DECATUR COUPLE MARRIED SATURDAY

Mrs. Helen Scott and Charles Weber of this city were married at the parsonage of the St. Joseph Church Saturday evening at five o'clock. Rev. Father Joseph Hnnes received the marriage vows.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Anna Maples of Huntington. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Maples of Huntington, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Mary Lenwell, a niece, and Leo Ehinger of Decatur.

Mrs. Weber wore a white gown fashioned with simple lines, ankle length. She wore white accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Maples wore a yellow eyelet dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and baby's breath. Miss Lenwell wore a peach colored georgette frock with black accessories. She also wore a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and baby's breath.

A reception was held after the wedding at the Maples home in Huntington for fifty five friends and relatives. The entertaining rooms were decorated with large white bells and pink and green crepe paper. The tables were centered with roses and miniature brides and grooms.

During the evening's entertainment, Miss Jewel Dohy of Huntington sang "Sweethearts Forever" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Paul Scheer accompanied her at the piano and also played several piano selections.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Chicago after which they will be at home to their friends at 221 North Fourth street, Decatur.

Mr. Weber is employed at the General Electric plant in this city. Guests from Decatur who attended the reception were Miss Lenwell, Mr. Ehinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gladfelter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyers and Miss Jerry Diehl.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia will hold the regular monthly meeting at the Knights of Columbus Hall Tuesday evening at seven thirty o'clock.

The Salem Ladies Aid Society will meet Wednesday afternoon at one thirty o'clock with Mrs. Robert Davies.

The Ever Ready class of the Methodist Sunday School will meet Thursday night at seven-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hower. The hostesses will be the Mesdames Delton Passwater, Harve Kitzon R. A. Stuckey and Stoup. The party will be in the form of a masquerade party and every member is urged to be present and to come masked.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

The Sheath Frock Returns for Fall

The beltless silhouette is back again—but not in the straight, shapeless frocks of post-war days. Princess lines are the rule—slim and tubular, with low-placed fullness smartest in pleats.

What's the logical fabric for these beautifully molded lines? Black satin, of course. The shiniest satins are the newest, and if they are reversible with a suede-dull surface or a tiny faille rib on the other side, they offer many possibilities for interesting effects. Notice the flattering ripple collar in white—the smartest foil for black today. Notice the sleeves, too, very full and gathered to long tight-fitting cuffs.

Let this be your first fall frock. It's Easy-to-Make! Size 16 requires 4 1/4 yards 39-inch fabric, 1/4 yard 39-inch contrasting for collar. Width about 2 1/4 yards. Our new Fall Fashion Book, just out, will tell you what's new in fashions, fabrics and colors. Why not send for it?

Pattern No. 5287 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 bust.

The groom is employed at the Dunbar Furniture Company in Berne and Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer will make their home with the bride's parents.

Large Crowd Hears 'My Old Kentucky Home'

The First Methodist church was literally packed with people last evening to hear Rev. C. P. Gibbs give his lecture, "My Old Kentucky Home." People began to arrive at six-thirty o'clock and by seven o'clock the church was full.

Chairs were brought in and placed in every available place. Over six hundred were present. Automobiles were parked in every direction for blocks. Many were present from all parts of the county.

The service began with the great chorus choir under the direction of Mr. W. F. Beery, singing a special number, Rev. Charles M. Prugh, pastor of Zion Reformed church led in the evening prayer. A men's chorus sang "My Old Kentucky Home."

The climax of the service was the masterful and thrilling address by Rev. C. P. Gibbs. From the first word to the close he carried the great audience to high peaks of interest. All in all it was a great service and one never to be forgotten.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Gibbs will give another great sermon on "The Source of Our Greatness." Those who have heard it say it is better than "My Old Kentucky Home." A great audience is expected next Sunday evening.

Electric Bulb 25 Years Old HUMBOLDT, Ia. (UP)—An electric light bulb placed in the dining room of the home of Mrs. J. H. Savage 25 years ago still is in use. Mrs. Savage stated the bulb is just as efficient as the day it was installed.

GENERAL RULES ARE ANNOUNCED

Rules For Suckling Colt Show At Berne Are Announced

General rules for the suckling colt show, which will be held in connection with the annual fall festival at Berne Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14, were announced this morning by county agent L. E. Archbold.

All purebred stud colts must be in place by 8:30 A. M. October 14. All purebred fillies must be in place by 9 a. m. October 14. (All grade colts must be in place by 10 a. m. October 14.)

Colts weaned and within five miles of Berne should be in place Friday morning October 13. Stallion owners whose sire has got in the show may exhibit the colt's stallion on October 14 and should have his animal on the grounds by noon.

Adams county draft colt, fouled after January 1, 1933, is eligible for the show. Fifty cents entry fee will be charged for colt owner who is not a member of the Adams county gold medal colt club. No charge will be made for entries by members. Most of the stalls are reserved.

Denies Hoover To Be College President

Palo Alto, Calif., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, denied vehemently today a report originating with a New York columnist that former President Herbert Hoover would succeed him as president of Leland Stanford University here.

"There is absolutely nothing in it," Dr. Wilbur declared.

Dr. Wilbur was secretary of interior in the Hoover cabinet and counts the ex-president as a neighbor and personal friend of long standing. "I have no intention of resigning and I can assure you that Mr. Hoover has no designs on my position," President Wilbur said, laughing.

Mr. Hoover was to return to his campus home today from Chicago where he attended a Century of Progress.

U. S. Supreme Court In Session Today

Washington, Oct. 2.—(UP)—The supreme court met at noon today in its austere chamber in the capital to begin its 1933 term which may, as a result of recovery and emergency legislation, become one of the most momentous in its history.

Kelly And Bates Plead Not Guilty

Oklahoma City Oct. 2.—(UP)—George (Machine gun) Kelly and Albert Bates pleaded not guilty today when arraigned on death penalty state charges of armed robbery arising out of the sensational $200,000 Urschel kidnapping.

Middle Point, Ohio, Bank Robbed Of $800

Middle Point, Ohio, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Two men, armed with sawed-off shotguns, held up and robbed the Middle Point Banking Company here this afternoon, escaping in an automobile with $800.

A larger amount of cash probably would have been taken had it not been for time locks on the vault. The loot was scooped from the counter.

Ernest Scott, cashier; Edith Ringwald, bookkeeper, and Gerald Huysman, a customer, were forced to lie on the floor at the point of guns while the bandits rifled the cashier's cage.

Governor Sold Fair tickets

Salem Ore., —(UP)—Governor's Day at the Oregon State Fair this year was such a success that Governor Julius L. Meier had to be drafted in to sell tickets, so great was the crowd. He presided at one of the gates near the grandstand, where the afternoon's race meeting was to be held.

Tax Expert Dies Of Blood Poisoning

Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—(UP)—Willis C. Nusbaum, 59, expert tax law attorney and former special counsel for the state tax board, died yesterday of blood poisoning which developed from a foot infection a week ago.

He was born in Middlebury, Elkhart county. Survivors besides the widow and three sons include two brothers, Otis, Fort Wayne, and Winfield, Monticello.

Nusbaum wrote many of the state's tax laws during the last decade.

Three Men Drown At Madison Sunday

Madison, Ind., Oct. 2.—(UP)—Three members of a fishing party drowned Sunday afternoon in the Ohio River. Survivors said their motor boat was capsized by the wash from a steamer.

The dead are Harry Spall, 35; and George Posey, 23, both of Indianapolis, and Edward Lanham, 69, Brookburg. Four other occupants of the boat swam to shore and safety.

Lanham nearly reached shore but became exhausted a few feet from safety.

Drum Corps at Convention

Seattle—(UP)—Four-times champions of the Pacific Northwest, Seattle Post No. 1, crack American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, will go to the Legion national convention at Chicago, Oct. 2-5, on funds raised by popular subscription.

Beware the Cough or Cold that Hangs On

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

BEHIND THE SCENES in HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL

HOLLYWOOD, —No matter what they say, Mae West won't believe that Marlene Dietrich ever denied being heard of at the What with Ma-La-Na dening it herself a long telegram to Josef Sternberg books as if a respective feud going to die before it got started.

The Dietrich episode upset Mae West far more than the death of her pet monkey, "Boo-Boo." Here's what Mae tells me:

"Miss Dietrich would never have said that, because we've been good friends. When my picture, 'She Done Him Wrong,' made such a hit at the box office she came over and congratulated me."

"The same thing happened in New York when I took Lenore Urie's public away from her. She was a good sport, too."

"Miss Dietrich knows she has had the public for a few years and that my sort of work is kind of topping hers at the box office. She's going to be sporting about it."

And then, with a touch of Diamond Lil's fire, Mae added: "If I thought anyone really would do a thing like that, why I'd ruin the game in 10 minutes."

The Dietrich explanation of what happened is something different from New York reports. A horde of newspapermen were questioning her, she wires, and one of them asked if her new patou wardrobe shows any influence of the Mae West styles. Her negative answer to this query, she maintains, was misconstrued into the statement that she had never heard of Hollywood's brightest new star.

For a sense of humor, Katherine Albert ranks high among the fan magazine writers. She would top the chronic alarmists by doing a story:

"Is Baby Leroy Through?" Will hard luck never cease? In addition to Marjorie King, George Raft's girl friend, getting a black eye in that taxi accident, Mack Gray, George's trainer, has a face all swollen up from wind burn.

QUICK GLIMPSES:

A compassionate studio has allowed Bill Cagney several days off for a honeymoon. He and Boots Mallory immediately left for Big Bear Lake. . . . Toby Wing swears the star sapphire that Elbert Franklin brought her from the East is only a good luck ring. . . . For all those stories of temperament, Anna Sten drives her own car, a small coupe of popular make. . . . James Cagney is learning jiu-jitsu, so heaven help his next leading woman. . . . Now that Samuel Goldwyn is going to make "The Wizard of Oz," he'll have to figure out a way to make monkeys fly and trees fight on the screen. What a run of fairy tales "Three Little Pigs" is starting. . . . Richard Dix tried to get up too soon and is back in bed again with a temperature.

Just as soon as he's well enough, he'll leave for that deer hunt in the Colorado Rockies. . . . And if you know Wynne Gibson well enough, maybe she'll tell you where she hooked herself on that fishing trip.

Jangled nerves can make life miserable for those about you

These are trying times. No wonder nerves give way under the strain.

And a nervous man is frequently not responsible for the things he says.

But responsible or not, his bitter, sharp words can cruelly wound those around him—and cause scars which will never entirely heal, no matter how sorry he may be afterward.

Watch your nerves. Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

CAMELS—THEY NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES!
