Watched as Cracksmen Worked

Members of the Kruse family who were among the captives of the cracksmen. Their jailers conversed with the family, petted the baby, played with the house dog, talked about their plans and displayed a complete knowledge of the floor plans of Koch & Co., and what loot they expected to get. Left to right, the members of the Kruse family are, Louella Kruse, Adeline Laughlin, holding her sister, Nancy Sue; Mrs. Myrtle Basinger and Mrs. Charles Laughlin.

Safe Deposit Vault Looted

The three-story building of Koch & Co., in Chicago, where cracksmen cut through a fifteen-inch steel wall and escaped with loot estimated at between $100,000 and $250,000. At least eight and possibly ten men held possession of the building, keeping eleven persons under guard, while they were performing the carefully conceived robbery.

How It Was Done

Sergt. J. C. Haska of the Chicago police, is shown examining the hole cut through the ceiling of the looted vault. This entrance was made from the apartment of the Kruse family.

Tax Board's Power To Be Contested

Indianapolis, Sept. 7. — (UP) — A court fight to determine the right of the state tax board to increase farm land valuation was announced today by William H. Settle, President of the Indiana Federation of Settlers. He said 11 county organizations would join under leadership of the Federation in the test case.

The Federation's suit will contend that after farm land is listed "at its true cash value" the tax board is not permitted to increase the valuation. "Farmers and other property owners are bearing more than their share of their cost of government in Indiana," Settle said. "It is enough that their holdings be taxed at their cash value, and not be further burdened with assessments representing more than their properties are worth."

CHARGE DEPUTY SHERIFF WITH MAN'S MURDER

had jumped on his neck. Virant, an East Peoria coal miner, had surrendered voluntarily to Sheriff James J. Crosby when he learned he was wanted for questioning in the investigation of the slaying of a man in a saloon brawl at East Peoria.

Coroner A. E. Allen and State's Attorney L. P. Dunkleberg began an immediate investigation upon being advised of the death. Allen revealed today portions of the testimony he took from Virant at the inquest.

In response to a question by the coroner as to whether Virant had been threatened if he told of the beating, the prisoner said he had but "I am not afraid to talk. I want to tell my story."

"I'm not afraid to die," Virant testified. "I am ashamed for the county to have officers like these. I didn't know anything about the murder and I told them that. They hit me on the head and they broke two ribs. They took turns working on me. Skinner knocked me down and kicked me and jumped on my neck. I couldn't talk because I didn't know anything. They kept kicking me and calling me a damned liar. They pretty near killed me."

After giving his testimony, Virant was returned to his cell. Within a few hours he was found dead.

Coroner Allen said his examination indicated the death was caused either by "knockout drops" known to have been given the prisoner by officers who wished to take Virant's fingerprints or a brain concussion.

Dr. McNally supported this theory. His independent autopsy will not be completed for several days.

"I am certain," McNally said, "that death was not due to hanging. The body was found with the feet dragging on the floor and examination of the neck showed no evidence of strangulation. It appears death was caused by a severe beating."

Dunkleberg said other deputies also might be charged with the death.

Evidence in the case is to be given the Tazewell county grand jury.
