JESUS THE HEALER

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 18, 1934
Matthew 8:1-9:34.

By HARLOWE R. HOYT
WALTER SCOTT

In the second year of his ministry Christ and his disciples came to Decapolis, where they discovered two demoniacs, living in caves, so mad that they could not be confined by chains. Jesus healed the two, driving the evil spirits into a herd of swine, which plunged into the sea and drowned. The Gadarenes were overwhelmed and begged Jesus to leave, so he returned to Capernaum.

Jesus preached to those who gathered about him, filling the house in which he sat, when a man, sick with palsy, was brought to him by friends. The group carried the invalid on a mattress. Reaching the house, they were unable to enter because of the crowd about it; but they managed to make their way to the roof which they removed, lowering the sick man down by ropes.

Jesus was quite overcome by the faith displayed by the palsied man and his friends. "Son, be of good cheer," said he. "Thy sins be forgiven." Certain scribes who were there asked: "Which is easier to say thy sins be forgiven, or arise and walk?" Jesus answered them by saying to the palsied man: "Arise and take up thy bed, and go unto thy house." And the man did so.

Along the road to Capernaum there stood a tool house and in it sat a publican named Levi. Jesus said to him one day: "Follow me!" And he arose and followed him. Levi, the publican, became Matthew, who wrote the first of the four gospels, adopting the name of his conversion. And he signified this great event by holding a feast to which he invited publicans and sinners.

No Indictments On Huntington Bankers

Huntington, Ind., Feb. 10.—(UP)—The county grand jury today refused to return indictments against officers of the closed Citizens State bank of Huntington.
In their report to Judge Sumner Kenner, the jurors said they found no cause for indicting the officers but that they felt the officers had been "guilty of errors in judgment."

Sunday School ? QUESTIONS ?

Jesus The Healer

1. When and where did the events of today's lesson occur?
2. Tell of the miracle Jesus performed with the palsied man.
3. Tell of Jesus meeting with Matthew.
4. How was Matthew converted?
5. What was a publican.
6. Why were publicans so hated by the Jews?
7. How did Matthew signalize his conversion?
8. What attitude did the Pharisees take of this?
9. How did Jesus answer them?
10. What is the purpose of today's lesson?

ANSWERS

1. The events related in today's lesson occurred in the midsummer and autumn of the second year of Christ's ministry, 28 A.D. in and about Capernaum, where he had established his home after leaving Galilee.
2. Christ and his disciples had been at Decapolis, where he had healed two demoniacs. Returning to Capernaum, a palsied man was brought to him. The invalid was carried on a mattress and his friends took the roof from the house where Jesus was and let the man down before him. Touched by such faith, Jesus ordered the palsied man to take up his bed and walk, which he did.
3. Christ had seen Matthew, the publican, many times, no doubt, in his journeys about Capernaum. Coming upon him sitting in his place of toll, Jesus ordered Matthew: "Follow me." Matthew did so.
4. Matthew was converted, undoubtedly, through having heard of the preaching of Jesus. It is not impossible that he listened to his discourses and in this manner the publican's mind became the more ready for conversion.
5. A publican was a tax collector.
6. The country had gone under the domination of the Romans. Treating it as a province, the Romans fixed a sum—usually exorbitant—which must be collected from each district. The jobs were farmed out to the publicans, who made all the profit possible through false assessments, false charges, false valuations, and other means, keeping for their fee all above the required amount. These methods, naturally, were resented by the taxed, and publicans were hated.
7. Matthew celebrated his conversion by a great feast at his home, which was attended by both publicans and sinners.
8. The Pharisees, looking at the gathering, asked: "Why eat with your teacher with publicans and sinners?"
9. Jesus answered them by remarking that only sick people need a physician. So it is the sinners, not the righteous, who require conversion.
10. The incidents of today's lesson—there are fourteen cases in all—are chosen to show how Jesus treated cases of human need brought to him.

Putting Years on Stars

That looking beautiful is not the only job of a movie star, as is popularly believed, is strikingly demonstrated by Lona Andre (left) and Ida Lupino, 18 and 16 years old, respectively. They are shown at top as they really are, and below, after the pencil of the make-up artist has added a couple of decades to their ages.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH
New Tricks in Sleeves For Formal Wear

The most successful fashion of the season is the sleeved dinner dress. And no wonder, when it is as gay and beautiful as this. It covers you demurely from neck to toes, but it contrives to show the most sophisticated at the same time. The dropped shoulder and the pointed seams flatter the curves. And the flowers on the chin do their share of the things to your face.

Make it in marocain or triple crepe in midnight blue, black gray. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of material. Width about 2 1/2 inches.

Pattern No. 5424 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 40, 42 bust.
