

SPORTS

DECATUR AND GARRETT TEAM PLAY 6-6 TIE

Yellow Jackets And Railroaders Play to Tie Here Saturday

The Decatur Yellow Jackets battled the strong Garrett team to a 6 to 6 tie in a hard fought game Saturday afternoon. With a change in the local line-up the Decatur team displayed their best football playing of this season.

The Garrett team was much heavier than the Yellow Jackets but was unable to gain much territory through the local line. Decatur made a total of 116 yards through the line to Garrett's total of 62 yards.

Garrett started the first quarter of the game with a rush of end runs led by Flake. They gained almost 40 yards of territory before the Yellow Jackets stopped the attack. The locals then started an attack which took them to the Garrett 40 yard line. A pass from Strickler to Eady made a gain of 25 yards just before the quarter ended.

With the goal line just 15 yards away, Decatur plowed through the Garrett line for a touchdown, Eady carrying the ball. Ehinger was sent into the game for Blythe, but failed to score the point after on a place kick.

In this same period, Baker, Decatur left tackle, blocked a Garrett punt. Dickerson recovered the ball on the visitor's 35 yard line. A pass from Strickler to Ehinger put the locals on the 19 yard line. The Yellow Jackets then lost possession of the ball when a pass fell incomplete over the goal line.

Early in the third quarter the visitors made their only score. A pass from Moats to E. Johnson made a thirty-two yard gain and a touchdown. They failed to make the point after on a line plunge. The rest of the quarter consisted of an exchange of punts, neither team threatening to score.

The final period was hard fought by both teams. A number of passes were attempted but none completed. Cleland of Garrett intercept- ed a pass on the Decatur 15 yard line just as the game ended.

Next Friday the Yellow Jackets will go to Fort Wayne where they are to play the Decatur team displayed their best football playing of this season.

Lineup and summary:

Decatur Garrett

Schultz RE Cleland

Sanders RT A. Johnson

Conrad RG Combs

Hurst C Bomar

Schissman LG Frygang

Parker LT Traster

Dickerson LE E. Johnson

Strickler QB Moats

Eady LH Doster

Blythe RH Flake

Butler FB T. Johnson

Substitutions: Decatur—Ehinger, Garrett—Diehl, Corkwell.

Touchdowns: Decatur — Eady, Garrett — E. Johnson.

Score by quarters:

Decatur 0 6 0 6

Garrett 0 0 6 0—6

Officials: Gilbert, Craney and Jasper.

—0—

Leading Batters

Player Club G AB R H Pct.

Klein, Phillies 152 606 101 223 .368

Foxx, Athletics 149 573 125 204 .356

Davis, Phillies 141 496 51 173 .349

Manush, Sen. 153 658 116 220 .334

Gehrige, Yankees 152 593 140 198 .334

HUBBELL WILL PITCH OPENER

Bill Terry Names Ace Left-Hander to Hurl Opening Game

New York, Oct. 2.—(UPI)—Bill Terry's definite announcement that he would start his ace pitcher, Carl Hubbell, in the opening game, failed to budge the world series betting odds today which made Washington Senators 10 to 7 favorites over the New York Giants.

Even Terry's implication that he might call upon the lean Oklahoma screw ball star as many as three times failed to shake the faith of the odd-makers. The Giants were 10 to 7 favorites to capture the opening game at the Polo grounds tomorrow, indicating the awe in which baseball's current greatest pitcher is held.

Washington has a fighting team, but the power and drive that brought the Giants, a club almost universally tagged for the second division, into the National league championship, seem to this writer to be enough to push them safely through the series.

Today's one major development in the world series situation was the start of single-game tickets. Anybody with $5.50 wanting a reserved grandstand seat may get a coupon for the first or second game.

This is important to the club which needs world series cash if season financial figures are to be written in black ink, and just as important to the players who "cut in" on the receipts of the first four games.

While the players were going through their final huddles and brief workouts, baseball fandom began in earnest to discuss series possibilities. And for all the fact the Senators were favorites, there were plenty of Giant enthusiasts. One of the least of these is the writer who is not only willing but anxious to climb way out on a limb and predict a New York victory in a seven-game series.

It's perfectly true that Washington is supposed to have a better infield, three votes to one, and a better outfield, 2 to 1. It's true that Washington's batting averages clearly outrank those of the New Yorkers. Offsetting these advantages is the fact that New York's pitching, solely because of Hubbell's superiority over Crowder, Whitehill or any of the other Washington flingers. But for a well-rounded club, Washington seems to be it.

STANDINGS

FINAL STANDINGS

American League

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| Washington | 99 | 53 | .651 |
| New York | 91 | 59 | .607 |
| Philadelphia | 79 | 72 | .523 |
| Cleveland | 75 | 76 | .597 |
| Detroit | 75 | 79 | .487 |
| Chicago | 67 | 83 | .447 |
| Boston | 63 | 86 | .423 |
| St. Louis | 55 | 96 | .364 |

National League

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| New York | 91 | 61 | .599 |
| Pittsburgh | 87 | 67 | .565 |
| Chicago | 86 | 68 | .558 |
| Boston | 83 | 71 | .539 |
| St. Louis | 82 | 71 | .538 |
| Brooklyn | 65 | 88 | .425 |
| Philadelphia | 60 | 92 | .395 |
| Cincinnati | 58 | 94 | .382 |

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

| American League | | | |
|----------------------------------|--|--|--|
| Detroit, 5; Cleveland, 3. | | | |
| Philadelphia, 3; Washington, 0 | | | |
| (eleven innings). | | | |
| New York, 6; Boston, 5. | | | |
| Chicago, 5; St. Louis, 1. | | | |
| National League | | | |
| Pittsburgh, 7-6; Cincinnati, 5-5 | | | |
| (second game ten innings). | | | |
| Brooklyn, 5; New York, 2. | | | |
| Chicago, 7; St. Louis, 1. | | | |
| Boston, 4; Philadelphia, 1. | | | |

Facts Of The Game

First Downs

Decatur, 9; Garrett, 7.

Completed Passes

Decatur, 3; Garrett, 1.

Incompleted Passes

Decatur, 5; Garrett, 9.

Fumbles

Decatur, 0; Garrett, 2.

Penalties

Decatur, 3; Garrett, 5.

Yardage

Decatur, 188; Garrett, 193.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Iowa, 7; Northwestern, 0.

Indiana, 7; Miami, 0.

Illinois, 13; Drake, 6.

Minneapolis, 19; South Dakota

State, 6.

Evansville, 16; Franklin, 0.

Pittsburgh, 9; W. & J. 0.

Danville Normal, 13; Earlham, 7.

High School Football

Central, 21; Central Catholic, 13.

South Side, 6; Mishawaka, 6.

World Series Managers Meet

Bill Terry Names Ace Left-Hander to Hurl Opening Game

New York, Oct. 2.—(UPI)—Bill Terry's definite announcement that he would start his ace pitcher, Carl Hubbell, in the opening game, failed to budge the world series betting odds today which made Washington Senators 10 to 7 favorites over the New York Giants.

Even Terry's implication that he might call upon the lean Oklahoma screw ball star as many as three times failed to shake the faith of the odd-makers. The Giants were 10 to 7 favorites to capture the opening game at the Polo grounds tomorrow, indicating the awe in which baseball's current greatest pitcher is held.

Washington has a fighting team, but the power and drive that brought the Giants, a club almost universally tagged for the second division, into the National league championship, seem to this writer to be enough to push them safely through the series.

Today's one major development in the world series situation was the start of single-game tickets. Anybody with $5.50 wanting a reserved grandstand seat may get a coupon for the first or second game.

This is important to the club which needs world series cash if season financial figures are to be written in black ink, and just as important to the players who "cut in" on the receipts of the first four games.

While the players were going through their final huddles and brief workouts, baseball fandom began in earnest to discuss series possibilities. And for all the fact the Senators were favorites, there were plenty of Giant enthusiasts. One of the least of these is the writer who is not only willing but anxious to climb way out on a limb and predict a New York victory in a seven-game series.

It's perfectly true that Washington is supposed to have a better infield, three votes to one, and a better outfield, 2 to 1. It's true that Washington's batting averages clearly outrank those of the New Yorkers. Offsetting these advantages is the fact that New York's pitching, solely because of Hubbell's superiority over Crowder, Whitehill or any of the other Washington flingers. But for a well-rounded club, Washington seems to be it.

YOUNG FIGHTER BADLY INJURED

Young Stribling Loses Left Foot In Accident Sunday Night

Macon, Ga., Oct. 2.—(UPI)—W. L. Young, 16, of Macon, Ga., lost his left foot in a motor accident, was in a serious condition.

The heavyweight's left foot was cut off by the fender of an automobile that sideswiped the motorcycle upon which he was riding last night. His entire left leg was crushed and his pelvic bone was shattered.

Stribling remained conscious. A few hours after an emergency operation at a hospital, he chatted cheerfully with his wife.

Stribling showed improvement today and hospital authorities reported his general condition "better." He spent a fairly good night, it was said.

Stribling started winning ring fame as a Georgia high school boy of 16. He was nearly 29 years old when yesterday's accident ended his career. He reached his peak two years ago when he fought the then world's heavyweight champion, Max Schmeling, and lost in the 15th round on a technical knockout.

Stribling's splendid physical condition and quick first aid by a trained nurse who happened to be passing by the scene of the wreck are believed to have saved his life.

Stribling was returning from the Idle Hour Golf Club. An automobile driven by R. V. Johnson swerved to avoid hitting another machine and swerved into Stribling's motorcycle.

Miss Frances Jones and Roy Barrow rode by in another automobile. Miss Jones, a trained nurse, wore a georgette shawl and made it into a tourniquet to bind Stribling's leg. She said Stribling calmly asked if his foot was cut off entirely. She told him it was hanging by just a few shreds of skin.

Stribling turned to Barrow, a friend, and said, "Well, kid, I guess this means no more road work."

The Striblings agreed that the accident was unavoidable and no charges were preferred against Johnson. He offered to give his blood should a transfusion be needed for Stribling.

Skipper Had Same Name

Fall River, Mass.—(UPI)—The skippers of the twin tankers here, W. Allen and Justine C. Allen, which docked here recently had the same surnames, though not related. Captain George A. Carter, R. N., Carter skippered the size they will be used in these ponds and attended by members of the Kendallville Conservation Club.

When the fish reach a sufficient size they