Paris Styles

By Mary Knight
 Paris Staff, Correspondent
 (UP)—"Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," says an important shoe stylist here, "and the dressmaking industry." She explains that first of all there is the higher neckline appearing every dress and immediately the waist of every shoe was higher. In the model added an eylet or to the four or five eylet shoe now quite usual. Even the afternoon pump acquired a slightly high-thrust line by some unusual collar, tongue or buckle.
 Millinery struck a high back note, with trimming and height at the back of the head, and footwears bowed this lead with trimming and height at the back of the foot. Paray's mannequins wore a variety of the kid type; navy shoes of glaze kid coming to distinct point up the back of the foot. Vera Bores, at the last, showed some interesting footwears, the trimming of which was invariably concentrated to the back of the foot, giving a rather high back impression.

NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:
 "Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the fact it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it."

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated for seven weeks."—Mrs. Julia Johnson, 1433 Forest Street, Denver, Colorado.

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, nervousness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B further promotes regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. With it in the body, it forms a soft mass, and it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green packages. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

LOCAL EASTERN STARS HAVE ANNUAL INSPECTION

One of the most delightful events of the year took place Monday night in the Masonic Hall, when the Decatur chapter of the Eastern Star entertained the Worthy Grand Matron, Miss Mabel Carithers of Princeton; the district Deputy Nona Spear, and her husband, Roy W. Spear of Yoder; the Worthy Matron of Shiloh chapter, Fort Wayne, and five of the members, and thirty members from the Geneva chapter.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. James Elbersen, Worthy Matron, and the Mesdames John Peterson, Clara Anderson and R. D. Myers.

The occasion was inspection night for the Decatur and Geneva chapters. At six o'clock a banquet was served in the dance hall where tables were arranged in a Star arrangement, beautifully decorated with roses and ferns. In the center of the star was a round table, covered with a lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl filled with the emblematic flowers.

The Decatur chapter opened the meeting, and invited the Grand Matron to the East. As the conductress escorted her, Mrs. Dan Tyndall sang a beautiful welcome song, with Mrs. Roop at the piano. Others who were invited to the East were the deputy, Miss Spear, matron of Geneva chapter, Mrs. Alpha E. Chew; patron, Earl Shepherd, and the matron of Shiloh chapter, Mrs. Bergoner. Mrs. John Peterson, who has served in Grand chapter, as Grand Adah, and Grand Ester, and Mrs. Clara Anderson, who served as Grand Organist, were also invited to the East.

After the opening, Decatur officers surrendered their chairs to the Geneva chapter officers and they put on the work for inspection. The Grand Matron gave a splendid talk, such as is needed in these trying times. Other talks were given, and Mrs. R. D. Myers, in a fitting manner, presented to the Grand Matron, a corsage and a gift of gold from the Decatur and Geneva chapters. The deputy was also presented with a beautiful corsage from these chapters.

The evening was closed with a song, "A Perfect Night," by Mrs. Tyndall.

The Decatur chapter, under the leadership of Mrs. Elbersen as worthy matron, Mrs. James Anderson as associate matron, has completed a successful year, an enjoyable event having taken place each month. Among the outstanding entertainments were the celebration of George Washington Bicentennial in February, the Halloween party and the Christmas party.

Next Thursday the installation of officers of the Decatur chapter will take place.

"WOMAN IN THE THEATRE" TOPIC OF CLUB PROGRAM

Mrs. C. J. Roberts entertained the Research Club at her home Monday afternoon. Current events were given, after which Mrs. R. D. Myers, who was the leader for the afternoon, gave a very interesting program on "Women in the Theatre."

Mrs. Myers told of the part the women play in all lives of theatre work. She told of "The Little Theatre" originated in 1924 for the study of plays which is "Expressionistic Drama," also of the Children's Theatres in Indianapolis and Chicago, and of "The Shadows of Art," a negro theatre in Chicago all of which are directed by women.

All over the country women are not only actresses, but playwrights, designers of gowns, directors of the stage settings and placing them. Women of the theatre are among the hardest working professional women.

Mrs. Myers told of Parolara and her beautiful dancing, Isadore Duncan and her interpretations. As subjects, Mrs. Haney told of Maud Adams; Mrs. Heller of LaGalliene; Mrs. Lewton of Lynn Fontaine, and Mrs. Pumphrey of Ethel Barrymore.

The next meeting of the Research Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Pumphrey, and Mrs. Leo Saylor will be the leader.

"Chesterfields taste Better"

WE HAVE been telling the public for a good many years that Chesterfields taste better. They satisfy!

That wouldn't mean a thing if smokers found out that it wasn't so. Nobody can fool the people very long.

But a great many smokers have smoked Chesterfields for a long time, and they know that they taste right. And so they say to their friends, "If you want a cigarette that really tastes better, try Chesterfields!"

Chesterfields taste better because they are made of mild tobaccos that have been aged for two years. And there is just enough Turkish in them... but not too much.

We are sure that you, too, will enjoy their Mildness and Better Taste.
