Mexican Gives Up Army To Wed His Senorita

Martinez Cal., (U.P.)—Eight years in a Mexican army and the prospect of a generalship meant nothing to Felix Miramonte 36, compared with the privilege of causing a dark-eyed senorita to change her name. Miramonte appeared before the Rev. William Reilly with Miss Ninfa Morena, produced an eight-year-old marriage license and asked that the two be married.

The priest, curious about the age of the bride, received this explanation from Miramonte:

"Eight years ago, just after I got this license, a war started in Mexico and I joined. I would have been a general by now, but I love my Ninfa more, so I quit."

Father Reilly performed the ceremony.
