TIGERS TOUGH FOR YANKEES

Detroit Beats League Leaders Twice to Delay Pennant Clinching

New York, Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—The New York Yankees need only four victories in their remaining sixteen games to clinch the American league pennant but darkness and a fighting Detroit team are doing their best to postpone those victories.

Yesterday the Yanks and Tigers battled for 14 innings before the Detroit nine won, 14-13, and then, with the Tigers leading 4-1, the second game was called in the fifth inning because of darkness.

The Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox went an extra inning before the Reds won the game with three runs in the tenth, 9-6.

Washington defeated St. Louis, 6-4. Each team used three pitchers.

Philadelphia and Cleveland were not scheduled.

In the National league the Cubs increased their lead to six games over the idle Pittsburgh Pirates by a virtue of a 5 to 2 victory over the Boston Braves. Lon Warneke hurled fine ball to chalk up his 21st victory of the season. Gabby Hartnett's homer in the seventh inning helped.

Meanwhile, in the cellar, the

New York Giants and Cincinnati Reds battled to a standstill in a double-header. The Reds won the first, 10 to 4, then folded up in the second, 11 to 1.

Mel Ott, Giant outfielder, hit his 33rd and 34th home runs of the season, one in each game.

A single in the twelfth inning by Don Hurst scored George Davis and gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Yesterday's hero, Lonie Warneke, young pitcher, who hurled his 21st victory of the season and enabled the Cubs to increase their National league lead to six games over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Monroe Wins First County League Game

A fifth inning rally failed to win for the Pleasant Mills soft ball team in the first of the Adams county league games played last night at Monroe. Monroe won 17-13.

Monroe lead 11 to 2 at the end of the fourth. R. Andrews walked five men in a row and the Pleasant Mills delegation proceeded to knock him from the mound. Spranger, who replaced him, allowed several more hits. Pleasant Mills tied the score 11 before they were stopped. H. Andrews of Monroe was shifted from left field to pitcher and held Pleasant Mills to two runs in the last two innings. In the meantime, Monroe scored six to win the game.

Score by innings:
Pleasant Mills 100 193 0-13
Monroe 502 442 x-17

Dayton Takes Third Straight From Chiefs

Fort Wayne, Sept. 10.—Dayton made it three in a row over the Fort Wayne Chiefs in the Central league playoff, defeating the Chiefs here Friday night, 7 to 6.

Fort Wayne got away to a good start, taking a four-run lead in the second inning, but Dayton came back with runs in the next four innings to take the lead. The Chiefs threatened to tie the score in the ninth but a fast double play choked off the rally.

The fourth game of the series will be played here tonight. If Dayton wins this game, the series will end, otherwise the two teams will go to Dayton for another game Sunday.

GUS MORELAND IS DARK HORSE

Walker Cup Star Has Several Brilliant Practice Rounds

Baltimore, Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—Boyish Gus Moreland, of Texas, was established today as the dark horse of the national amateur golf championship starting here Monday.

Moreland was overlooked by the powers of the United States Golf Association when the original U. S. Walker cup lists were prepared, but omission of his name brought a thunder of protest from golfing writers.

Later, Francis Ouimet, cup team captain, became ill and Jess Sweetser came down with a heavy cold. So they sent for Moreland. Ouimet named him for the team. The young southwesterner won his singles match over England's great Rex Hartley, and, partnered with Charley Seaver, crushed Tommy Torrance and John De Forest, in the Scotch foursome play.

Now Moreland is out at the five farms course, his game in pre-championship practices fully as formidable as it was in the cup matches at Brookline.

Brilliant medalist, Moreland is conceded an excellent chance to win a first honors in Monday's and Tuesday's 18-hole qualifying rounds. And his sparkling play at Brookline has made veteran golfing observers regard him as a possible successor to the title now held for a second time by veteran and respected Ouimet.

Yesterday, while opening his golf bag here, Moreland cut several fingers of his hand, but it was expected the injuries would heal in time to permit him to play Monday.

Most of the stars already are here.

One in particular, Tony Torrance, captain of the British Walker cup team, has served notice that he will be a tough contender. Yesterday he toured the five farms course in 68, two under par.

Another brilliant score was turned in yesterday by Chandler Egan, of Del Monte, Calif., who won the championship in 1905. He shot a 69.

Among the players who will test the course for the first time today are Harrison (Jimmy) Johnston, of Minneapolis, amateur champion in 1929; Jesse Sweetser, of the U. S. Walker cup team; C. Ross Somerville, Canadian champion, and several of the British Walker cup players.

The game, originally scheduled for seven innings, was tied at 3-3 at the end of the seventh. Monmouth scored three runs in the first half of the eighth to take the lead but Kirkland came back in the last half to tally four runs and win the ball game. Straub, a pinchhitter, drove in the tying and winning runs in the eighth with a two-base hit. Both teams fielded well but the hitting of both teams was weak.

Take Applications For Series Tickets

Chicago Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—The Chicago Cubs started receiving applications today for world series tickets. Approximately 19,400 reserved seats at $5.50 each and 17,500 box seats at $6.50 will be distributed through the mail, provided the Cubs win the pennant. The remaining 15,000 bleacher and general admission tickets will not be placed on sale until the day of the games in Chicago.

If the Cubs win the pennant, the third and fourth, and if necessary, fifth games will be played at Wrigley field, October 1, 2, and 3. No person will be allowed more than two tickets to each game.

Babe Apparently On Road to Recovery

New York, Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—Babe Ruth, baseballs most celebrated invalid, apparently is well on the road to recovery and his tenth world series. Yesterday afternoon after an examination by his physician, Dr. King, it was announced that Ruth's condition was "unchanged."

Ellsworth Vines Beats Henri Cochet

West Side Stadium, Forest Hill's, N. Y., Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Calif., established himself as the world's greatest tennis player today when he defeated Henri Cochet of France, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in the final round of the 51st annual men's national tennis championship.

Before more than 15,000 spectators, who jammed the stadium, the big westerner turned loose a game that literally smothered the smooth stroking Frenchman. The victory was a most satisfying one for Vines.

Members of the Japanese gon-darmerie were understood to be confident that the photographs were for war purposes. The war office, which controls the gon-darmerie, told the United Press it was confident the photographs were not for military use, but said it was always possible that photographs might be taken for a hostile purpose. The war office therefore requested the bank to avoid

COUNTY AGENTS' COLUMN

The Thrifty Pig meeting will be held Tuesday, afternoon, September 13. The first meeting will be on the Peter D. Schwartz farm at one o'clock and the second in the Peter Graber farm at three o'clock.

At both farms the visitors will be shown pigs that have been grown under the Adams county thrifty pig plan. This plan demands that the pigs be farrowed under sanitary conditions and be fed a balanced ration. John Schwab of Purdue University will assist county agent Archbold in conducting these meetings.

Farmers are invited to attend two demonstrations on the low cutting of corn which will be given in Adams county next week. The first meeting will be held Wednesday, September 14, at the Ed Ringer farm at 1:30 p. m. The Ringer farm is located 2 1/2 miles north and 1 1/2 miles west of Berne. The second meeting will be held on the Jonathan Rumpel farm at 1:30 p. m., September 15. This is two miles south and five miles east of Berne in Jefferson township.

The demonstration is to show farmers in this community how a simple attachment, that has recently been developed and can be put on any corn binder, works and the condition in which the field is left after the cutting is done.

Surveys made this year show that the European corn borer is steadily increasing in numbers in this section. With this new attachment the entire stalk can be removed from the field, which is one of the best controls for this insect that is known. The use of the attachment is not only valuable in controlling the corn borer but it leaves the field in excellent condition for sowing wheat or for discing in oats next spring.

The fields in which the demonstrations will be held have been fully scouted and those having been found to be infested are tagged by the agents. They make it possible for the present to observe the borer where the infestation is heavy.

The demonstration will be on by representatives of the cultural Extension Department, Purdue University and the Entomologist's office of Indiana.

Relief Measure Is Effective To

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—(U.P.)—The major relief measure of recent special legislative session became effective today when miles of township roads and maintenance equipment were absorbed by county highway funds as a result, township road levies were wiped out.

The bill providing for the transfer was introduced by William Chambers, Newcastle, floor leader in the senate, in an emergency clause.

Another provision of the measure is that there shall be no levy for the maintenance of township roads, and that funds for that purpose shall come from the state and auto license fund diversion.

It was estimated that nearly $1,000 will be transferred from state highway commission for upkeep of county highways.

Food Prices Decline

A New "Queen Helen"

By HARDIN BURNLEY

HOW MUCH LONGER WILL MRS. MOODY'S TENNIS REIGN LAST?

MISS HELEN JACOBS—WHO WON THE U.S. TITLE THIS YEAR IN BRILLIANT STYLE—SHE MAY YET THREATEN MRS. MOODY'S SUPREMACY—

CAROLIN BABCOCK—19-YEAR-OLD NET STAR WHO SHOWED GREAT PROMISE IN REACHING THE FINALS IN THE TITLE PLAY!

"LITTLE HELEN" has her title at last. After eight years of effort, characterized chiefly by discouragement, the Jacobs member of the California Helens holds the National Women's Singles Trophy.

The admirers of Helen Jacobs are ready to forget that the title, in her case, does not mean that she is the best woman tennis player in the United States. "Little Helen's" accession to the throne might be compared to an eclipse of the sun. Admittedly, the other California Helen, Mrs. Wills Moody, is the "sun" of the tennis firmament. But on occasion, as everyone knows, the moon, a lesser planet, does obscure the brilliance of the sun, and in this year 1932 that is just what Helen Jacobs has done. She has eclipsed Mrs. Moody—even though the latter was three thousand miles away in Paris when the other Helen defeated Carolyn Babcock in the finals at Forest Hills.

Now for eight years, Helen Jacobs has ranked as one of the greatest woman tennis players in the world. By this time, had it not been for Helen Wills Moody, her name would undoubtedly have been well embelazoned among the net immortals. As it is, until this year, she has been chiefly famous as a dependable runner-up. The almost superhuman tennis wizardry of Mrs. Moody is the answer.

Helen Jacobs is a fine competitor—and no mistake. The manner in which she breezed through the field at Forest Hills thrilled and thoroughly convinced all her critics. Observers said that Helen Wills Moody probably could have taken her over, but everyone else who tried failed. The most famous Helen of the tennis world has reigned now for many years. The end of her reign will come some time. Those close to the courts concede Helen Jacobs no chance of beating her this year or next. After that—perhaps.

It was said during the matches at Forest Hills that the younger Helen, playing as she did against Miss Babcock in the finals, could have given Helen the first a stiff battle. Even the crown of victory might have fallen to the fair and wholesome Helen of Berkeley.

But in all their previous matches, Helen Jacobs has always played her worst against Helen Wills. At Seabright last year she went down to humiliating defeat. Earlier this year she could do nothing at Wimbledon with the tennis queen of the entire world. Miss Jacobs' inferiority in her matches with Mrs. Moody has been largely psychological, but mental attitude is just as much a part of the game of tennis as skillful handling of the racquet.

Perhaps when Mrs. Moody is ready to be defeated, Miss Jacobs too will have passed the peak of her game. If that is so, from the present outlook, tennis fans will do well to mark in their book of futures the name of Alice Marble. This youngster lacks polish and experience. She's not a champion yet. But she's from California, she has a magnificent service, a fine volley and smash. Potentially, she seems better right now than that other fine young Californian, Carolyn Babcock, who went to the finals with Miss Jacobs.
