National Adver. Representative
SCHEERER, Inc.,
35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago 415 Lexington Avenue, New York

Charter Member of The Indiana League of Home Dailies.

Governor Alfalfa Bill Murray of Oklahoma went to Washington to address the Anti-Saloon League and threw a bomb in their midst by arguing for state rights on the subject which is of course not to their liking although Bill insisted it could be done without changing the eighteenth amendment.

Governor Leslie says it costs $1,540 per day to hold a session of the legislature and he is in favor of at least some of the work of compromising on a tax relief bill being done before he calls them.
'This is no time to spend money without results, the Governor evidently thinks and so far he hasn't been convinced that the boys mean to get right down to real business.

Don't think we are boasting when we tell you about the Daily Democrat but at this season we feel we have the right to "toot our horn" a little. We do try our best to give you the news of interest and fight for those things which will be of greatest benefit to you. We want you to renew your subscription if you receive the paper by mail and we promise to deliver you the happenings for a whole year.

Mr. Dawes seems to be able to land the jobs these days. The President has appointed him to be head of the two billion dollar finance corporation and to do that he will resign from the place as head of the arms delegation to be followed by Secretary of State Stimson at Geneva. If a little or a lot of cussin' will put over the big corporation and ease things up, the ex-vice president has full permission to cut loose.

A trade publication points that according to Bradstreet's report for 1930, 95 per cent of all business failures were non-advertisers. One does not hesitate a minute about insuring his home or place of business, but how about the business itself? The successful business man is the one who goes after business, the failure is the one who sits around and waits for business to come to him. Bradstreet's percentage shows that the going business man is an advertiser.—Keene-sburg (Colo.) Keene Valley Sun.

The supreme court of Indiana has finally decided that D. C. Stephenson must remain in prison. It took them six years to make up their minds but they finally got to it.
The decision will have the approval of the citizens of Indiana generally for beyond question Stephenson was a bad egg and his final act which caused the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer was certainly one that left no doubt in the minds of most people. The only hope of the once powerful dragon now seems to be through the United States supreme court.

When you hear a man finding fault with the local newspaper, open it up and ten to one you'll find he hasn't an advertisement in it; five to one he never gives it a job of printing; three to one he does not take the paper; two to one that if he is a subscriber he is a delinquent one; even odds he never does anything to help the publisher to run a good paper, and 40 to one he is the most eager to see the paper when it comes out and borrows it from his neighbors before they get time to read it.—Royaltan (Minn.) Banner.

The candidates are announcing and the big scrap for democratic nominations in this county will soon be on. The primaries will be held May 3rd this year and long before that you will know who the candidates are and what their particular claims are for the office they seek. Indications are that this will be a democratic year every where but the stronger ticket chosen here, the greater majority will be given for the state and national ticket, so it becomes important from that view as well as from the one that we always want the very best officials possible. Look them over as they appear.

Indiana pastors who have been crying for years that the American home had gone to pieces learned last night that they had been wrong all the time and that the home is in better condition right now than any other basic institution. It took a Hoosier-bred New Yorker, Dr.
Worth M. Tippy, to set them right on their fireside worries. Dr. Tippy, who has nearly two paragraphs of titles tying him to the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, reminded the state pastors' conference that "industry is down and out, city government is disgraceful in many large centers, the church is having hard sledding, but the great American home, only slightly disturbed, is the most secure of all." The poor old home that has been blamed for economic as well as social delinquencies is riding through the storm so well because it was born out of the experience of the race and has backed up of it the most profound and fundamental needs, he said.—Indianapolis Star.

CHURCH REVIVALS

Evangelical

The Rev. M. W. Sundermann spoke at the First Evangelical church upon "What Shall I Then Do With Jesus?"

"Pilate was in a great predicament. He was working for public applause. His conscience was speaking plainly. Between the two there was a great gulf fixed.
He has Jesus on his hands. What shall he do with him? He cannot avoid the issue.

There comes a time in the life of every individual, when we must decide what to do with Jesus.
Some say they will have nothing to do with him. If my conscience pricks me when I go to church, I will simply stay at home. I shall stop reading the Bible and hearing sermons. Jesus can appeal directly to the heart, by the Holy Spirit, and you cannot avoid Him.

Some folks say they cannot make up their minds. The facts are they cannot make up their will. Sin is gripping their hearts and they are unwilling to yield to that which they know to be right.
Many folks are postponing action. They expect to accept Jesus later in life. This is like bringing a bouquet of faded roses to a friend in the sick room. Jesus is worthy of our best. Many people are spending their lives trying to compromise between Jesus and the world. You are either on a train or you are off. You are either with Jesus or you are against Him. The happy class are those who say: I shall accept Him now."

The subject of the sermon on Wednesday night will be: "Ye Must Be Born Again."

The services begin each night at 7 o'clock with a spirited Gospel Song service. If you like these good old gospel services you are most cordially invited to help us push the battle.

Methodist Church

Dr. E. J. Bulgin, evangelist at the M. E. church in this city, was well received at two important meetings Tuesday. Dr. Bulgin gave an address at the regular meeting of the Lions club at 6:30 o'clock last night. His address was applauded by the members.

Dr. Bulgin spoke to a capacity house at the Methodist church last night and the crowd was more than satisfied with the strong lesson brought out by the Evangelist.

Dr. Bulgin will speak tonight on "How Long Would You Live in This City Without a Church?" Tonight's address is one of the features of the three-week meeting.

This morning at 9:30 o'clock Dr. Bulgin addressed a businessmen's prayer service at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Forty-seven men attended and heard a 10-minute address on "The Cause of The World Depression." All business men are invited to the morning services which will be held each morning at 9:30 o'clock until 10 o'clock.

The public is invited to the night services being held at the Methodist church. The Sunday school room will be opened tonight and indications are that the entire church will be packed.

START EFFORT TO OBTAIN JURY IN JUDD CASE

Leroi and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, her former roommates here.
She may be tried for Miss Sam-uelson's death later.

She seemed to lack interest in all matters when she was held in Los Angeles after luggage she attempted to claim there was found to hold the bodies of the two girls. Apparently she has not changed.

Questioning of the veniremen indicated that J. J. (Jack) Halloran, wealthy and widely known through the state, is almost certain to figure in the case.

He was friendly with the two victims and Mrs. Judd and frequently met them at their homes both before and after Mrs. Judd stopped living with the two girls she has admitted she shot, assertedly at the climax of a petty quarrel.

Mrs. Judd, in stories told to newspapers, said she killed in self defense after she first was wounded by a shot fired by Miss Samuelson.

The state decided to try Mrs.
Judd on the Leroi death first because it claimed the woman was shot to eliminate her as a witness to the death of Miss Samuelson.
The extreme penalty, death by hanging, will be asked by the state.

Mrs. Judd will claim self defense and insanity.

JAPAN RIOTS CAUSE CONCERN

gendarmerie were injured in clashes. Numerous Japanese suffered from police truncheons.

Sino-Japanese tension increased rapidly as authorities attempted to restore order. The Japanese resumed their mass meeting at 6 p. m.

Four Japanese warships were lying off the Shanghai bund with their crews still aboard. The Japanese demonstrators demanded cessation of anti-Japanese move-
