

SOCIETY

Miss Mary Macy
Miss Margaret Haley
Phones 1900-1901

Paris Styles

By Mary Knight
Press Staff Correspondent
April 4—(U.P.)—"When in Rome, be like the Romans." That is the answer to the question of what to wear here when you are in Rome. "What color should I wear? I haven't money enough to buy the accessories that should go with dresses of different colors."

well-known dressmaker in Rome de la Paix says. "A young girl means should wear anything but black and white, or touches now and then of some brighter color." "The black accessories are good and because one doesn't change them, more can be worn than would otherwise be the case."

Women's Home Missionary Society, the Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Sam Butler on Elgin Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The assisting hostesses will be the Mesdames W. F. Bill Butler, Miranda Moore, Sarah Case.

Delton Passwater will be the special leader, and the lesson from the book, "Challenge Change," will be given by D. H. Myers. A good attendance is desired as plans will be made for the Fort Wayne convention to be held in the church, Wednesday, April 6. The Lenten offering will still be received.

Charles Omlor will entertain members of the Bona Tens at her home on West Adams tonight at seven-thirty o'clock.

Ed. A. Boese will be hostess to members of her Bridge Club, Tuesday night at eight o'clock.

Phoebe Bible class of the Reformed Sunday School will meet Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ed. Frank on North Second. The assisting hostesses will be the Mesdames Albert Miller, Albrechtman, and Ralph Yager.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Mrs. Frank Baker of the Eleventh street entertained yesterday afternoon with a party, honoring their daughter, Edora, on her birthday anniversary.

STAINLESS
Same formula... same price. In original form, too, if you prefer. VICKS VAPORUB
26¢ for COLD
24¢ for MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

LOOK AROUND YOUR HOME... YOUR GUESTS DO

Now! Kyanize

LUSTAQUIK FINISH

WITH Kyanize Self-Smoothing Lustaquik Finish you can quickly transform dingy furniture or drab walls and woodwork. Easy to apply; no offensive odor; dries dust-free in one hour; hardens in four hours!... Make this test. Cover a surface with Kyanize Lustaquik Finish and make a number of marks on it with a nail. Then watch the wet paint smooth itself into a perfect finish!

Kyanize
SELF-SMOOTHING
PAINTS • VARNISHES • ENAMELS

Callow & Kohne
The Cut Rate Drug Store on East Side of Street

James Bennett of Fort Wayne; Morris Alleen Butcher and Eleanor Butcher of Lima, O. Other guests were Melba Kraft, Harvey Baker, Nina Elcher, Evangeline Fuhrman, Violet Gird, Margaret Hoffman, Naomi Ward, Mary Anna Johnson, Helen Williams, Hilda Williams, Rosamond Hoagland, Betty Hunter, Elaine Roop, Otis, Edith and Norma Baker.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Graham, Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.

The Mt. Pleasant Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Goldie Roop Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

The women of the Zion Lutheran Missionary Society will sponsor a social gathering in the school house, Wednesday night at eight o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Calvary Evangelical Church will meet in the church, Thursday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Mt. Taber church which was to have been held Tuesday evening, has been postponed one week on account of the death of Miss Verda Gilpin. The meeting will be held the following Tuesday with Mrs. Lester Tumbleson.

Mrs. Waldo Eckrote will be hostess to the members of the Frivility Club at her home Wednesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUBS
HOLDS REGULAR MEETING
The members of the Home Economics Club met at the home of Mrs. Evert Banter on April 1, for the regular monthly meeting.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "America," and a medley of southern songs, followed with the club song.

Mrs. Charles Bentz read the sixty sixth Psalm and led in prayer. The roll was answered by each member giving a house hold hint. Mrs. Ziegler was appointed chairman of the Kellogg demonstration to be given June 14 at Hartford high school.

Mrs. Lester Kerr and Miss Verle Runyon were appointed a committee for the program on Child's Health and Welfare. A vocal duet was sung by Mrs. Kerr and Mrs. Harry Meshberger and Mrs. Kerr also gave a helpful talk on how to eliminate the fly.

Mrs. Harry Meshberger talked on the habit and control of the clothes moth. One new member was taken into the club, Mrs. Claude Monce. Light refreshments of fruit salad, whipped cream, cookies and coffee were served.

Each member was presented a package, which, when opened, contained an April Fool joke.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Zion Reformed Church will serve a catereria supper in the church basement, Saturday night from five to seven o'clock.

Four Die In Crash
Ely, Minn., April 4.—(U.P.)—Four Ely men who were killed in an airplane crash near Duluth today left Ely at 6 a. m. on a trip to Detroit.

The men were Cheron Fuller, 25, pilot of the plane; H. E. Kurviness, 35, owner of the Central garage; V. J. Sonero, 32, and W. Sonero, 28, all of Ely. Kurviness and Sonero owned the plane, a Stinson-Detroit cabin model.

The weather was cloudy when the men left.

Germans See 285 Films
Washington.—(U.P.)—During 1931 there were 285 motion pictures shown in Germany, Commerce Department reports of Berlin state. Of this number, 145 films were produced in Germany and 140 by foreign companies. The United States ranked first as an exporter of foreign-made films, with a total of 64.

Zinc History For Chicago Fair
Platteville, Wis.—(U.P.)—An exhibit being prepared here for the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago, in 1933, will include features of the zinc and lead mining industry of this district and its earliest days. It will show equipment used 100 years ago, specimens of ores, and refined products and by-products.

Hand on Forehead Saved Life
Cambridge Mass.—(U.P.)—Harold Gruhn, 16, probably saved his own life by having his hands on his forehead when he was struck by a stray .22 caliber bullet. The bullet, fired by a boy hunting in the woods nearby, passed through Gruhn's hand into his forehead, where doctors removed it.

Freak Lamb Born
Caenwent, Wales.—(U.P.)—A lamb born here had one head, four legs, two faces, four front legs, four hind legs, two tails and two ears.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Howell and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Whitright and Miss Gladys Whitright visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mooney and family in Monroeville Sunday.

COURT HOUSE

Real Estate Transfers
Fred I. Patterson, et ux, to the Decatur Savings and Loan Association, in lot 312 in Decatur for $1.00.

Decatur Savings and Loan Association to Fred I. Patterson, et ux, in lot 42, Decatur, $1.00.
Martha R. Pogue, in lot 12 and part of 13 in Monroe, to Laura L. Laisure, et al, for $1.00.
Martha R. Pogue, 100 acres in Monroe township to Laura L. Laisure, et al, for $1.00.

Oscar L. Vance, et al, 51 acres in Blue Creek township, to Joseph P. Brookhart, quit claim deed.

Real Estate Transfers
Decatur cemetery Association, part of inlot 537 in the Decatur Cemetery to John Everett.

THREE SEEK CORONER'S JOB

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)
active campaign for the nomination. Failure of the Republicans to file a candidate for coroner means that the Democrat primary winner will be the county coroner after January 1, 1933. The term is for two years.

CLASS PLAY IS ANNOUNCED

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)
Lacie Christy
Florence Tinkham
Flora Farnum—Dudley's Inamorata
Dollie Chronister

Trustees Hold Meet

The monthly meeting of the township trustees in Adams County was held this morning at the office of C. E. Striker, county school superintendent, in the court house. All were present except Edwin Beer, trustee of French township, who was detained on account of illness. It was decided to begin the enumeration of school children on April 10. The trustees will take the enumeration and special enumerators will be named in Decatur.

The closing of the grade schools in the county will be held on Friday, April 29 and plans were discussed by the trustees.

Boy Is Electrocuted

Brownstown, Ind., April 4.—(U.P.)—A copper wire kite line which Elmer Hunnaker 14, was using, touched a high tension circuit and caused his death near his home here.

The boy had been warned a few moments before, and was attempting to steer the kite away from the wire when a gust of wind darted it downward, bringing the line into contact with the wire.

James Jaap, 15 was killed in a similar accident at Fort Wayne last week.

Will Claim Bandits

Woodstock, Ill., April 4.—(U.P.)—Sheriff Lester Edinger announced today upon his return from Chicago that McHenry county would claim Donald Loftus, alleged bank robber, for trial.

Confession to robbery of two McHenry county banks, at Marengo and Algonquin, have been obtained from Loftus, according to Chicago authorities.

Edinger said it had been agreed that Loftus would be turned over to McHenry county for trial. He said he would return to Chicago later in the week to bring him back.

Card of Thanks

The undersigned wishes to sincerely thank the Decatur Fire department for their very prompt response and others who assisted in extinguishing the roof blaze at the Zion Reformed Church parsonage on Sunday morning.
Rev. A. R. Fledderjohann.

Town Talk

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gay, east of the city, had as their dinner and supper guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kohne and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Burgener and sons Robert and Dale of Fort Wayne visited in this city Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Vega of Chicago visited over the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas.

Jacob Long, Geneva druggist and a democratic wheel horse in that part of the county was here on business today.

Grover Baumgartner of the state auditors department was a caller here Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Armstrong of Fort Wayne visited here over Sunday.

John Herman of Monroeville was in attendance at the Gottschalk headquarters opening.

Mrs. I. W. Macy and daughter Elizabeth motored to Elkhart this morning to meet Mr. Macy who is returning from a three weeks business trip to New York City.

Dan Scherry, trustee of Kirkland township was a caller here Saturday evening.

Mrs. D. B. Erwin returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Bert Owens in Orchard Lake a suburb of Detroit. Mrs. Owens has been ill with neuritis several weeks. She is some better but still very weak and Mrs. Erwin will probably return in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Grant, son Russell and Mrs. Mary Ezer of Rensselaire, Indiana visited here over Sunday with the Dick Heller family. Dick Heller, Jr., returned with them for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. France of Gary and Dick Peterson of Chicago were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Fannie Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tyndall of Bluffton were guests here over Sunday.

Fred McBride of Bluffton was a greeting friends here Saturday evening.

Tom Peterson, ill in a hospital at Elmira, N. Y., is reported improved. He is suffering from a spinal ailment which the physicians have not yet been able to diagnose.

John W. Kitch, Plymouth attorney was a visitor here Saturday evening. He and Senator Gottschalk are old legislative pals and Mr. Kitch was pleased by the interest manifested at the headquarters opening.

The Decatur golf course opened yesterday and will be a busy place from now on or as soon as the weather softens a little. The course is in excellent condition and the management has a new plan this year that it is believed will prove very popular.

Kenneth Shoemaker and Richard Briggs of Geneva attended to business here Saturday afternoon.

Paul Liston of Washington, Pa., who has been a guest in the O. L. Vance home, went to New York City, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kirchenbauer of east of Wren, Ohio, visited in this city Sunday with Mrs. Phoebe Schumacher who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Plauvelt, Mrs. Mary Blauvelt, Mrs. Edna Budd and Miss Gress of Fort Wayne were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Schumacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engle and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Myrant of South Bend visited over the week-end in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engle and family and attended to business. They were accompanied home Sunday by Miss Mary Engle who will spend several weeks in South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Zollinger, Miss Fritz Arnold and Charold Poinsette of Fort Wayne were Sunday guests of Miss Helen Colchin.
Harry Hunt and Jack Dornie of Fort Wayne visited in this city Sunday night.

Billy Sprunger of Earlham College spent the week-end in Decatur.
Mr. and Mrs. William Zwick, and the Misses Irene and Naomi Zwick spent Sunday in Shipewana, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freedy and sons.

Dr. R. E. Daniels and Harold Daniels motored to Chicago Sunday where they met Mrs. Harold Daniels and son Frank who have been at Rochester, Minn., the past week. The little son underwent an examination and was pronounced in good health.

Miss Glennia Elzey returned to Bloomington today to resume her studies at Indiana University. She was accompanied to Bluffton by Mrs. Margaret Elzey and Miss Herretta Elzey.

John Weikel of Fort Wayne visited in this city with relatives and friends Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Huser and son of Alexander, motored to this city Sunday and spent the day with her brother and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clark of south east of Monroe, and Arthur Clark and family in this city.

Mrs. William Schumm and children of Rockford, O., John Bauer and family, and Andrew Etzler and family of Convo, O., and Gertrude Conrad of Fort Wayne were Sunday guests at the Ed. Bauer home.

TRY OUR CLEANING and PRESSING SERVICE

SHEETS BROS.
Phone 359

Enough VELVET for 50 cigarettes ... 15c

Se recommande particulièrement par sa finesse et sa pureté.

Velvet

...made for rolling

No ifs, ands or buts about it... the right tobacco for "rolling your own" is tobacco made for rolling. Velvet is just that... made for hand-rolling... and the best smokin' you ever tasted!

1932, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.