Rev. Conway's Defense Presents Three Alibi Witnesses Today

Muncie Ind., March 31.—(U.P.)—Three alibi witnesses were presented by the defense today in an effort to show that G. Lemuel Conway, suspended minister, was not guilty of attempting to attack Miss Helen Huffman, 18 year old teacher in his Sunday School.

They testified that he was in the Williams plumbing shop planning a hunting trip on the afternoon of the alleged attack.

Miss Huffman had testified that Conway offered her a ride about 2:30 p. m. December 29; that he drove her to a country road near DeSofo and attempted to attack her. She said they returned to Muncie about 4 p. m.

But the defense witnesses, J. Edgar Newbold, William Hildewey and Joseph Sullivan, all testified that Conway was in the plumbing shop from 2 to 4 p. m. December 29.

The deposed Methodist minister displayed greater interest in the witnesses and seemed pleased with their replies to the questions of Robert

It was said at the highway offices today that a detailed announcement of the cut would be made in a few days.

Adams and two other commissioners, John W. Wheeler and Evan B. Stotsenberg, toured highways in the Calumet district yesterday. East Chicago civic leaders urged construction of a $1,000,000 viaduct on Forsyth Avenue to complete U. S. 41 through Lake county,
