EASTERN STARS HONOR J. E. ANDERSON

Forty members of the Eastern stars surprised the J. E. Anderson family Monday evening, when they arrived at the Anderson home, south of the city, to spend a social evening.

The organization presented Mr. Anderson a past patrons pin. The evening was spent in a social manner and refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served.

The Anderson family will leave Friday for Kokomo where they will make their home.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SURPRISES MEMBERS

Several members of the Christian Church motored to the J. E. Anderson home, south of the city, Sunday evening and pleasantly surprised them.

A pot-luck supper was served at six-thirty o'clock after which a social time was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are leaving Friday for Kokomo where Mr. Anderson has accepted a position as manager of a large dairy farm.

"COLONIAL GARDENS" TOPIC OF RESEARCH CLUB

The members of the Research Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eugene Runyon, and Mrs. Runyon was also the leader for the afternoon. Her subject was "Colonial Gardens."

She told of the colonial gardens and landscaping in the time of George Washington and pointed out how different they were in comparison to the modern ones. She also told in detail of the garden at Mt. Vernon which Washington supervised himself.

The United States government has a parkway from Washington to Mount Vernon. Mrs. Runyon described Virginia and Pennsylvania gardens and showed the difference in construction and design. She also discussed parks.

Mrs. C. D. Lewton had a subtopic on "The Granges Gardens in Philadelphia," and Mrs. Frank Downs told about "Gardens in New Orleans."

The Ladies Aid Society of the Zion Reformed Church will meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

The Historical club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Lee Wednesday afternoon at two thirty o'clock.

State Commission Denies 19 Petitions

Indianapolis, Nov. 14—(U.P.)—The state clemency commission today denied 19 applications for leniency from inmates of the state prison and reformatory, granted two paroles, commuted one sentence and continued one case.

Among those receiving leniency was James Howe, who was sentenced from Clay county in 1916, to life in the state prison on charges of murder. Howe was bartender in a saloon in which two men, Duckworth and Irwin, were killed during a drunken fight.

Howe's sentence was commuted to 17 years to life, making him eligible for parole. His health is poor.

One of the two men paroled was Bishop Dailey, serving a 10 to 20 year sentence from Lake county on charges of assault and battery with intent to rob.

New: The Sleeved Dinner Gown

You heard rumors last winter. You saw a few at important dinners and theater parties. But this year, the sleeved dinner gown has come into its own, sponsored by important Paris designers, and adopted with enthusiasm by smart women everywhere, for formal restaurant dining, small and large parties, and public entertainments where any degree of formality is required.

Rich velvet and shimmering lame combine in this stunning example—for luxury fabrics are characteristic of the new mode. There are sleeves, of course, a draped cowl neckline, a flattering bodice, and long skirt with graceful sheath lines. It's actually very simple to make. Even with the very best of materials, your savings will be substantial if you "sew your own." This model is a marvel of easy construction.

Pattern No. 5396 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

Owl Stole Hunter's Bag

Helena, Mont.—(U.P.)—Owl and duck hunting is quite a sport, take it from Harry Garrett. Garrett, on a recent hunting trip, bagged a large mallard. Before he could pick it up, a giant owl swooped down, and flapped away to a nearby tree with the duck in its talons. Threats proving futile, Garrett shot the owl—and got his duck.
