Paris Styles

By Mary Knight
Press Staff Correspondent
—(UP)—There is something about a loveliness that is that's why there are cerise and fabrics that never out. They may shift and combine with odd and novel but basically they retain own personality.
Specific in the matter, we moderately sleek hips that is mid-calf in length for and ankle or instep for evening, and suit full for both occasions to at easy and graceful movement walking or dancing. Further, there has not been a time of memory when cerise of chiffon dotted swiss have not been used for for or another in Dame Fashion. Brocades, corded and still silks have also held their own for certain occasions. Where change of ownership have come into the today is in upsetting of this former established fabrics—such as cotton for for, silk for afternoon and and brocade for evening.
To the designs themselves, fashioned for work—overprone—have now sailed forth the ballroom, while short puffs are a great help in the.

Do you inhale?

Luckies "make no bones" about this vital question

"KEEP that under your hat," said the cigarette trade when first we raised the question—"Do you inhale?"

But silence is golden only when it's unwise to speak. Let others explain their striking avoidance of this subject. Lucky Strike makes its position crystal clear... for certainly, inhaling is most important to every smoker.

For everybody inhales—whether they realize it or not...every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike "makes no bones" about this vital question because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!
