Of these new shades of red, Chanel is launching this spring something like a wine raspberry. There will be some new, including a new apple red which is so fresh looking you can't see you could eat it. All shades are grays and neutral. It will stand out too, as being smart this spring.

JURY INDICTS MUNCIE PASTOR

Sheriff Fred W. Puckett. Bond was fixed at $3,000 on the girl charge and $500 on the other count. An attempt was to be made this afternoon to raise the money.

Miss Huffman and her parents testified before the grand jury last week. The alleged assault was said to have taken place in an automobile on the edge of the Muncie city limits.

Charges preferred by the girl's parents forced the minister to stand trial recently before an ecclesiastical court conducted by Dr. Frank K. Dougherty, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The testimony was turned over to Bishop Edgar Blake of Detroit, who is considering the case. Meanwhile Rev. Conway was permitted to retain his pastorate.

POLICE ARREST MANY STRIKERS

Agitators At Briggs Factory Are Taken In Custody Today

De-roit, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Police held a score of agitators under arrest today and were continuing to single out and seize others as they sought to keep a crowd of 5,000 Briggs strikers peaceful and to allow workers to re-employ.

A man giving the name of K. D. Miceff and said by police to be the editor of a Bulgarian communist newspaper here, was arrested and hurried to police headquarters where immigration authorities were to check his papers. He claimed to have obtained citizenship papers at Lafayette, Ind., in 1927.

Meanwhile more than 700 of the old workers had passed through the employment offices.

Police squads conveyed the workers through a heckling, jostling crowd to the employment offices.

Five policemen were required to subdue one demonstrator, placed under arrest. He struggled violently but futilely. Other officers pushed back the crowd that crowded in booing the officers and shouting at them derisively.

Sixty-five state troopers, 85 Wayne county deputies and 75 Highland Park police formed a thin line that sought to protect workers who wished to return to their jobs. Mounted police rode up and down the line keeping the strikers on the move.

Leaders declare the majority of the strikers will not go back to work until the company gives them the right to appoint shop committees to treat with company executives on all grievances.

Unable to obtain bodies for his cars because of the strike, Henry

Ford awaited news of the crisis. Executives in Ford's Highland Park factory, adjoining the body company plant, kept the automobile manufacturer posted on all developments.

Ford conferred with officials of his organization last night, according to reports, to perfect plans to manufacture his own bodies, if the Briggs company is unable to resume operations before Wednesday.

The manufacturer also is considering another move to obtain bodies for his cars. He may decide to send his own workers into the Briggs plants. Ford owns the Briggs Highland Park plant and part of the dies and tools used by the body company.

Ford blames the strike on "certain competitors." The competitors fomented labor trouble at the body company, he charges, to prevent another Ford car from leaving the factory.

ROOSEVELT WILL NAME CHOICES FOR CABINET

He indicated that he did not expect the debt conference to proceed without important points of disagreement developing, but would not enlarge on that theme. He met references to London reports that Premier Ramsey MacDonald would head the British delegation to Washington by pointing out that the premier was a very busy man at home.

London, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald may discuss economic and financial questions and disarmament with President-elect Roosevelt at Warm Springs, Ga., late in February, at the invitation of the president-elect, the United Press learned today in unofficial but well informed quarters.

The invitation will be extended through Sir Ronald Lindsay,

British ambassador. The president-elect was said to feel that Anglo-American cooperation should be reaffirmed immediately to avoid possible economic warfare if the war debts question is not settled.

of their own. Then there is a radio party at which much of the news is broadcast.

The breath-taking excitement is interspersed with comedy provided by Wiggins and Angela, angel child of one of Paul Stevens' guests. Dorothy Miller plays the part of Angela. Patricia Mullenkamp as Miss Lavina, who portrays lost youth but undying hope makes the observer simply rock with laughter at her frantic efforts to land the professor, a poor but enthusiastic nibbler on the matrimonial hook manipulated by Miss Lavina. Herman Knapke acts as the professor. John Carroll plays the part of Thornton Hathaway, owner of the "Speed King," and Herbert Foss acts as the radio announcer. Bobby's friends invited for the radio party are John Kohne, Robert Cook, Mary Wolpert, Robert Wolpert and Mary Margaret Kellner.

No Time Extension

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—(UP)—No extension of the time limit for use of 1932 license plates had been made today by state officials.

James W. Carpenter, license commissioner, said he was to confer with Frank May Jr., Secretary of State, later in the day.

By state law Feb. 1 is the last day for legal use of last year's plates but the date usually has been extended in past years. Only 40 per cent of the 1933 plates have been sold.

"I am so happy—the last pimple is gone"

—because pimples tend to thrive when normal resistance is lacking, your first thought should be to build up your blood structure... the way to do this is by increasing the red blood-cells and their hemoglobin content... this will permit a greater oxygen intake—from the lungs—into the blood and tissues—including the skin... nourishment will be better converted into energy and tissue repair... body cells, which fight against micro-organisms (pimple germs) will be strengthened.

Then why not try S.S.S.—the proven tonic for decades? Proved effective by extensive scientific research and by millions of happy users. You, too, may have a clear skin. Get S.S.S. at any drug store. The big 20 oz. size is more economical and is good for a two weeks' treatment.

ILLUSION:
In this startling trick, the magician seemingly pushes a huge threaded needle through the body of an assistant, pulling the needle out the other side, followed by the thread.

EXPLANATION:
Under the clothes of the victim is a pipe, extending around one side of his body from front to back. The needle, which is flexible, is inserted in the front end of the pipe, is carried around the body and emerges from the pipe in back. This operation is performed so quickly that the audience does not notice that the needle and thread are momentarily shortened during the act.

CAMELS

It's fun to be fooled — ...it's more fun to KNOW

We like tricks...but we prefer to keep them out of business.

Here's one that's interesting...The illusion that by some obscure magic certain cigarettes are "COOLER" than others.

THE EXPLANATION: Coolness is determined by the speed of burning. Fresh cigarettes burn slowly. They're cool. Parched, dry cigarettes burn fast. They're hot.

Camels are carefully wrapped in moisture-proof cellophane...in the famous, air-tight Humidor Pack. Camels are cool because they're fresh.

A cigarette blended from choice non-irritating tobaccos also gives a cooler effect than one that is harsh and acrid. The finer the tobacco the less irritating it is, and therefore the "cooler."

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is why Camels are cool and mild, non-irritating—full of flavor. This is why Camels have given more pleasure to more people than any other cigarette ever made. It's the tobacco that counts.

Keep the famous welded Humidor Pack on your Camels. It assures you a fresh, cool smoke.

BEHIND the SCENES in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL.
HOLLYWOOD. —"Nine o'clock on the set! That means get-up at 6:30!"

Famously dismayed, Peggy Hopkins Joyce yesterday discussed with me the hours she must keep as a talking picture star for the Paramount studio.

The scene of our talk was dressing-room 116 (Marlene Dietrich and Maurice Chevalier are just down the way). The time was 2 P. M. I perched on a stool while Peggy sat before a dressing-table and allowed a studio hair-dresser to arrange her blonde locks. They were damp at the moment. As she slipped a black net over them she adjusted the turban-like hair-tyer, Peggy smiled.

"You are the first man," she said, "who ever saw me getting my hair done."

Just then the dryer started. To the tune of its steady hum (we sometimes had to shout), the interview continued.

"In New York," exclaimed Peggy, "I sleep till 11 o'clock. Why, it takes me half an hour to get my eyes open. I don't see how they expect anyone to look their best so early in the morning."

"How about night life? Parties?"

"How can I?" answered Peggy. "I have to have 8 or 9 hours' sleep. Here I'm even sleeping. There'll be no time for me to entertain or go out much, anyway. I don't see how they expect me to look my best. This is my first, you know, and I'm nervous."

"What do you think of Hollywood?"

"Don't know. Haven't met any of the big stars. I know, Sidney Barker and a few others I already knew. But I'd like to meet more."

"When will you get around to it?"

"You tell me!" she exclaimed. "A few minutes later, as I left, George Raft came up and knocked on the door."

A group of us were having lunch at R-R-O when a certain writer came in with a girl. Jack Townley said: "That fellow is so crazy about Katharine Hepburn that he even has lunch with her double."

HOLLYWOOD PARADE.
If you can believe Ann Harding, she did not see Harry Bannister, did not even attend his play while she was in the east... Ran into Marlene Dietrich yesterday at Paramount. She wants me to say she is not trying to set a style with her trousers. "I want to wear them myself, not to get other women to," she exclaimed. It's a good deal easier to talk to the German star these days. She is less distrustful, and more friendly. And she seems very pleased about starting her picture on Monday.

If Hoot Gibson can get away, he and Sally Eilers will take a trip to Havana after her new picture is finished. The canal trip is constantly gaining in popularity with the film folks. And they all are keen about the stopover in Cuba... Janet Gaynor, who has been voyaging in the other direction, will return from Honolulu February 6 to start "Adorable"... Aline Carroll and Andy Devine are still seeing the sights together. They were at the fights the other evening.

Very funny to see Sylvia Sydney lunching at Paramount in a flannel nightgown... Now it's to be Patricia Ellis instead of Kay Francis in "Narrow Corner."

Most of the orchestra leaders in town dropped in late at the Club Balmy to pay honor to Ted Fiorito—Phil Harris, from the Coconut Grove; Gus Arnheim, from the Beverly Wilshire; Harold Grayson, from the Roosevelt; Nacio Herb Brown, Con Conrad and several other composers also attended.

And you should hear Bert Wheeler tell his new baby story. Between Sammy Walsh (formerly of Chicago), Wheeler, Lew Cody, Robert Woolsey, John P. Medbury and the rest it was an evening not to miss. Ginger Rogers, Mervyn Leroy, Florine McKenney and Nat Goldstone stopped in for a while. Ginger is going into Merv's new picture, "Gold-Diggers of 1933." He didn't know it though until Darryl Zanuck told him.
