The groundhog is keeping up his reputation for being the best weather liar in the country.

So far few people have felt any great improvement as a result of the two billion dollar relief law. Is it to turn out like farm relief did?

The stock market has quit skidding and is now just drifting, according to reports. Probably so weak it can't do anything else.

We may think the government is becoming more lenient in enforcing the prohibition laws but the latest report shows that 46,800 violators were arrested the last six months of last year.

John D. Rockefeller is ill with a severe cold but that doesn't seem to excite his secretary who has seen this ninety-two-year-old veteran of many business wars, whip had colds numerous times.

Japan insists on writing her own ticket in the peace project but the world is not inclined to favor her position and China just keeps on fighting, evidently not caring or knowing much about all the note writing and negotiations.

Sheriff Farley and ex-Sheriff Cullin of New York City have been indicted for grand larceny as a result of the Fofstard committee investigations. Now the public will get another close-up of how Tammany does things, both inside and outside of the famous hall.

Pay your subscription to the Daily Democrat this month. You can't be happy unless you know what's going on in the world and especially in your own community and this is the way to be absolutely sure of that information when it comes.

While you may be safe enough if you are driving your car on a 1931 license, better stay inside the state borders. Michigan and Illinois are picking up those who don't carry the new plates, it is reported.

President Hoover entertained Speaker Garner for dinner the other evening. Maybe he is trying to induce him to run on the ticket with him but the Texas Democrat is, we surmise, much too foxy to let himself in for any such a slaughter.

The Cuban earthquakes are coming at a bad season - just when many from this and other countries are planning their trip to the island. The shakes will probably keep many of them away and Cuba like all other places need all the business they can get.

Andrew J. Mellon at the Court of St. James. We can't imagine it but he may put it over and he can afford whatever the trimmings cost. He has lost his reputation as the greatest treasurer since Hamilton. That went skidding with the stock market in 1929 and he will be glad to unload the burdens which go with a two billion dollar deficit.

Candidates for the democratic nominations in Adams county are coming now and within another fortnight the field will be pretty well filled. It is known that a number of aspirants for office are considering getting in the various races and indications are there will be a large number of starters when the word "go" is given.

Congress will probably pass a $750,000,000 unemployment bill, providing half that amount for road construction and half for the various states to be used to relieve the situation as they see fit. Looks as though something of that kind is necessary but we should remember that some how and some time, either directly or indirectly, this money must be repaid.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, a leading candidate for the democratic nomination for president announces that he does not favor America joining the League of Nations, which is the feeling of a great majority of the people, no difference what they may have thought ten or twelve years ago. Conditions are much different now and there are many who are firmer now than ever in the conviction that whatever happens, the thing to do is for America to attend to her own affairs. These are numerous and important enough to keep us busy the next several years at least.

Words often misused: Do not say "Leave him go." Say "Let him go." Often mispronounced: Credible, kreed-ih-eh, as in "bed," i as in "it" accent first syllable. Often misspelled: Phlegm. Observe all the consonants. Synonyms: Intimidate, overawe, cow, terrify, abash. Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: Vaguely, not clearly; uncertainly. "We come upon the chief circumstances, vaguely told, in the last paragraph."

Hair Setting Solution A good hair setting solution can be easily made by taking 3 1/2 pints of water, to which is added 2 table-spoons of quince seed, allow it to boil for 5 minutes, then strain. Cheese When one wishes to keep cheese fresh for a long time, cover it with a thin coating of paraffin. Before serving remove the paraffin. Polish Much more brilliancy will be the result if one tablespoonful of pulverized alum is added to the stove polish.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANE HANGAR

15 Airplanes Also Destroyed In Costly Chicago Fire Today

Chicago, Feb. 5—(UP)—Fire virtually destroyed the hangar of the continental airways at the municipal airport early today in a spectacular conflagration that threatened other air terminals. A 3-11 alarm sent out shortly after the fire was discovered brought more than 25 fire companies to the scene. Damage was confined to the single hangar but it was feared most of the planes stored there had been destroyed. Firemen were handicapped by freezing temperatures. Heavy snow choked streets near the airport and delay equipment. The Continental Airways operate a Chicago-Washington passenger service. From 12 to 15 planes were destroyed in the fire with the total loss estimated at more than $150,000. Firemen concentrated their efforts in preventing spread of the flames to nearby hangars. Gasoline tanks of the stored planes exploded spreading the fire rapidly.

J. R. VOORHIS DIES AT 103

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) is all in the Maker's hands; we must let things take their course". But John Voorhis never was an old man. Even when his mind turned back over the intervening span and he spoke of the farms on lower Fifth avenue, of the days when New York got so big that Fourteenth street had to be widened from river to river, of the horse cars and of the great names of yesteryear he always did so as an interesting story teller rather than an old man digging back into reminiscences. He was born in Pompton Plains, N. J., and has spent 91 years in New York City. The bulk of that time he has been actively associated with government and politics. As a youngster Voorhis worked in the office of John Jay, a grandson of the first chief justice, for $1.75 a week. He was married when he was 21 to Lucinda Leferters and sixty-odd years ago built for his bride the fashionable home on Greenwich street where he died today. His daughter resided with him. Sixty-seven years ago he became Democratic leader of the ninth ward and in 1871 turned anti-Tammany during the Tweed exposures. His first political appointment came in 1873 as excise commissioner. He fought Tammany bitterly for 20 years, his organization becoming known as "Voorhis Democracy." Then in 1889 some of his co-leaders wanted a split ticket of Republicans and Voorhis Democrats. His differences with Tammany were patched up and he has ascended the Tammany ladder until he became the Grand Sachem. Constitutionally a Grand Sachem may serve only one year. But in tribute to Voorhis each time elections for the Grand Sachem came around, each Sachem voted for himself thereby preventing a majority and Voorhis automatically continued in office.

PLANS STARTED FOR BIG RALLY EARLY IN MARCH

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) ing of the county central committee in a few days he said to complete the plans and a general county committee will be selected. Other committees will be named immediately the chairman stated and an effort will be made to make the meeting the largest ever held in this county. The place has not yet been selected and inasmuch as the meeting will be in the form of a banquet, it is believed the ticket sale will have to be limited to about 250 or 300. The general committee, the county chairman stated, will be composed of 15 or 20 Democrats of the county and the members of the county central committee. From these, sub-committees will be named for the purpose of making all arrangements. In a telephone conversation with Dean McNatt, today, Bosse was informed that he would make his arrangements to coincide with
