Paris Styles

By Mary Knight

United Press Staff Correspondent

Paris, March 7.—(U.P.)—France has done a queer thing—that of turning her back on black except for mourning. Black has always been used for heavy mourning, but black, with touches of green, blue and white, has been considered strictly Parisienne for years, but at the present moment navy blue is gaining such prominence and precedence that black truly has taken to mourning.

The house of Heim has a few things to say about the 1932 mode in general, and this lead away from black is taken by it along with many of the other haute couturiers. To very the monotony of ensembles M. Heim suggests gray in an increasing quantity. Gray shoes, purchases and gloves, whether with a black coat, preferably a navy blue one, or with an entire gray outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cofelt entertained at their home Sunday noon, with a birthday dinner, honoring their daughter, Roberta on her eighth birthday anniversary and Crystal Chrysler on her nineteenth birthday.

Covers were laid at the dining table for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chrysler and family, Carl, Crystal, and Clara DeWayne, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laisure and daughter, Doris, Iris Reinhart, Mr. and Mrs. William Rupert, and daughter Ruby, Orval and Virgil Laisure.

The afternoon was spent in a social manner.

The Women's Missionary Association of the United Brethren Church will meet Thursday afternoon at two o'clock with Mrs. C. E. Baughman. All members are requested to attend, as the election of officers will be held.

The Better Homes Home Economics Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ervin Stucky at Monroe.

The Historical Club will meet with Mrs. J. M. Miller, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Dorcas class of the Evangelical Sunday School will meet at the home of Miss Anna Adler on Winchester street, Tuesday night at seven-thirty o'clock. Members are asked to take note in the change of date of meeting, and are requested to be present at the meeting.
