"

"Never the twain shall meet" is a phrase borrowed from the poem "The Ballad of East and West," by Rudyard Kipling. The full significance of the expression can be gained only by reading the entire poem. Extracted from the text the lines are interpreted as meaning "that people of the eastern civilization such as the Chinese and the Japanese, and those of the western civilization such as the English and the American, cannot affiliate upon a truly friendly basis."

Two Contracts Let

Indianapolis, Jan. 5.—(UPI)—One bridge and one paving contract were let by the state highway commission, it was announced by John J. Brown, commission director.

Contract for construction of a bridge on road 16, near Brook, was awarded to the Vincennes Bridge Company, Vincennes, on a bid of $18,360.13.

Contract for paving 14.3 miles on road 18, in Grant and Blackford counties, was awarded to the Bigler Paving Company, Middletown, Ohio, on a bid of $204,653.41.

SCHMELING TO FIGHT ANYONE

New York, Jan. 5.—(UPI)—Just as a matter of record, Max Schmeling wants it known that he has no fear of Jack Sharkey.

"I'm not afraid of Sharkey," the German champion told the United Press today. "I'll fight him anytime Joe Jacobs makes the match. I've known ever since I took it that I could beat him. I want to prove it to the public. But of course if Joe decides there is more money fighting Walker and Dempsey, Mr. Sharkey will have to wait until next year."

And Joe Jacobs, as manager of the champion, indicated that Sharkey's chances of securing a championship bout in 1932 were entirely up to the Bostonian's most hated rival—Jack Dempsey.

"If I have my way Max will fight three times this year—Walker in February, Dempsey in June and Sharkey in September," Jacobs said.

"However, if Dempsey wants to postpone his 'comeback' until September, Sharkey is out of the picture for 1932. I'd be a sucker to take Sharkey when Dempsey was available. If Dempsey is going to fight at all it must be this year. He still is the best drawing card in the game."

Sharkey refused to fight Stribling in 1932 to decide who would get the first crack at the title. He flopped against Walker last fall. Then after beating Carnera instead of going out and licking Loughran, Walker and all the other claimants he decided he wouldn't fight anyone except Dempsey or Schmeling.

"You see Sharkey never has been very good but giving anyone else a chance. Where does he have any kick if we stall him off and pick up the easy money?"

Jacobs and his fighters are interested chiefly in signing contracts for the Walker match at Miami next month. Max, arriving in New York yesterday on the S. S. Europa after a six-month visit to Germany, appeared in almost perfect physical condition.

Asked if he expected difficulty because Walker is a small man, Max said it made no difference to him whether his foes were large or small.

Schmeling will make his first American ring appearance at Paterson, N. J., Thursday in a three-round exhibition against three sparring partners. After four additional exhibitions he will leave for Florida, Jan. 15, and start training for the Walker bout. He will train at Palm Beach, starting Jan. 20 and expects to be in top shape to meet Mickey on Feb. 25.

Contracts for the Walker bout probably will be signed Wednesday.

Chemical Terms

Isomerism refers to substances which are made up of the same chemical elements in the same proportion, but in which the atoms are differently arranged so as to produce substances having different physical and chemical properties. Examples are methyl ether and ethyl alcohol. The formula for both of these is C<sub>2</sub>H<sub>6</sub>O. Allotropism is the occurrence of the same chemical substance in different forms. For example, carbon appears as a diamond, as charcoal, as graphite, etc.

Scientific Fruit Treatment
The way in which science can deal with fruit is astonishing. It can change the flavor, size, color and size; it can improve its keeping qualities; it can produce earlier or later ripening. Take apples for instance. Scientific treatment has now given us a ripening season for English apples which extends from June, when the earliest are ready until the following March, when the latest come to perfection. Before long we may have home-grown apples at their best the whole year round.—Exchange

Noted Scenic Route

The Indian river is a long lagoon in the eastern part of Florida, in Brevard and Volusia counties. It connects with the Halifax river at Titusville and extends 100 miles southeast to the ocean at Indian River. The width of the Indian river varies from 300 feet to 5 miles, and it is navigable for vessels drawing 5 feet. The river is famous for its beautiful tropical scenery and for the oranges which are grown on its banks.

CHICAGO FACES
MONEY TROUBLEMayor Leads Citizens In Fight For Finance Plan
For Schools

Chicago, Jan. 5.—(UPI)—Militant leaders of the nation's second greatest city, arreved with the desperate appeal of its citizenry, today opened the "battle of Chicago."

It was a fight to provision an empty treasury against the myriad demands of a metropolis' government. The ominous threat of bankruptcy groaned from Chicago's broken-down tax machinery.

Cooperation of parents would be enlisted that the children might not be too heavy losers through a long period of idleness. For families without radios, neighborhood groups would be formed.

For the first time since Chicago started its rise on the mud-flat shore of Lake Michigan schools in the metropolitan area are closed for lack of funds.

"I am not an alarmist," Mayor Anton Cermak told a mass meeting that packed the Chicago stadium—where the republican national convention will meet next June, "but I am frank to say that unless we act immediately there is no telling where we may end."

The mayor who today led a band of determined officials and citizens for a last plea to the reconvened state legislature at Springfield, addressed 30,000 teachers, pupils, parents and their sympathizers.

Even as civic leaders heartened the teachers, many of whom said farewells to the meeting mean scrimping on their lunches, plans went forward for radio classes as the schools close.

Leaders fear action by the legislature may come too late. An announcement was made that regular classes would be conducted by air for the 500,000 school children facing an enforced vacation.

CLOVERLEAFS
PLAY TONIGHT

Decatur Cloverleafs will play the fast Pennville Independent basketball team at Decatur high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock tonight. Pennville has not lost a game in 15 starts this season and is regarded as one of the fastest independent teams in this part of the state.

Manager Bob Hill stated the Cloverleafs would use their regular uniforms tonight which last Saturday defeated the House of David team, 96-13.

Vehling Faces Charge

Indianapolis, Jan. 5.—(UPI)—Fred W. Vehling, Marion county coroner, will go on trial in criminal court here January 19 on a charge of soliciting a bribe. Judge Frank P. Baker ruled. Although Vehling's arraignment was set for today, he announced he would plead not guilty. The trial date was decided upon in conference between Baker and Vehling's counsel.

Vehling will appear in court Monday to answer charges of impeachment, filed by Prosecutor Herbert Wilson. He announced he would not resign his post, despite a demand for his resignation by county commissioners.

Holy Land Trees

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, in his book "Out of Doors in the Holy Land," speaks of the olive, cypress and eucalyptus trees of the Holy Land. In chapter 12, "Going Up to Jerusalem," he says: "There were few trees except then an olive orchard, a round-topped carob, with its round pods."

Good Riddance!

"Burial" of the traditionally caldor, or cloak, and veil, was performed by 200 women at Tel-Persia. A grave was dug and cloaks were placed in it, under epitaph: "Here lies the cloak emblem of women's servitude, on which be upon it."
