INTERESTING MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. Fred King on Mercer avenue, Thursday evening. Mrs. A. D. Artman opened the business meeting by reading the first eight verses of Timothy. The collection amounted to six dollars and forty six cents.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Dorphus Drum, whose subject was "Seed Time in China." She read a portion of the book of Hebrew, and the members sang the song, "Shout the Tiding." Mrs. Drum read the article, "Seed Time in China," after which there were prayers of Thanksgiving by Mrs. Artman and Rev. C. R. Lanman.

The topic of the lesson study was "Ministry through the Church." Rev. Lanman gave an interesting talk on "Seed Time in Church and China" by C. A. Burch, a missionary to China.

Readings were given by Mrs. King, Miss Florence Lichtensteiger and Mrs. Bob August on "Is There Hope for the church in China." Miss Margaret Daniels read "New Epochs in China Missions," and Mrs. August Kelley read "Think on These Things."

The song, "Blessed be the Name of the Lord," was sung by Mrs. Drum in the Chinese language, accompanied by Mrs. King with the violin. The song was sung by the members in the English language. The reading, "Nanking from the Southern Wall," was given by Miss Katheryn King. The meeting closed with the song, "Jesus Loves us," and the benediction by Rev. Lanman.

The Adams County Choral Society will meet above Brock Store Tuesday night at seven-thirty o'clock.
