LADIES AID HAS CLOSING MEETING
The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in the church parlors, Thursday after- noon, for the closing meeting of the year.
Mrs. W. O. Little had charge of the devotional services, and took as her Scripture theme, "Friend- ship" the seventh chapter of Luke.
The regular routine of business was followed and final reports were made by the various officers and committees. Thirty one calls were reported to have been made during the last month, and a calling com- mittee to comprise of the Mesdames E. N. Wicks and Sam Butler, was chosen for the month of May.
Mrs. Home Lower and Mrs. W. O. Little were hostesses, Thursday afternoon and served refreshments.

The regular business meeting of the Delta Theta Tau sorority will be held at the home of Mrs. George Thoms, Monday night at seven thirty o'clock.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO GIVE PROGRAM
As part of the Girls' Week pro- gram, the Woman's Club will enter- tain with a program at the high school auditorium, Monday even- ing. A play will be given by the Junior Arts department of the club and the dramatic department will also present "Martha's Mourning." The characters for the latter one-act play are Miss Eva Acker, Miss Helen Christen and Mrs. Frank Downs. This was given earlier in the season before members of the Woman's Club.
The girls of the fifth, sixth, sev- enth, and eighth grades and high school will be special guests, and all members of the Woman's Club are also invited.
At the close of the program the guests will be entertained with a program in the gymnasium with Miss Jeanette Clark in charge.
The Woman's Club is helping with the Girls' Week program through next week, and will cli- max the events with a hike on Sat- urday.

The Monday Night Bridge Club will meet with Mrs. Christ Boknecht Monday night at seven o'clock.

MEETING OF PINOCCHLE CLUB
Mrs. Bryce Roop entertained the members of the Pinocchio Club and a guest, M. S. Ralph Roop at her home, Thursday night. Games of pinocchle were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Isabel Odle and Mrs. Robert Gage for high scores, and Mrs. Leo Teeple for consolation.

The hostess presented Mrs. Roop the guest, with a guest prize. At the conclusion of the games, a delicious luncheon was served.
The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Fred Stauffer.

EASTERN STAR HAS STATED MEETING

The regular stated meeting of the Eastern Star was held in the Ma- sonic Hall, Thursday evening. The Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, and Associate Matron, Mrs. James Edler and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. An- derson were absent. They were at- tending the fifty-eighth annual ses- sion of the Indiana Grand Chapter of Eastern Star, held at the Murat temple in Indianapolis, Wednesday and Thursday.

W. O. T. M. PLANS MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Women of the Moose met in the Moose Home, Thursday evening. Following the business meeting several games of hunc were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Noll, Mrs. Cecil Gause and Mrs. Coy Martz. Refreshments were served at the close of the games.
During the meeting final plans were discussed for the Memorial services to be held jointly with the L. O. O. M. at the Christian church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Plans were also made for a mother's day program to be given at the lodge home at seven o'clock next Thursday evening. The pro- gram will take the place of the regular meeting and is for all mem- bers, their families and friends. The committee in charge of the affair comprises the Mesdames Arthur Miller, William Noll and Cecil Gause. A pot-luck supper will be served with Mrs. Coy Martz and Mrs. Roy Lehman in charge.

SO CHA REA CLUB HAS HARD TIME PARTY

The members of the So Cha Rea were entertained at the home of Mrs. Andrew Appelmann, Thursday evening, with a hard time party and potluck supper.

At seven o'clock the guests were seated at a table laid with an old fashioned linen table cloth, and the room was illuminated by coal oil lamps. Details of the table were as old fashioned as possible with the plates turned upside down, and many different sizes and varieties of plates being used.

Following the supper, which was two course, the dining room was converted into an old fashioned gro- cery store. Several games of bridge were played and at the conclusion of each game the winner chose her own prize from the improvised store. The grand prize was award- ed to Miss Marie Murtaugh.

MENU ANNOUNCED FOR CHURCH DINNER

A dinner will be served in the Christian Church basement by the members of the Ladies Aid Society of that church, Saturday night from five to seven o'clock. The meal will be served for thirty-five cents a plate.

Ludlow For Referendum

Indianapolis, April 29—(UP)— Representative Louis Ludlow, Dem., who voted against the Beck-Linth- cum Liquor referendum resolution in Congress, declared himself for a referendum in a talk at a Demo- cratic rally here last night.

Ludlow said he favored submit- ting the entire wet and dry question to the people, and the time was not far away when wets and dries alike would agree to this program. He explained that his opposition to the Beck-Linthcum resolution as based upon the stand it tacitly stood for return of the saloon in America.

Referring to his referendum support he remarked that "certain- ly this program is on to which the leaders of both the dry cause and the anti-prohibition cause can agree without any compromise of their position, and without any sacrifice of conviction."

Ban Harbor as Wastebasket

Boston.—(UP)—Boston Harbor no longer may be used as a "waste- basket." A law, effective this month, prohibits throwing of refuse into the harbor, under penalty of fines of $20 to $100.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF ADAMS AND WELLS COUNTIES:

During my campaign the last three months I have met many of you in both counties and whether I shall win or lose I will always have pleasant memories of new friendships formed during this period. I have been shown courtesies in both counties, in every township, every city, town and village, and I want to thank all of my friends for the friendly reception received.

Next Tuesday, May 3, will be the important day when it will be up to you to do your duty as a citizen. I am earnestly and sincerely asking for your support upon the principles as I have announced them in my campaign, and I again assure you that you will not be disappointed in case you see fit to cast your vote for the undersigned.

I will do the utmost to be true to the trust which I hope you will put upon me as a nominee of the greatest and oldest political party of the United States of America. Now is your time to act; let your voice be heard at the polls next Tuesday!

Yours very sincerely,

CHRISTIAN H. MUSELMAN,
