Kansas Town Seeks Beaus Alma, Kan.—(UP)—This town perhaps will go into the importing business—importing of eligible marrying men. City officials are considering offering inducements to outside boys, since all the local boys went out of circulation with the marriage, a few weeks ago, of Harold Schmitz and LeRoy Noller. A number of pretty maids are waiting for a beau.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS Notice is hereby given that Monday, November 6, 1933 will be the last day to pay your Fall installment of taxes. The county treasurer's office will be open from 8 A. M. to 4 P. M. during the tax paying season. All taxes not paid by that time will become delinquent and a 2% penalty will be added. Also interest at the rate of 8% will be charged from the date of delinquency until paid. Those who have bought or sold property and wish a division of taxes are asked to come in at once. Call on the Auditor for errors and any reductions. The Treasurer can make no corrections.

The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty of delinquent taxes resulting from the omission of taxpayers to state definitely on what property they desire to pay, in whose name it may be found, in what township or corporation it is situated.

Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once, the law is such that there is no option left for the Treasurer but enforce the collection of delinquent taxes.

The annual sale of delinquent lands and lots will take place on the second Monday in February 1934 at 10:00 A. M.

County orders will not be paid to anyone owing delinquent taxes. All persons are warned against them.

No receipts or checks will be held after expiration of time, as the new depository law requires the Treasurer to make daily deposit.

Particular attention: if you pay taxes in more than one township mention the fact to the Treasurer, so that your receipts call for all your real estate and personal property.

In making inquiries of the Treasurer regarding taxes to insure reply do not fail to include return postage.

JOHN WECHTER, Treasurer Adams County, Indiana Oct. 12 to Nov. 6

COL. LINDBERGH LANDS AT PARIS

ever any claim to private citizenship.

It was ascertained that Lindbergh, who carried letters of introduction on his first visit, wished he needed them today.

After the first look out of his room windows, he did not look again. Charge d'Affaires Theodore Marriner, of the American embassy, was his first visitor. Marriner had to use persuasion to get Lindbergh's consent to see French newspaper men—who were angry at his residence.

But, he said, he would not answer questions, would not divulge his plans and would not explain his itinerary on his aerial tour.

At 10:40 a. m. Lindbergh left the Crillon for the usual unannounced destination with Pierre Cot, youthful and spectacular air minister, who recently became a licensed airplane pilot.

Lindbergh's fight against being lionized was to be a hard one. The war ministry announced it would ask him to agree to a program of entertainment, he to decide on its extent.
