THIMBLE THEATER

By HARRISON CARROLL
Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., June 28.—The high cost of polo is weaning away many former Hollywood enthusiasts from the game.
Of interest are James Gleason's remarks on the subject. "I haven't played polo in three months," says the author-comedian. "When I read in the papers about all the destitute veterans in Washington and the poverty existing everywhere, I do not think any one individual has the right to spend money this way."

James Gleason
Be of good cheer, all you alimony martyrs. The R-K-O studio is taking up the cudgels in an expose of this lucrative racket. The picture will be titled "Object, Alimony." Originally, it was a novel by Bobbie Meredith called "Alimony Jail." David Selznick promises an early production.
WHAT THE GOSSIPS ARE WHISPERING.
There's a new Ina Claire romance. He's tall and blond and he went out to meet Ina's train. Carole Lombard and William Powell still are trying to catch their breath from moving out of their house on 24 hours' notice. Their lease had expired and they were renting from month to month. Then the landlord called up one morning and said he had leased the place to someone else. . . . Next to George Arliss, George M. Cohan holds the walking record in Hollywood. He foots it all the way to the studio from his hotel. These summer evenings Cohan may be seen watching the night baseball games of the Coast League. . . . Part of the money to bring the Mexican Olympic athletes here will be raised from the sale of clothes contributed by Paramount stars. They're in for souvenirs. . . . All the studios are much concerned over the influx of visitors who will want to see how pictures are made. At a night meeting, Hollywood publicity men decided to devote one day to the foreign press and one to the American newspapermen. . . . Laurence Schwab returns to Broadway immediately for the production of "Humpty Dumpty," which he and Buddy De Sylva have just finished. . . . Two new books by Hollywood authors are Claude Binyon's "A Girl Should Work" and Tamar Lane's "Hey Diddle Diddle." . . . It will be a week before the Marx brothers finally get under way again on their picture at Paramount. . . . Too bad about Carl Laemmle, Jr. He's confined to his home again with that sinus trouble.

They would have you believe that Eddie Cantor's second daughter is a chip off the block.
The other evening William Pearlberg, a dinner guest at the Cantor home, was extolling the virtues of travel by air.
"Why, Eddie," he exclaimed, "I always fly. I'm going to take a plane for New York in a few days. Then I'll fly up to Maine and bring that to Georgia. Finally, I'll fly back here by way of Dallas."
Eddie's daughter looked up.
"Mama," she said, "better close the window. He'll fly right out."

Take it from Groucho Marx, he has just received the record fan letter.
It is from the doorman of the Empress Theater in Vancouver.
It reads: "Please send me a picture of the four of you, and a complete list of all your wisecracks."
Flips Groucho: "I'm sending him a new door for his birthday."

Gardens for Relief
St. Louis —(UP)—A community garden, patterned after similar gardens in Germany, will furnish vegetables to 437 families here this summer, and fall. Each family is required to work its own plot of soil, which is rent free. After Summer vegetables are gone a co-operative canning plant will supply canned vegetables to the families for winter use.

Historic Bar to Go
Kansas City, Mo., —(UP)—"One Good Mopgany Bar For Sale" will read the sign expected to be put up soon at the Hotel Muehlbach here, when the last relic of pre-prohibition days gives way to a new coffee shop. The bar had been part of the furnishings for a smaller coffee shop, which replaced the old bar room, but now it must go.

French Give Passion Play
Cholet, Vendee, France —(UP)—A French Passion Play, running in competition to the same spectacle at Abernethy, will be given seven times during the summer. The first performance was on June 12. The actors are all French and the play is in French, but the music is largely of German origin—Bach, Handel, Beethoven and Mendelssohn.

Device to Save Quail
Harrisburg, Pa., —(UP)—The State Game Commission advised Pennsylvania farmers to use a "flushing bar" on their mowing machines to protect nesting quail, ringnecked pheasants and rabbits, in their fields. The bar is placed in front of the mowing knives and pushes all other creatures from the path of the machine.

Irish Runaway Returns
St. Joseph, Mo., —(UP)—James Byrne, veteran Santa Fe railroad, returned to his native Ireland as unexpectedly as when he left. Fifty years ago he left no word to relatives of his departure; likewise, he sent no heralds to tell relatives of his coming to the Eucharistic Congress, and plans to "drop in" on the folks.

Anna Llyn and Catherine Eleanor Roach, twins, graduated this spring, the eleventh and twelfth members of the family to leave the school since an older sister entered years ago.

Now You Can Buy On Faith

"I talked with grandma the other day," said the young housewife. "I told her I dreaded this daily shopping—that I hardly knew where to begin. And she made me feel ashamed; she actually did!"

We know just about what her grandma told her. "In my day you would have dreaded shopping much more. It was a real chore then. From place to place you went, looking, looking, tasting this, sniffing at that, buying on suspicion and not on faith. You didn't know who made the things you bought; they didn't have labels; most of them weren't in packages."

"Now you know by name most of the things you buy. You buy a can of So-and-so's Beans today, and you know they'll be just the same when you buy them again. You read the advertisements in your paper, see where the best values are offered, make up your list, and out you go and get it over with in a jiffy! Count your blessings, my dear—they are many."

Trust the products advertised in this newspaper. Read the advertisements and simplify your shopping.
