Every time you use home made bread or use home made goods, you help to keep some one employed here at home. That's being loyal and wise.

We will, as usual, furnish the news of the result of the elections in this county, district and state next Tuesday night. Call us for information any time during the night.

The candidates have only a couple of more days of worry and work and then the voters will decide who the candidates are to be. Listen to them and select those whom you feel will serve best.

Don't forget to vote on the time question next Tuesday when you go to the polls. Do you favor standard of daylight saving time? The city council will do as this referendum indicates they should.

Monday is the last day for tax paying and the big rush is on. Mr. Wechter and his assistants are doing every thing they can to help those who desire to meet this semi-annual payment. The office is kept open during the noon hour and you will be treated with the greatest courtesy.

The anti-prohibition sleuths swept down to Van Wert county and picked up a bunch of law violators, distributed over the county, just to show them that the law is still in force. A similar drive it is whispered will be made in numerous rural counties of the middle-west during the next few weeks.

The clean-up drive by the street commissioners force is over, that is the trucks have completed their rounds and hauled away all the rubbish found. If for any reason you were overlooked you are requested to get in touch with Mr. Amos Fisher, street commissioner, and if possible, the trucks will come and get the cans and debris from your place.

This is a good community. The United Charities committee asked for the donation of town lots to be used by the needy for garden spots and more of them have been offered than have been requested. Many have taken advantage of the offer and will raise their own garden and if there are others so desiring they should get in touch with Mr. Will Linn, chairman of the committee in charge.

A couple of Chicago slickers slipped into Huntington the other day with a lot of newspapers which carried the heading that Lindbergh's baby had been found and went screaming through the streets, selling a number of them at two-bits per copy which was a hundred times more than the sheet was worth even had the story been true. The men were arrested and fined as they should have been.

The action of congress in refusing to include those clerks in the government's employ who are drawing $2,500 or less in the ten percent cut was popular with the employes who cheered from the galleries but it may not take so well with the fellow back home who is lucky if he hasn't taken a fifty percent cut and he will have to be considered before long. The election next November will give the people their chance and they seem to be the temper to use it.

Republican leaders and the press are going to be greatly disappointed when the Democrats meet in June if they don't stage another hot convention as they did in New York in '24. They dig up every little scrap they can and try to make it appear as though the party was torn in shreds. We don't believe it is. Of course with the outlook for a victory this year, candidates are pulling every string they can to win the nomination, but it will be a winning, happy crowd of delegates that select the nominees in the big convention and they are going out to win.

Trading at home is right and its good sense these days. Your home merchants and manufacturers are helping to carry the burden these days and they deserve your support. They employ home people and they make it possible for you to enjoy life better. Why not give them all your patronage? Join those who are striving to get this sentiment going in such a manner that it really means something. Already we have heard of a number who have determined to use home made goods when ever they can and it is helping. If every one would do it, the results would be surprising.

TO THE VOTERS OF ADAMS COUNTY
I wish to take this method of announcing what I stand for, as a candidate for County Auditor subject to the decision of the Democratic primary May 3rd. If nominated and elected, give me the salary and other allowances which the County Auditor is now receiving and I agree to reduce the deputy expense of that office $1,000 per year, which was an added expense for the past eleven years. I wish to state it will be impossible to see each and every voter and I ask your very earnest consideration and support. Qualification: nine years of book-keeping.
Yours respectfully,
FRANK HELLER.

Lessons In English

Words often misused. Do not say "The man and the boy were helping one another along." Say, "were helping each other" when referring to two.
Often mispronounced: Rheumatism. Pronounce rhu-ma-tizm, the oo as in room, not as u in rum.

Often misspelled: Bouquet; not ette.
Synonyms: Divulge, discover, disclose, uncover, reveal, impart, communicate.
Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Today's word: Indolence; habitual idleness. "They passed their lives in voluptuous indolence."—Irving.

QUALIFICATIONS

Graduated from Decatur High School in 1920. Attended United States Military Academy at West Point New York. Graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington, Indiana. Graduated from Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tennessee, in the School of Law.

A life-long resident of Decatur and Adams County. Thirty years of age, have been married six years, and a taxpayer on both real and personal property. Occupy offices with Mr. Clark J. Lutz, veteran Attorney of Decatur, whose years of practical experience in the courts will be a valuable asset to me as well as to Adams County.

STATEMENT

"I think that the office of the prosecuting attorney is one of the most important in the County. The people will choose a man on a basis of morality, integrity and willingness to work. If nominated and elected to this office, I will conduct this office on the square. I will prosecute my own cases and save the taxpayers a great sum of money in not employing extra help to do my work. I am not affiliated with any 'ring' or 'gang' and have not made any promises, or offered any 'protection' or favor to any person or group of persons. I seek the support of the solid thinking people who wish to see this office conducted as the statutes direct.

"I regret that I am not in a position financially to send each voter a 'form' letter, but I am making a desperate attempt to see all of you in person and if you feel that I am competent to conduct this office, I will appreciate your vote next Tuesday."

Why the Banks and the People Should Work Together

Life as we live it today could not exist without banks.

Think of trying to carry on trade on a man to man, hard cash basis! There would be no checks, no currency to speak of, and none of the convenient forms of paper credit on which we depend today.

Men and women would have to carry heavy cash around at the risk of their lives. Business could not be conducted without bulky shipments of gold and silver, with guns and men to guard them.

Without banks the commercial world would slow down to the ox-cart pace of a thousand years ago. Few of the inventions, luxuries, enjoyments and accomplishments of our present-day civilization would exist.

The banks of today serve mankind. Banks provide the facilities by which manufacturers buy raw material and employ labor; they enable merchants to buy goods and sell them to the public; they benefit the farmer, the wage-earner and every individual. Employment of people and the life of business depend upon the banks.

The banks and the people should work together.
