Pomeroy, O.—(UP)—When an optimistic traveling salesman told storekeepers he was convinced beer will be legalized by July, 1933, his sales report for beer mugs showed the best record made here in recent months.

"Well, we have a good demand for beer mugs anyway," one business man said in placing an order.

THIMBLE THEATER

McAdoo Greets Smith

Alfred E. Smith, former governor of New York, and William G. McAdoo, who deadlocked the 1924 Democratic convention with their battle for the presidential nomination, shook hands Thursday when they met in Chicago. They are shown here at Smith headquarters in Chicago.

Walker Arrives on Time

Nary a wisecrack issued from the lips of Mayor James J. Walker when he arrived (on time) in Chicago to attend the Democratic convention. He said, in explanation, that he couldn't talk in Chicago as he did at home. Left to right are Greeter George Gaw, Edward Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, Mayor Walker and John J. Fitzpatrick, president of the federation.

All for Roosevelt

No matter what the news may indicate, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall (left) daughter; James Roosevelt, son, and Mrs. James Roosevelt, daughter-in-law, of the New York governor, cling to the conviction that he can't lose.

Mooseheart Commencement Sunday

The fourteenth annual commencement of the Mooseheart High School is being held today, with George N. Warde, General Dictator, as sponsor of the class of 109 boys and girls from twenty-three states and Alaska. Sam Baker, of Hopewell, Pa., is president of the class; Agnes Cleland, Raton, N. M., vice-president; John Evans, Sharon, Pa. secretary, and John West, of Shenandoah, Pa., treasurer. This is the largest class ever graduated from Mooseheart, which was founded in 1913 by Senator James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania. The first graduating class in 1919 contained five members and the classes have increased in size each year.

Pennsylvania has the largest number of students in the class. Twenty-three boys and girls will go back to their original homes in the Keystone state immediately after their graduation. Illinois with twenty ranks second in number and Ohio with eight is third. West Virginia, Wisconsin and Indiana each have six members, Kansas has five; Utah, New York and New Jersey four each and Montana has three. Missouri, Iowa, Michigan, Alaska, California, Florida and Oregon each has two and lone individuals come from Texas, South Dakota, Wyoming, Virginia, New Hampshire and New Mexico.

Having the highest scholastic record among the students Thurnelda Johnson, of Burlington, Iowa, is the valedictorian of the class, and James A. Norman, of Franklin, Pa., ranking second in the class, is the salutatorian. These two young people were also the winners of the Frank Stillman Lusk scholarship. This is the second annual award of this fund, which was established by Mrs. Lusk, of Missoula, Mont., more than a year ago in memory of her husband, who had always been interested in Mooseheart. Mrs. Lusk is giving $100 each year to be divided equally between the boy and girl in the graduating class having the highest grades.

Every graduate from Mooseheart has a trade in addition to his regular work and is capable of earning his own living, which was the ideal of Mr. Davis, whose slogan has been "Every child is entitled to a high school education and a trade."

Every child receives a musical education if he has any talent at all and several teachers of the
