(U.P.)—Miss Cleora Wood, American singer, chooses her dresses as carefully as she does her life. Harmony is the keynote in her life and her latest frock is a high note on the scale of smartness. It is of pale blue broadcloth with the new "bib" in the bodice and with sleeves, tucked into the armholes and trimmed with half a dozen gray buttons each. The skirt is worn with it is trimmed with astrakhan as a band at the bottom.

Miss Natica Nast, that attractive young girl who looks so well in all things, has chosen for her new dress a deep Burgundy short coat made of row after row of shirred velvet ribbon. The coat is pale yellow and coral, and has been made in a simple white and Burgundy. Miss Amedee de Broglie, the slender and a brunette, has chosen a Chanel afternoon dress of green velvet. It looks simple at first, but a second look tells you that there is a great amount of workmanship put into an intricate pattern. There are trellis work incrustations on

The next meeting will be held in three weeks at the home of Miss Erna Lankenau with Mrs. Bob Helm, Mrs. A. R. Holthouse and Miss Fan Hammel assisting hostesses.

"WINSTON CHURCHILL" RESEARCH CLUB TOPIC

The Research Club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Pumphrey, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Leo Savors was the leader for the afternoon and gave a biography of Winston Churchill, Great Britain's present Chancellor of the Exchequer, the versatile soldier, author and politician, known for many years as a "young man in a hurry."

He was born at Blenheim Palace on November 30, 1874. Mr. Churchill began life with every apparent advantage except wealth. He earns his living by writing. When, as a young man, he first appeared before an American audience, Mark Twain introduced him very briefly: "By his father he is an Englishman, by his mother, an American. Behold a Perfect Man." Churchill's rise in politics was rapid. He once defined a politician as a man who is asked to stand, wants to sit and is expected to lie. Mr. Churchill has in him all the elements of a great statesman. His friends say that he has added strength and solidity to the brilliance and energy that have always distinguished him.

Lord Birkenhead says of him, "He is almost the only man whom I have ever known who simply could not speak or acquiesce in an untruth in a matter great or small, however convenient it might be."

But Mr. Churchill has not yet convinced his own country that in his public life he has more character than brilliance. It has not yet dawned on England that he may have enough character to become the great statesman he is capable of being.

Subtopics were given by Mrs. Carrie T. Haubold and Mrs. Fred Smith. The Club will meet with Mrs. J. T. Merryman next Monday afternoon.

The Philanthrope class of the Baptist Sunday School will meet Friday evening at seven-thirty o'clock with Mrs. Dora Akey on South Fifth street. Mrs. Ira Bodie will be the assisting hostess and will have charge of the program. A good attendance is desired.

MEETING OF CARPE DIEM CLUB

Mrs. Adrian Lenhart entertained the members of the Carpe Diem Club and two guests, at her home on South Fifth street, Tuesday evening. A short business meeting was held after which a flower contest was enjoyed and Mrs. Grant Fry received the prize.

Games of five hundred were played and Mrs. Miles Roop was the winner of the high score prize and Mrs. Sue Harding received the consolation prize.

A delicious luncheon was served at the small tables Mrs. Vernon Aarand and Miss Verna Vance were guests other than the regular club members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harve Baker in two weeks.

MEETING OF AFTERNOON CLUB

Mrs. C. K. Champlin was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club, and three guests, at her home, Tuesday afternoon. The guests included the Mesdames Harry Staley, Dave Adams and W. Guy Brown.

As a result of the bridge games Mrs. Carl Smith received the high score prize and Mrs. Ed Boknecht won the second prize. The guest prize was presented to Mrs. Brown.

Following the games, the guests were invited to the dining room where a color note of pink was carried out in the appointments. Tall pink tapers and flowers of the same color formed the decorations for the table, and a delicious two course luncheon was served.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Brice Butler.

Chevalier Divorced

Paris, Jan. 18.—(U.P.)—A reciprocal divorce was granted by the first chamber of the civil tribunal today to Maurice Chevalier, screen comedian, and Yvonne Vallee, his former dancing partner.

The court based its decision on the fact that Mlle. Vallee is extremely jealous, while on the other hand, Chevalier deserted her and refused to live with her after his return here from Hollywood.

Hollywood was blamed by friends of the couple, once known as the "Love Birds" of the Paris stage, for the breaking up of their romance. They parted friends, with an amicable cash settlement arranged.

OLIVER STEWART TO SPEAK HERE

Mr. Stewart is a writer of unusual ability. As the editor of the National Enquirer, which paper he founded with former Governor J. Frank Hanly of Indiana, he has won recognition for the paper as one of the foremost reform journals of the nation.

Mr. Stewart is probably best known for his work on the platform. He has a remarkable sense of humor, a rare sanity, an utter lack of fanaticism, and a wide range of thought.

Within the last year he has been heard in hundreds of the most significant centers in the nation, touching every State in the Union.

DISAPPROVES BEER MEASURE

plurality, if the presidential contest had not been so uneven. The same is true of Fred Purnell, who was beaten by Mrs. Virginia Jenckes, a wet.

"There's going to be a great wave of resentment—you can depend on that. This resentment is going to be even greater in the dry communities, because they won't have an opportunity to protect themselves."

"There's no doubt in any thinking person's mind that the depression has brought on a seeming increase in wet sentiment. A lot of people are deluding themselves in the belief that the death of prohibition means the birth of employment. Claims that the return of liquor means four million jobs is too absurd for serious consideration. The employment that liquor gave in pre-prohibition days was far below that figure."

York said his organization and the Women's Christian Temperance Union are marshaling their forces for appearance before the public morals committee which probably will consider the beer bill Thursday.

Says Sales Tax Fair

Indianapolis, Jan. 18.—(U.P.)—General sales and service tax was described as just, fair and equalizing by Rep. John N. Dyer, Dem., Vincennes, addressing the Indianapolis Rotary Club yesterday.

Revenue sufficient to operate the entire state government could come from a reasonable sales tax, he averred.

He predicted that the legislature will not hamper education in the state but that it must act to reduce school costs by eliminating "frills."

Attorney Indicted

Warsaw, Ind., Jan. 18.—(U.P.)—Attorney Asa Leckrone, Warsaw, was under indictment by the Kosciusko grand jury today on charges of obstructing justice and influencing witnesses. Two counts in the indictment accuse him of interfering in the case of Frederick McKinley, Mentor, charged with a statutory offense.

Favors Granite

Washington, Jan. 18.—(U.P.)—Secretary of Treasury Mills favors the use of granite instead of limestone for construction of the new New York city Federal court house, Senator Austin, Repn., Vt., said today after a hearing at the treasury.

Postpone Tax Bills

Washington Jan. 18.—(U.P.)—Democratic members of the house ways and means committee agreed in secret session today to postpone all general tax legislation until the expected extra session of congress.

LOCALS

F. G. Eichenberger of Berne was a business visitor in this city today.

Word has been received from Chicago that Mrs. Oscar Hoffman, who has been seriously ill and underwent two severe operations, is greatly improved and on the way to recovery.

Fred Eichenberger of Berne was a business visitor here this morning.

A. R. Holthouse of this office is nursing a case of flu today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tolan of Fort Wayne visited here Tuesday afternoon.

Father J. J. Hennes has returned from a several days visit at Indianapolis. While there he attended a session of the legislature and called upon friends.

J. L. Ehler today moved his office into the K. of C. block, occupying the room just west of Teeple and Peterson. He is in charge of the auto license bureau and is agent for the New York Life Insurance Company.

John Wechter, county treasurer, for the past two weeks, is able to be up and expects to resume his duties as soon as the weather conditions improve.

Attorney John Edris of Bluffton, called at the clerk's office this morning and collected $1,170 for the school town of Berne, paid in by the trustee of Wabash township, as a result of the law suit heard in the Adams circuit court recently.

Ralph Roop and Chris Eicher, surveyor and road superintendent here, will go to Lafayette Monday to attend the annual road school. The law makes it mandatory that they attend these sessions.

J. P. Steiner of Bluffton was a visitor in Decatur yesterday. Harmon Kraft motored to Portland last night to attend a Kroeger's executive meeting.

Mrs. Fred Schafer had as her guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Weaver of Auburn, Mrs. Nettie Bortz of Leesburg, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schafer of Fort Wayne.

Miss Ella Mutschler, who has been visiting in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schroyer for the last month, left this morning for Florida where she will spend the winter.

HOUDINI'S MILK CAN ESCAPE

*It's FUN TO BE FOOLED

ILLUSION:
One of Houdini's most spectacular escape feats was performed with a huge milk can filled with water. He invited persons of the audience to bring padlocks and lock him into the can. He got into the can, the lid was put on and fastened with several padlocks. A screen was placed in front of the can. Assistants stood by with stop watches and fire axes to save him from drowning after a certain time. About a minute later, the screen was removed, Houdini was seen panting and dripping...the padlocks remaining intact!

EXPLANATION:
The usual method of escaping from a milk can is as follows: The lid of the can is apparently securely padlocked to the lower portion, but actually the metal band to which the staples are attached is the top of a short inner lining. The performer, after being locked into the can, pushes the lid upward with his head and the short inner lining is forced out of place, permitting his escape. The screen is then removed.

What exciting magic there is in cigarette advertising!
Let's look at one of its greatest illusions...that cigarettes can be mysteriously given superior "FLAVOR."

THE EXPLANATION: Just three factors control the flavor of a cigarette. The addition of artificial flavoring...the blending of various tobaccos...and the quality of the tobaccos themselves. Quality is the most important. Artificial flavoring can never wholly disguise the poor flavor of cheap tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is why the Camel flavor has never been rivaled...why Camels have given more pleasure to more people than any other cigarette ever made.

In more costly tobaccos lies the secret of Camels' delicate "bouquet"...of their rich, cool flavor...of their non-irritating mildness. It's the tobacco that counts.

All the natural goodness of Camel's tobacco is kept fresh and rich for you by the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack. Don't remove it. Its moisture-proof cellophane also protects your Camels from dust and germs. Put a pack in your pocket today.
