As an experiment, 500 feet of road were built near Gonzales, Texas, with unbleached canvas as a binder. After 15 months of heavy traffic the pavement showed no signs of wear. If the material continues to stand up well, it is said that the state will adopt this form of construction.

Where Snow Marooned an Entire Town

Cut off from the outside world since February 6 by tremendous snowfall and snow avalanches from the mountain sides, the town of Silverton, Colorado, may thank the foresight of its merchants that it was saved from starvation. The shopkeepers had stocked up with an unusual amount of supplies before Winter set in. Thus the inhabitants were enabled to hold out until relief was sent by plane. Photo above shows a general view of part of the town. In the foreground is a horse-drawn sled which ploughed its way in from the outside with a supply of fresh food.

A Plea for "Old Granite"

Here is one of the huge posters that are now erected all over Germany, pleading with the people to re-elect President Paul von Hindenburg. The sign, bearing the legend "Mit ihm," signifies that with von Hindenburg at the helm a new united and prosperous country will arise. President von Hindenburg's principal opponent in the elections is Adolf Hitler, leader of Germany's National-Socialist Party, which corresponds to the Italian Fascisti.

"Twins" in World of Letters

Not only does Reuben Brainin, of New York, approach George Bernard Shaw, English man of letters, in literary attainments, but he also bears a marked facial resemblance to the famous cynic. The two men are shown above. Shaw is at right. Brainin is the Hebrew dean of literature who will be honored by a testimonial reception in New York on the occasion of his 70th anniversary.

Two Bombs Are Thrown

Chicago, Mar. 14 (U.P.)—Two bombs were tossed at the home of Mayor Frank A. Conboy of River Grove, a suburb, during the night but no one was injured in either explosion.

The first bomb was thrown on the front porch of the house during the evening and the second exploded in the same place several hours later. Mayor Conboy, who is a Republican candidate for sanitary district trustee, told officers he had not been threatened and knew of no reason for the attack.

At sight of the guns, the dog dropped dead.

Cosmetics Long in Use

The knowledge of cosmetics dates back to remote antiquity and their annals comprise the history of the folly, luxury and extravagance of past ages. The number of simple and compound substances employed as perfumes is incalculable and almost fabulous and the books written by Egyptians, Greeks and Romans on the subject almost constitute a library in themselves.

Use of "Whipstock"

A whipstock is a tool which is covered on top of a string of tool drilling tools when it is desired to drill by them. The beveled face of the whipstock causes the working tools to chance out to one side of the detached string. A whipstock is also used as a means of straightening a hole which has deviated from the vertical. The expression "arranging a whipstock" means that the drilling tools are lost and arrangements are being made to drill past them with the aid of a whipstock.

Spring is the Best Time to Plant Roses

The rose is a world flower. It is found in every country, and the word for "rose" is strikingly similar in spelling and pronunciation in every language. The mere mention of flowers brings the rose first to mind with the majority of people. It is surely well named "Queen of Flowers."

From the multitude of rose species and varieties, a selection may be made to fit any need of garden and lawn planting. Dame Nature's "Rose Exposition" opens in June with a grand flourish and continues throughout the season. In June roses abound in all manner of situations, from the aristocratic garden to the dusty roadside.

For gardens there are the hybrid teas and hybrid perpetuals, in red, yellow, white, and every imaginable graded blending thereof, with the polyantha or dwarf types for supplementary border use. The exotic tea roses are not available for general use in Northern gardens on account of climatic conditions.

For lawn or general shrub border planting the "bush" types are best. These include the wild roses such as rosa blanda, canina, spinosissima, carolina, lucida, nitida and the rugosa. The climbing or trailing sorts are often valuable for "facing" effects, and on banks or terrace slopes. Among these are the rosa setigera, multiflora, wicharara, rubiginosa and their hybrids.

Some of the bush types, such as the "old-fashioned" Harrison yellow rose, can be combined with perennials in mass or border effects. The Harrison yellow rose is effective with its palid alundina, or with delphinium.
