I know what to do with it when I get it, and that's more than Herbert Hoover can say." Shouts from the crowd greeted his thrusts at the republican administration.

The administration is desperate, Murray said. "They have muddled everything they have undertaken. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is a palatine, a sop to big business. All it will do is keep a few big banks from failing. It can in no measure restore prosperity."

"The administration, sending its failure to restore even a small measure of prosperity to be used as a campaign argument have begun picking on Japan with the intention of plunging us into war if necessary to serve their own selfish political ends."

Florida Fighting Clear of Depression

Business Leader Sees State, Hard Pressed Since 1925, Making New Progress in Face of Depression Elsewhere.

After six years of basement economics, Florida, her business leaders feel, is now beginning to find the way out of the cellar. While the remainder of the country is experiencing the beginning of the third year of more stringent times, Florida, veteran of a depression which began to make itself felt immediately after the collapse of the famous land boom of 1925, now is beginning to see brighter days ahead. During the past six or eight months millions of dollars of new capital have been invested in Florida's future in and around Miami and Miami Beach. Probably the most outstanding development is the big recreational project, representing an original investment of $15,000,000, recently launched by N. B. T. Roney, Miami Beach and Camden, N. J., business leader, and Henry L. Doherty, wealthy utilities magnate. The project, known as the Florida Year-Round Clubs, brings together the fashionable Roney Plaza Cabana Club at Miami Beach, the Miami Biltmore Country Club at Coral Gables and a new club, the Key Largo Anglers Club, at Key Largo. The program calls for the development of major sports in Florida in summer as well as in winter. Meantime, another huge investment is reflected in the beautiful new Miami Jockey Club plant at Hialeah Park which Joseph E. Widener, Philadelphia capitalist and sportsman, completed for the current season. Photo 1 shows the Roney Plaza Cabana Club. Photo 2 shows a picturesque hole at the Miami Biltmore Country Club. 3 shows the Miami Jockey Club, Hialeah Park, and 4, N. B. T. Roney.

MIAMI, Fla., —(UP)—The bears of business may have the 47 other States of the union groggy from two years of depression, but Florida veteran of six years of basement economics, is lining up with the bulls again.

The new trend began to make itself apparent some six or eight months ago and according to Florida business men and observers continues to gather momentum. Floridians feel their State, after suffering a depression, bank failures, storms, and all manner of "tough breaks" since the famous boom collapsed in 1925, is now beginning to feel its way out of the woods.

Here in the Miami area, capital of the Florida winter playgrounds, large scale investments have been made within the past few months for the first time in several years and new money is continuing to come in.

Probably the most outstanding development is that, formally placed under way on January 1 by N. B. T. Roney, Miami Beach and Camden, N. J., business leader, and Henry L. Doherty of New York, utilities magnate, Roney and Doherty are hard at work on a gigantic recreational project, representing an investment of $15,000,000 and design to make Florida a resort 12 months in the year. Meantime, other millions regarded as particularly significant in view of the recent formation of an independent state in Manchuria under Japanese influence.

RUSSIAN ARMY MAKING READY

plans for intervention. They are preparing public opinion for an attack on the Soviet. They are organizing band of white guards for the attack."

The warning aroused intense enthusiasm throughout the nation. The "armed proletariat" was encouraged everywhere.

Voroshilov described the contrast presented between the bloodshed in China and the peace speeches of "bourgeois orators" at the world disarmament conference at Geneva.

He emphasized that the Soviet union desires peace, but pointed out the necessity for defending the slogan of dictator Josef V. Stalin: "We do not want a single inch of foreign soil, but will not give up a single inch of our own."

Voroshilov's manifesto was regarded as particularly significant in view of the recent formation of an independent state in Manchuria under Japanese influence.

cently have been invested in Florida's future by Joseph E. Widener, Philadelphia capitalist, and his associates in the creation of the magnificent new Miami Jockey Club; by Alfred I. DuPont, who heads a new bank in Miami, and by many others.

The Roney - Doherty project, known as the Florida Year-Round Clubs, is probably the most comprehensive social and recreational plan ever undertaken in this country. Resigned chiefly to attract vacationists to Florida throughout the year, the project will combine the Roney Plaza Cabana Club at Miami Beach, the Miami Biltmore Country Club at Coral Gables and a new society rendezvous now nearing completion at Key Largo, known as the Key Largo Anglers Club. Thus are swimming, sunning, golfing and fishing clubs linked in one novel central organization, extending members full privileges of all three.

Transportation between the clubs is provided by a fleet of aeroplanes and fast cruisers operating on regular schedule.

As a result of the year-round clubs program of sports and recreation events for the summer as well as the winter, Florida this year probably will witness a greater Summer activity, than at any time since the boom. Obviously, the sponsors know, it will be difficult at first to convince Northerners that Florida has an excellent climate in summer, too, but they feel that as more and more Summer vacationists "take a chance" the movement will grow to considerable proportions. Old-time Floridians for a long time have been amused—and annoyed—by the belief of many in the North that if the temperature North is zero and 72 in Florida, in winter, then by the same token, when it is 72 in the North, it must be 144 in Florida. As a matter of fact, however, the old-timers point out that while the winter average is around 72, the summer average ranges from only $5 to $8 degrees—due to the proximity of the Gulf Stream and the cooling breezes which blow from it over the land almost every day.

Mr. Roney, president of the Year-Round Clubs, is entirely optimistic about the future.

"This depression is an old story to us," he says. "We've seen all kinds of bad business and bad luck every since 1925. So this present condition is nothing new to us. In fact, with four years of previous experience with it under our belts, we're now investing more money. We're on our way out to join the bulls again."

hers of the imperial regime, in Russia, are bitter foes of the Soviet. Recently they have given support to Japanese military activity in Manchuria. When Manchuria declared its independence from China it was announced that white Russians, who are present there in considerable numbers, would be granted citizenship.

Subsequent movement of Soviet troops on the Siberian frontier was explained as being necessary because of the danger of attack by white guards.

ter Winchell how to say "Okay," reached the high point of his candidacy when he appeared at a luncheon club wearing a sheet and towing a goat.

Before that he had paraded the streets on beer wagons, standing on empty barrels and announcing his firm belief that saloons could be made to pay. He also pledged cracked ice free to all early morning street car passengers.

John F. Dore, attorney, and Mayor Robert H. Hatlin were regarded as likely nominees by most everyone except Vic, ex-Mayor Frank E. Edwards and Councilman Ott Case also were strong candidates.
