PROGRAM GIVEN AT CLASS MEETING

The Ever Ready class of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. W. H. Leatherman. Thirty members of the class attended the meeting.

Mrs. Delton Passwater had charge of the devotional services and following the regular routine of business a program was given.

Margaret Hancher gave a reading and the "Story of St. Patrick's Day" was told by Mrs. N. A. Bixler. Zula Porter gave a reading. A group of Irish songs was sung by Mrs. Dan Tyndall.

The hostesses for the meeting were the Mesdames Ervin Elzey, C. L. Walters, Art Krugh and Jessie Burdge.

LESSON STUDY GIVEN AT MISSIONARY MEETING

The members of the Christian Christian Missionary Society met with Mrs. Sol Lord, Thursday evening. Mrs. C. L. August was the leader for the meeting.

Mrs. A. D. Artman had charge of the business session and read a portion of the Scriptures followed with prayer by Rev. C. R. Lanman. Plans were made to serve a sunrise breakfast following the early morning services on Easter. The committee which will have charge of the arrangements will include the Mesdames A. D. Artman, C. L. August and Dorphus Drum and Miss Margaret Daniels.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. August who had the lesson study. Robert Lord played the piano selection, Gertrude's Dream Waltz, after which devotional services and singing was held. Mrs. Artman offered prayer. The topic for the lesson was "Ministry through Our Hospitals."

Mrs. Manley Foreman told about "How a Life Was Saved" and Mrs. Sol Lord gave the reading, "Help for the World's Physical Needs." "Tuberculosis of the Bone and Bone Graft" was read by Mrs. Drum and "Diabetes" by Mrs. Henry Leichtensteiger. Other topics were "Trachoma" by Mrs. A. D. Artman; "Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever and Tonsillectomy" by Mrs. Fred King; "Blood Transfusion" by Miss Margaret Daniels; "Hospitals and Work in China" by Miss Grace Leichtensteiger. Miss Leichtensteiger also read an article from the book, "Lady Fourth Daughter of China."

Mrs. Floyd Enos and her sister, Julia Passwater sang "Far and Near the Fields are Teeming." Rev. Lanman closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Lord served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

The Mission Band of the Zion Reformed Church will meet in the church parlors, Saturday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.

BEULAH CHAPEL GIRL'S GUILD MEETS

The Girl's Guild of the Beulah Chapel church met at the home of Miss Susan Bresick Tuesday evening. A short business meeting was held after which the evening was spent in playing games.

A delicious one course luncheon was served by the hostess and Mrs. Ralph Bresick.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. William Ehrman, Velma Spade, Frances Schickman, Verea Heller, Jean Houck, Doris Johnson, Elizabeth Fuhrman, Susan Bresick and Mrs. Ralph Bresick.

The Tri Kappa sorority will meet at the home of Miss Helen Haubold Tuesday night at eight o'clock for a musical program.

REGULAR MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Thirty-four members and four children attended the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church held in the church parlors, Thursday afternoon.

The meeting was opened with congregational singing and Mrs.

Earl Fuhrman had charge of the devotional services with Mrs. Will Manley offering prayer.

Mrs. Harry Coffelt was chairman of the section in charge of the meeting. The lesson topic was given by Mrs. Paul Spiller.

During the business session plans were made for the Stewardship reading contest which will climax at the end of the month with a play. Rev. Sundermann gave the closing prayer.

EVELYN MILLER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Harry S. Miller entertained with a party, Thursday evening, honoring her daughter, Miss Evelyn Miller on her birthday anniversary. Games of bingo, hearts and jig saw puzzles were enjoyed. At the close of the evening Mrs. Miller served a delicious luncheon. Miss Miller was presented a number of beautiful birthday gifts.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miller and son Harold of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellsworth and daughter Viola, Mrs. Charles McIntosh, Miss Miller, George Yaney, Jesse Bayman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Miller and the honored guest, Miss Miller.

INTERESTING MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church held its last meeting of the present church year, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Dugan.

An unusually large number of members were present. Reports of the year's work were given by the secretary and treasurer of the organization, Mrs. John Schug and Mrs. Roscoe Glendinning. Mrs. James Elberson outlined plans for the future.

Mrs. Earl Adams, the president, read several communications to the society and finished the business of the year. She thanked the members for their cooperation and kindness during the past year.

Mrs. M. A. Frisinger led in the devotionals and added to the interest by giving out appropriate verses of Scripture for the members.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. C. C. Pumphrey, chairman of the program committee. An unusually interesting study was held, the subject being Japan, a country now in the limelight of the world.

The subject was divided into two parts, the history of Japan and the Presbyterian church's part in the mission work, and a first hand view of the life in Japan as it is at the present date. This was contributed by Mr. Roberts, a missionary to Japan.

The customs of the Japanese, such as a description of a ceremonial practice by the Japanese at the present time were told.

Four sub topics were given as follows: a description of a Japanese wedding, a Doll's Festival, Japanese Boy's Day, and a Description of a Japanese Ladies Afternoon. These topics were given by the Mesdames J. L. Kocher, James Elberson, Roscoe Glendinning, and M. A. Frisinger.

A quartette composed of Mrs. Will Schrock, Mrs. E. D. Engeler, Miss Margaret Campbell and Miss Katheryn Engeler sang Japanese music, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carrie T. Haubold. Miss Engeler sang a Japanese solo which was much appreciated, and little Miss Catherine Knapp gave a clever reading. The meeting was closed with the Mizpah benediction and refreshments were served.

The committee for the afternoon included the Mesdames C. C. Pumphrey, Cal Kunkel, John Houk and Charles Dugan. A visitor for the afternoon was Mrs. Charles Roberts.

The collection amounted to seventeen dollars with all bills for the year settled.
