

SOCIETY

Miss Mary Macy
Miss Margaret Haley
Phones 1900-1901

Paris Styles

By Mary Knight
Press Staff Correspondent
March 31—(U.P.)—For pure elegance, there is nothing like white—nothing anywhere near it—for it requires a closed class all by itself to wear it. Augustebernard, and after exquisite proof of the merit of white in terms of satisfaction, the Redfern models were shown. The Redfern models were rather high in waist, over the shoulders, not intending in wide strips extending from the throat to the shoulder back decolletage is a narrow, very deep V, extending allow the normal waistline, the draping seems to suddenly change to a soft bow, the ends of which extend below the hips.

Augustebernard's model is very showing a wide U back decolletage with a twisted roll of satin from the front under the arm, and trailing in a bow at the back. The fit of the body without a waist and fullness in the skirt is very simply and suddenly changed. A short stand of pearls is worn as a necklace, with diamonds and pearls.

SHAKESPEARE HOLDS MEETING
Members of the Ladies Shakespeare Club met at the home of A. D. Suttles, Wednesday evening, Mrs. Noah Frye had charge of the program and presented an interesting paper on the subject of "Portugal the Powerful."
Her Colonial Possessions, Brazil, Cape Verde Islands, Mozambique, Guiana, and The Azores. The report was repeated and the program. After Mrs. Frye's

New Wonderful Face Powder

Prevents Large Pores—Stays on Longer
A youthful complexion, use wonderful MELLO-GLO Face Powder. Hides tiny lines, wrinkles, pores. New French process spreads more smoothly stay on longer. No more red noses. Purest face powder Prevents large pores. Ask for new, wonderful face powder, MELLO-GLO, that suits your complexion.

SCHAFFER HARDWARE

EXTRA SPECIALS

for

Friday and Saturday

April 1st and April 2nd

Alarm
Clocks

$1.00
Value

Special

69 cents

Scrub Brushes
15 cent value

Special 6c

Schafer Hardware Co

Alarm
Clocks

$1.00
Value

Special

69

cents

Pertolator Tops
EACH

Special 1c

eleven visitors present.

Mrs. Harvey Crist then had charge of the evening's program. A song "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung and Mrs. Bertha Hendricks gave a reading, "The Prophet moves again." Mrs. Floyd gave a reading, "The Radio Religion," and a song, "Face to Face" was sung by six ladies. A reading, "John's Wife Cleans House," was given by Mrs. William Mitchell and Mrs. Charles Estell had charge of a guessing contest.

The meeting was closed by a prayer by Mrs. Dwight Brown.
Mrs. Blum, assisted by Mrs. A.
W. Johnson served dainty refreshments at the close of the meeting.
The next meeting will be with Mrs.
John Floyd.

UNION TOWNSHIP WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Harold Harvey was hostess to the members of the Union Township Woman's Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. William Noll read the club creed, and the club song was sung.
The roll call was answered by thirteen members who responded with short stories about the "worst scare I ever had." There were also three visitors present and several children.

The president had charge of the business session and the lesson was given by Mrs. Hubert Zerkel and Mrs. Chauncey Clem. The lesson was very interesting, as was the demonstration on how to make a scarf from short lengths of material.
A talk was also given on textiles.

Mrs. Hugh Nidlinger gave a short talk and report of the lecture on poultry which she heard at Purdue University recently. At the close of the meeting, the hostess served candy.

ENTERTAIN CLUB

WITH APRIL FOOL PARTY

Mrs. J. C. Grandstaff and Mrs.
Floyd Grandstaff were hostesses to the members of the Do As You Please Club, Wednesday afternoon.
Games in keeping with April Fool were enjoyed by the guests.

The games played included: Nose and Toe Tag, Dumb Bell Drill, Doo-die Bird, and Dumbbell picture Gallery. Prizes were awarded to the Mesdames Ralph Bresick and Richard Bogner.

Tables were then arranged for concentration, and Miss Irene Kirchner received the prize for high score.

The guests were invited to the dining room which was transformed into a Fools' Paradise Cafe, and the following menu was served: Dance caps, Dumbbells, Dumb creatures, Pools Nectar, and Fools delight. Favors and Booby prizes were awarded each guest.

The members present were the Mesdames Ralph Bresick and son Edwin, Milton Werling and daughter Ruth Ellen, Richard Bogner and son Richard, Edgar Zimmerman and daughter Onalee, Floyd Grandstaff, and June Shackley. Guests included Irene, Lorine, and Erma Kirchner.

Mrs. Ralph Bresick will be hostess to the club members at the next meeting, April 20.

The Research Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. N. Fristoe Monday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.
Mrs. Fristoe will also be the leader for the afternoon program.

MEETING OF STANDARD BEARERS

The regular business and social meeting of the Standard Bearers of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held at the home of Miss Mary Kathryn Tyndall on Fourth street, Wednesday night.

The meeting was opened with devotional services followed with a business session. Mrs. C. O. Porter gave the study lesson. Thirteen members of the organization responded to the roll call.
During the social hour, several contests were enjoyed, and refreshments of apples and candy were served.

YOUNG MATRONS HAVE STUDY MEETING

Mrs. Merlin Doan entertained the members of the Young Matrons Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Doan also had the paper for the meeting, and she distributed questions to the members present, to which answers were given. The questions and answers pertained to the subject of Mrs. Doan's paper, "Olympia Games."

At the close of the afternoon program, a social time as enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, with Mrs. Albert Beery.

KIRKLAND LADIES HOLD CLUB MEETING

The members of the Kirkland Ladies Club met in the Kirkland high school Tuesday afternoon. Eighteen members of the organization were present, and Mrs. Jesse Byerly, presided over the business meeting.

The roll call was responded to by those present, after which the club song was sung and the club creed read. A short business meeting was held, and the lesson on sewing was presented by Mrs. J. C. Grandstaff, Mrs.
Orval Heller, and Miss Mary Etelee.
Stunts which followed the business session, were conducted by

A Peek at Hollywood's Fashion Leader

How Lilyan Tashman, "Best-Dressed Woman" in Film Colony, Retains the Leadership in Fashion Parade. Clothes Not All That's Necessary.

In the face of the keenest competition, Lilyan Tashman, blonde star who portrays gold-diggers on the screen, clings tenaciously to her title as the "best-dressed woman in Hollywood." Miss Tashman's wardrobe is the envy of her colleagues in the movie firmament, but she insists that clothes alone are not sufficient to retain her title. What counts more than the mere possession of fine feathers, according to Miss Tashman, is the ability to "carry" them and the knowledge of when and where to wear them. Above are three of Lilyan's favorite outfits for various occasions. Left is a suit for spectator sports. It is comprised of a frock of dull blue roma crepe, bound with silk braid at the hem, and a sports jacket of white suede. In the center panel, Miss Tashman displays a cocky beret which shows her favorite style of hairdress for this particular type of headgear. The glamorous evening gown on the right is of turquoise blue satin, fashioned in minute tucks and pleats with a shoulder scarf that forms sleeves and falls into trains at the hemline. When she isn't working at the studios, Miss Tashman likes to lounge in pajamas. She is always seeking new styles and color combinations, and some of her pajama ensembles are unique. It is said that she never wears the same dress the second time, always striving to be ahead of the prevailing mode. So, being a fashion leader has its trials as well as its compensation.

HOLLYWOOD—In these days of keen competition the task of holding on to the title of the "best dressed woman in Hollywood" is not by any means an easy one.
But Lilyan Tashman, glamorous blonde star, who portrays gold-diggers on the screen, hangs tenaciously to the distinction of being the fashion leader of the movie colony.

Miss Tashman's wardrobe collection is the green-eyed envy of her colleagues in the film firmament and the annual cost of her clothes would read like a resume of the European war debt. In fact, the amount she spends each year for finery would keep an ordinary business girl in frills for the rest of her life.

But it must not be taken for granted that the mere possession of fine clothes makes the well-dressed woman. What counts more than the actual clothes is knowing what to wear and when to wear them. And that is where Lilyan is away out in front.

The star has her own pet theories about dressing and she doesn't mind making them public.
Miss Tashman explains that she never buys a dress unless it makes her feel the moment she looks at it that she cannot live without it.
She also resents being remembered for her clothes alone. Clothes and the woman should be as one, she declares. A woman, in order to wear her fine feathers with good effect, must belong to her clothes and her clothes must belong to her.

Another hint given by Miss Tashman is that most women pay too much attention to fine trimmings, neglecting the cut and fit of a garment. A well-fitting suit, two or three inexpensive berets, a well-cut blouse and a little dinner dress with a jacket that she can wear with or without a hat, is all that is necessary to "make a well-dressed woman, provided she can "carry" her clothes.

The sartorially-perfect star also points out that no matter how beautiful a woman's clothes may be, the effect is lost if she has neglected her hair and her hands.
Poorly-dressed hair and badlymanicured hands knock seventy-five per cent off the charm of clothes.

When she isn't working in the studios, Miss Tashman likes to wear pajamas. She is always seeking new styles and color combinations for her lounging outfits.
Some of her pajama ensembles are unique. One in particular might be called a "pajama knockout." It is a beautiful gold lace affair that might be proudly worn to the grand opera. To the casual beholder the creation appears to be a wonderful formal evening gown, complete with a long sweeping train.

Purses, too, have an irresistible attraction for Lilyan. She has hundreds of them which she purchased after that "I can't live without it" feeling came over her.
Price tags simply don't exist when she sees a purse or pocketbook that takes her fancy. Her idea of a real bargain would be to find a nice tortoise shell purse, costing three or four hundred dollars.

Her hats are countless in number and endless in variety. Some of the creations she wears in everyday life cost enough to outfit her husband, Edmund Lowe, with a couple of suits and an overcoat.

For day and evening wear, Miss Tashman likes black and white color combination in dresses. It is said that when the beautiful Lilyan wears a dress once its life is ended as far as she is concerned. Considering the wonderful creations in which she has appeared, some of them fashioned of velvet and gold brocade, this seems nothing short of sacrilege.
But if Lilyan wants to retain her enviable title as the best dressed woman, the price is considered as a secondary affair.

Mrs. Kern served a delicious luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks with Miss Virginia Laurent.

GLEN JACKSON PLEASEDLY SURPRISED

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson, Tuesday night, and assisted in surprising Mr. Jackson, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

Games were enjoyed during the evening and music was furnished by Faye, Bennie and Jimmie Harkless, after which refreshments were served to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harkless, Mr. and Mrs. Addison Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Draper and daughters Irene and Ellen, Mrs. Ross Harden, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harkless and daughter Chloe, and the Misses Helen, Ireta and Catherine Fairchild, Ida Shearer, Oraine and Marie Kruetzman, Dorothy and Pauline Roughia, Faye Harkless and Gailie Hoagland, and the Messrs. Homer, Will and John Bittner, Harold and Brice Burger, Ben Kruetzman, Leland, Carl and Earl Sheets, Thurl and Truman Sults, Paul Harden, Edward Shearer, Harold Fairchild, Bennie and Jimmie Harkless.

LOCAL COUPLES INVITED TO DANCE

Ben Bernie, the "Old Maestro" of the air, will bring his internationally famous orchestra to Fort Wayne, Tuesday, April 5 for one night only at the Community Center, under the auspices of the Friar Club.

Ben Bernie, who has scored a sensational hit at the College Inn in Chicago, and has become one of the most popular orchestra leaders on the air today, will bring his orchestra and a number of his air proteges with him. Included will be Pat

Kennedy, the Irish Tenor, Frank Prince, the University of Wisconsin crooner, and Eddie Oliver the German Quartet.

This dance is expected to be one of the outstanding dance events of the season and most of Fort Wayne's younger set are planning pairs for the occasion. Couples from this city and neighboring towns will also attend the dance.
Tickets may be secured by writing any Friar club member or by writing the Standard Lumber office and Display, Fort Wayne.
Checks must accompany the orders, and tickets are selling for $2.50 before April first, and after April first, $3.50.

The Woman's Club will meet in the Public Library Hall Monday night at seven-fifty five o'clock.
The literature department will have charge of the program.

The Pocahontas lodge will be held in the Red Mens Hall, Friday night at seven-thirty o'clock.

Valuable Rock

Mount Kineo, 900 feet high and jutting into Mooselund lake, in Maine, is said to be the biggest single mass of hornblende in the world. Hornblende is rock containing considerable iron and occurs to distinct crystals and in columnar, fibrous and granular form. It once was used by Indians for arrowheads.

Fishes' Traffic Signals

FISH are now guided down the safest water highways by electric traffic signals, which deter them from entering unsafe streams by means of electrodes in the water.

Patents Granted by States

Patents were granted by the state governments before the Constitution conferred this power upon congress.

Get the Habit — Trade at Home

Town Talk

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brumley of Chicago, Ill., returned to their home this morning, after attending the funeral of Mrs. John Everett, and spending several days visiting with relatives.

Mrs. P. B. Thomas and Mrs. Carrie T. Haubold motored to Bluffton this afternoon and were accompanied home by Miss Helen Haubold, a student at Indiana University, who will spend her spring vacation here.

Harold Zwick of Indianapolis arrived in this city Wednesday night to spend the spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Zwick.

John T. Myers, well known Decatur business man who suffered a heart attack several days ago in Fort Wayne, was removed to his home here Monday from the Lutheran hospital where he had been a patient since the attack. He is reported to be some better but is still confined to his home.

Otto Ewell of Probie township was looking after business in this city Wednesday.

Harvey Morley of Angola, a candidate for congress was here last evening to file with the county clerk.

Tomorrow is April Fool day when if you pick up a pocket book it won't have any thing in it and if you don't it will be bulging with genuine greenbacks.

Robert Mothers made a business trip to Fort Wayne this afternoon.
Frank Heller of Hartford township called to arrange matters pertaining his candidacy for auditor.

Chinese Wall Not Unique

Recent explorations in Asia by Dr.
Sven Hedin indicate that there were other great walls in the Far East besides the famous great wall of China.

Theft Case Dismissed

Albion, Ind., March 31 —(U.P.)— Bert Angus, accused of implication in the holdup of the Citizens National bank of Kendallville last October, was clear of robbery charges today while Carroll Hammond, star witness for the state was under a 90-day penal farm sentence.

Hammond, it was alleged, made overtures to the defense counsel to leave Kendallville so as not to appear against Angus. He pleaded guilty on a charge of attempting to secrete himself to avoid service of a subpoena.

In a preliminary hearing, Hammond, a barber, identified Angus as one of the bandits who obtained $25,000 from the bank.

Angus was arrested at Jonesville Michigan with Joe Roberts. Police said he and the men had a large amount of stolen bonds in their possession. Roberts was found guilty of bank robbery and will be sentenced tomorrow.

Indispensable Milk

Any woman who does not appreciate the value of milk in the diet should be prohibited by law from planning menus.—Woman's Home Companion

Either Adjective or Noun

Baccalaureate is an adjective or a noun, meaning "of or pertaining to the degree of bachelor." In the United States it has an idiomatic meaning—a farewell sermon delivered to graduates.

Plowed Up Ancient Crown

A peasant whose plow turned up a gem-studded ancient crown in a Transcaucasian field turned in his $50,000 find and it went to the Archeological museum of Georgia.

This guarantee assures fresh

delicious corn flakes

FOR 25 years Kellogg's Corn Flakes have been considered the standard of quality — the highest value possible to put into corn flakes. Behind every package is the personal guarantee of W. K. Kellogg:

"You must be more than satisfied with the flavor and freshness of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. If you do not consider them the best you ever tasted, return the empty package and we will gladly refund your money."

No other corn flakes are made like Kellogg's. No others reach you so fresh and crisp. For Kellogg's have a WAXTITE inside bag that is sealed top and bottom. It guarantees oven-freshness!

Look for the red-and-green package at your grocer's.
Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

