

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS, BUSINESS CARDS, AND NOTICES

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—70 acre farm, good buildings, best barn in the county, fruit, plenty of out buildings, for immediate possession. Write Box 602, Democrat office. 36-gt

FOR SALE—16 nice, thrifty feeding shoats, weighing 50 lbs. ea. Wm. Rodenbeck, 5 miles north of Decatur, route 7. 40a3tx

FOR SALE—14-16 tractor discs. 100 bushel old oats, Chris Marbach, Decatur, R. R. 39-3tx

FOR SALE—Modern 6-room house with garage centrally located Bargain. Inquire at 126 South Sixth Street, Decatur. a-40-3tx

QUALITY BABY CHICKS. These chicks are produced from good flocks, all breeders blood-tested for Bacillary White Diarrhea by the Stained Antigen Whole Blood-test, under our own supervision; reactors removed year 1933-1934. All eggs set weigh 23 oz. or more per dozen. Chicks priced reasonably. Order your chicks early from Baumgartner Hatchery, 6 miles west and 9 miles south of route 4, Bluffton, Craigville place. Fri 11

DISPOSTL SALE—23 head Holsteins, some fresh; hogs, seed; timothy, clover, wayne oats and soy beans. February 19, 12:30 P. M. 3 1/2 miles southwest of Van Wert, Harry Huffine. 37-Feb 12-16

FOR SALE—Decatur Quality Baby Chicks Hatching Monday and Thursday every week. Breeding flocks carefully selected and culled. Early chicks for greater profits. Book your order today. Decatur Hatchery, Decatur, Ind. phone 497. 3713-eod

FOR SALE—Sweet clover seed, yellow top. Sylvester Birch, Monroe, R. R. 2. 40-3tx

FOR SALE—Farms for sale. Now is the time to buy. See W. W. Hawkins, 2 miles west of Pleasant Mills. 39-gt

FOR SALE—Good seven year old cow, part Jersey and Holstein. Fresh in two weeks. Phone 866-John Walters. 41-gtx

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Semi-modern house 916 High street, possession March 7 Phone 9071 39-3tx

WANTED

WANTED—Real hair cuts. 15c. The farmers and laborers friend. Make us prove it. W. A. Fanner, 415 N. Seventh St. 41-3tx

WANTED—$4,000 on first mortgage, splendid security and 7% interest. Address Decatur Daily Democrat, Box 10. 41-3tx

WANTED TO BUY—Used Piano. Call phone 1123. 42-2tx

Fred J. M. of Fort Wayne was a caller here last evening.

Appointment of Administrator Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed Administrator of the estate of Mary E. Engle late of Adams County deceased. The estate is probate.

William H. Engle, Administrator
Fruchte and Litterer, Attorneys
Feb. 15 1934 Feb. 16-23 Mch 2

Interest and costs, I will thereupon, at the same time and place, offer for sale and sell, at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the fee simple of said real estate, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy said decree with interest and costs.

Said sale shall be made without relief from valuation or appraisal laws of the State of Indiana and subject to the statutory year of redemption, and also subject to all taxes and assessments that may then be a lien on said premises, and subject to the approval of the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Indiana, Fort Wayne Division.

William D. Rimmel
Special Master in Chancery.
Mentor Kraus and Jones, Hammond and Buschmann, Solicitors for Complainant.
Feb. 9-16-23 Mar. 2

Roy S. Johnson

Auctioneer

Now booking winter and spring sale dates. My dates are filling fast, claim your date early.

Feb. 19—Graham & Parrish, 1 mi. north, 3/4 mi. east of Monroe. Chester White brood sows sale.

Feb. 20—Louis Keltner, 2 1/2 miles east of Cavett, Ohio. Closing out sale.

Feb. 21—George G. Sheets, first farm south of Erie railroad at Wren, Ohio.

March 1—Monroeville Chester White Breeders sale of bred sows, on the Bert Marquardt farm, 4 miles north of Monroeville, on the Lincoln Highway.

Office in Peoples Loan & Trust Bldg.

MARKET REPORTS

DAILY REPORT OF LOCAL AND FOREIGN MARKETS

BERNE MARKET

Corrected Feb. 16
No commission and no yardage
Veals received Tuesday Wednesday Friday and Saturday

160 to 210 lbs.	$4.55
210 to 250 lbs.	$4.45
250 to 300 lbs.	$4.30
300 to 350 lbs.	$4.10
140 to 160 lbs.	$4.10
120 to 140 lbs.	$3.30
100 to 120 lbs.	$2.50
Roughs	$3.00
Stags	$1.75
Vealers	$7.00
Lambs	$9.00

Decatur Produce Company

Egg Market

No. 1. dozen	16c
No. 2. dozen	14c
No. 3. dozen	12c

Fort Wayne Livestock

Hogs steady to 10c higher; 160-200 lbs. $4.65; 200-250 lbs. $4.55; 250-300 lbs. $4.40; 300-350 lbs. $4.20; 150-160 lbs. $4.25; 140-150 lbs. $4; 120-140 lbs. $3.75; 120-130 lbs. $3.25; 100-120 lbs. $2.75; roughs $3.50; stags $2.
Calves $7; western lambs $9.25; native lambs $9.

East Buffalo Livestock

Hog receipts 2,100; active; steady; bulk desirable 150 to 230 lbs. $5.25; 230 to 260 lbs. $5.25 to $5.35; 120 to 150 lbs. $4 to $5; few pigs $3.75 and below.

Cattle receipts 325; steady; cows predominating; medium to good $65 lb. steers and heifers, $5.65; fat cows $3.50 to $3.85; cutter grades $2.50 to $3.25; medium bulls $3 to $3.35.

Calf receipts 350; vealers weak to 50c lower; good to choice large $8; common and medium $5.00 to $5.50.

Sheep receipts 900; early lamb trade steady; some held 25c and more higher; good to choice woolskins $10; common and medium, $8.25 to $9.25.

CHICAGO GRAIN CLOSE

	May	July	Sept.
Wheat	90 1/2	89 1/2	90 1/2
Corn	51 1/2	53 1/2	55 1/2
Oats	36 1/2	36 1/2	35 1/2

LOCAL GRAIN MARKET

Corrected Feb. 16

No. 1 New Wheat, 60 lbs or better	80c
No. 2 New Wheat 58 lbs.	79c
Old Oats	32c
New Oats	30c
First Class Yellow Corn	56c
Mixed corn 5c less
Soy Beans	50c-50c

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE NO. 288

Notice is hereby given to the creditors, heirs and legatees of Mary C. Tonneller, deceased, to appear in the Adams Circuit Court, held at Decatur, Indiana, on the 14th day of March, 1934, and show cause, if any, why the Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said decedent should not be approved; and said heirs are notified to then and there make proof of heirship, and receive their distributive shares.

Richard E. Tonneller,
Administrator De Bonis Non
With will annexed.
Decatur, Indiana, February 16, 1934
Attorney Fruchte and Litterer
Feb. 16-23

Smiths Go To School

stanbul (UP)—Turkish blacksmiths will be required to attend a school and pass examinations before they may practice their trade.

Roy H. Address

Licensed Chiropractor
Phone 193 315 N. Fourth st.
Hours by appointment.

Federal Farm Loans

Make application with the Adams County National Farm Loan Ass'n., Charter No. 5152, office with the Schurger Abstract Co., 133 South 2nd street, Decatur. Fire and windstorm insurance accepted in any old line or good mutual insurance co.

For Better Health See

Dr. H. Frohnappfel
Licensed
Chiropractor and Naturopath
Phone 314 140 So. 3rd st.
Neurocalometer Service
X-Ray Laboratory
Office Hours: 10 to 12 a. m.
1 to 5 p. m., 6 to 8 p. m.

N. A. BIXLER

OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted
HOURS:
8:30 to 11:30 12:30 to 5:00
Saturdays, 8:00 p. m.

Test Your Knowledge

Can you answer seven of these test questions? Turn to page Four for the answers.

1. Who is generally regarded as the greatest dramatic genius of all times?
2. Who was Dick Turpin?
3. In which State is the Mohave Desert?
4. In the Army, what do the initials M. P. stand for?
5. What is the name for the property, by virtue of which the surface of a liquid tends to contract to a minimum area?

6. Where is the city of Auckland?
7. Where is Drew Theological Seminary?
8. What pen name was used by Joel Chandler Harris?
9. Who was Jacques de Molay?
10. What does Sobre Las Olas mean?

Lead Mines Reopen
Platteville, Wis.—(UP)—Although market prices for zinc and lead ore are not satisfactory from the miner's point of view, the zinchead-

region of southwestern Wisconsin is showing signs of renewed activity. More than a score of mines are in operation with company officials believing that better business conditions actually are "just around the corner."

Steel for Prison Ordered
Covington, Ky.—(UP)—Stewart Iron Works Company has received an order of approximately $250,000 worth of tool-resisting steel to be used in reconstruction of the new federal prison on Alcatraz Island, in San Francisco Bay.

"I TAKE THIS WOMAN"

By Allene Corliss
COPYRIGHT BY ALLENE CORLISS • DISTRIBUTED BY KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC.

SYNOPSIS

Young and beautiful Stanley Paige loses her fortune through market speculation but a harder blow comes when her fiancé, the fascinating, irresponsible Drew Armistage, tells her it would be madness to marry on his income and leaves town. Penniless and broken-hearted, Stanley refuses to seek aid from her wealthy friends. Desiring to make her own way, Stanley drops out of her exclusive circle and rents a cheap furnished room. After a week of loneliness and trying to adapt herself to her poor surroundings, Stanley calls on Nigel Stern, one of her society friends, and asks his aid in securing a position. Nigel urges her to marry the handsome and wealthy young lawyer, Perry Deverest, who has loved her devotedly for years. But Stanley's heart is with Drew. Nigel suggests that she think it over, and then, if she still wants a position, he will try to place her. Stanley does not go back to Nigel, realizing it would mean meeting all her old friends. One day, when Stanley is more lonely than usual, she meets John Harmon Northrup, a struggling young author, and is touched by his sincerity.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

"You said something about writing a novel. Tell me more about it, won't you?" she asked him, and saw his eyes lose their unhappiness, kindle into eagerness. "I haven't done much on it yet—just a few chapters. I'd like to read them to you sometime, get your reactions. I'm so close to it that sometimes I wonder if I see the thing clearly; if, after all, it's not just a jumble of ideas—and emotions." His eyes brooded suddenly, his voice lost its lightness. "What I really came down to New York for was atmosphere. You see, I don't have any trouble with people—I suppose I have a sort of instinct about them—but I can't create the right background for them. I've never been about, I'm really a great fool; it's a bit of a joke when you stop to think about it."

"I don't seem to see it that way. If you've really got something, if you really can write, nothing is going to stop you. As for background," she shrugged disparagingly, "you can always acquire that. Can't you? Given a certain amount of time—"

"—and money," he added quickly. "You see, the people I want to write about are like you—people who have been places and done things, interesting things—"

"And you think I have?"

He looked at her thoughtfully. "I'm sure you have. I don't know what has happened to you, but I'm almost sure that you've had things—money, you know. I've never known any rich people, but I know they're like you. That's what money does for people—makes them sure and a little arrogant and altogether self-possessed."

"And I am like—that?"

"Of course."

She laughed. "Let's not talk about me. Let's talk about your novel. I'd like to see it, have you read it to me—"

"Do you really mean that? Do you mean that you'd come home with me now and listen to some of the chapters and talk it over with me? You'd do that?"

"Why not?" She smiled at him. She didn't know whether that was what she had meant or not. It didn't really matter. She thought suddenly that all that really mattered just then was that she shouldn't have to go back to that hot, small room beneath the roof and try to sleep—and be quite unable to do so.

They caught another bus downtown and John Harmon led her to a street not far from her own, to a house nearly as shabby and discouraged looking as Mrs. Foley's. But not quite. It had a finer line of proportion, a sort of blurred beauty which had defied the years and its change of fortunes. Its steps were shallow and gently rising, its door was wide and deep-set, its windows were high and small-paned.

His room was on the first floor and had once been a fine old drawing room. Stanley looked about her curiously, appreciating the beauty of the black walnut fireplace, the paneled walls, the high ceiling.

He put her in the one comfortable chair and lighted a cigarette for her, and then somewhat shyly, and in a voice that was husky with self-consciousness, he told her the plot of his novel, breaking off now and then to read her pages of the finished chapters. As the story took shape and became real, his voice grew sure of itself, became firm and quietly compelling. He would stop now and then to look up and say, "Do you think she would have done that? Felt that way about it?" Stanley would nod affirmatively and he would go on with his reading.

"And that's as far as I've gone," he finished finally, tossing the manuscript onto his desk, running his fingers through his rumpled brown hair. "What do you think of it?"

She answered him honestly, her feet curled up beneath her, her head tilted back against the worn leather of her chair. "I think it's good—amazingly good. What happens next? I mean, how does she go on from there?"

"I don't quite know—it hasn't worked itself out yet—but it will." He smiled at her suddenly, a quick, rather charming smile that was at once shy and yet oddly confident. "You know, you've been a peach to listen. Sure you haven't been bored?"

She shook her head. "Perfectly sure, I've liked it."

"It's meant a lot to me having you come here like this. I wouldn't have believed it could have happened—not to me, anyway."

"Why not to you, John Harmon?"

He shrugged, looked at her with a faint flush. "Oh, I don't know. Perhaps because so few things—like this—ever have happened to me. You wouldn't understand—you've always lived differently. I expect, it's funny," he mused thoughtfully, "you and I flung together like this from different ends of society, both of us alone and a bit uncertain. It's rather an—adventure."

She looked at him with sudden wistfulness. "I wish I could see it that way. I'm afraid I can't. I'm just sort of drifting."

"You have been hurt, haven't you?" he asked quickly, with soft dismay catching for a moment a drift of pain in her eyes, a thread of misery in her voice. "I'm sorry. I wish I could help you." He stumbled a bit.

She remembered suddenly that she must make it easy for him, that he made things hard for himself. "You have," she said gently, "you've helped me a lot."

"Do you really mean that? Because I'd like to think I had."

"Then, please do," she told him and smiled at him.

It was a quick, sweetly compelling little smile and it dazzled his eyes and struck a sort of sweet terror into his soul.

Somewhere a clock struck one solemn note and he jumped up and insisted upon making coffee over a sputtering gas ring. It was surprisingly good coffee and they drank it and ate some rather stale rolls

"It's not much of a party," John Harmon apologized, "but I promise to do better next time. There'll be a 'next time,' won't there, Stanley? You'll come again?"

"I expect I will, John Harmon. I like you," she told him simply, "I think you're nice."

He flushed deeply, his eyes shining but horribly embarrassed. "You are, too. I've never known anyone like you before. In fact, I've never known many girls anyway. They've never seemed to like me much I suppose," he finished honestly, "that I've always been sort of afraid of them. I'm even a little afraid of you!"

"Yes," she said slowly, considering him gravely. "I suppose you would be." And she thought swiftly of Drew, who was not afraid of anything—except poverty—and who was so terribly afraid of that. "Perhaps that's what makes you so nice," she suggested, putting Drew resolutely out of her mind, bringing her eyes back to John Harmon. "There's something appealing and restful in a man who isn't always on the offensive."

He took her home soon after that. Through quiet, empty streets, past high brick houses. Houses that had seen better days but stood now in silent rows victims of an ever-encroaching number of latechicks.

In her own room Stanley undressed and crept into bed. She lay staring sleeplessly into the darkness. For an interval she had been taken out of herself, had escaped her own heartache and despair, but now she was alone again and they came rushing back to her, carrying her with them into the depths.

She thought of Ellen—Ellen who had always been there, so quietly reassuring. And then as always, she thought of Drew. Drew who had been there so short a time but who had brought so much with him—had taken so much away.

Eventually, when the first pale streaks of daylight filtered into the room, she fell asleep.

The next week Stanley found a job. Or rather Valerie found one for her. It was with an importing firm and the work was pleasant and not hard. However, it was merely a temporary position. The girl who had held it had had some sort of nervous breakdown and had been given a three months' leave of absence. But, as Valerie pointed out, three months was a long way off and anything might happen by that time!

So Stanley went back and forth to work, hanging by subway straps, jammed into busses, jostled on hot, spongy pavements. She had a glass of milk and a sandwich at a soda fountain for lunch and came home at night to the blessed respite of a cold tub and fresh clothes. She grew thinner and lost any color she had had in the beginning of the summer and the French words of the office correspondence often danced before her tired eyes.

But she grew strangely, curiously content. She liked the routine of her work, the feeling that she was actually responsible for something, however small, in the greater scheme of things. And no matter how long or how hot the day, there was always John Harmon at the end of it. John Harmon, thinner and not so brown, but with the same intently eager brown eyes.

John Harmon, a bit stoop-shouldered and shabby in his old gray suit, but with a new trick of smiling suddenly and quite delightfully; of making life seem a rather gay and friendly and worth-while adventure.

(To Be Continued)

Copyright, 1932, by Allene Corliss
Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

NOW SHOWING — "THE LAST ROUND-UP"

ALL THE MAIDS ARE OUT—IM GOING TO A FANCY DRESS PARTY AND SOME-BODY'S GOT TO LACE UP MY CORSET—I'LL HAVE TO CALL THE BUTLER

YA STILL MAD AT ME? YES LACE IT TIGHT

DON'TCHA LOVE ME, JUS'A LITTLE, HONEY? NO, KEEP STILL! SHUT UP!!

G-RRR OOW

G-RRR (I YAM DISGUSTIT)

BIDS FOR ELECTION BOOTHS AND FIXTURES

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of the county of Adams, state of Indiana, will on Monday, March 5, 1934, and until 10 o'clock A. M. on said day receive sealed bids for the furnishing of one complete metal, folding, election booth and of election boxes suitable to be used at the various elections.

The booth to comply in all things with the election laws of the state of Indiana.

The bid must be accompanied with a complete detailed specification of the booth and election boxes to be furnished.

The bid to be for the booth to be delivered at any railroad or express station in Adams county, the same to be designated by the commissioners at the time of acceptance of bid. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

The board also reserves the right to purchase at the price named in the bid as many of such booths or election boxes as the needs of the county may require.

Dennis Striker
P. O. Martin
Phil Sauer
Board of Commissioners
Attest Glen Cowan, Auditor
Feb. 16-23

NOTICE OF MASTER'S SALE

By virtue of a decree in the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Indiana, Fort Wayne Division, made and entered on the 17th day of January, 1934, in a certain suit pending in said District Court entitled Metro-politan Life Insurance Company, a corporation, Complainant, vs. John O. Fisher, Executor of the Estate of John O. Fisher, Defendant, and Moore, Sparks, L. Brooks, William A. McDaniel, The Farmers' State Bank of the Town of Connersville, Indiana, George S. Geis, Lela M. Geis, Relay Motors Corporation, Emanuel Joray, Mike Biberstein, Defendants, being cause No. 209 in Equity, a certified copy of which decree was duly issued to the undersigned Special Master in Chancery in said cause by the Clerk of said District Court, together with a proper precept of sale, and in pursuance to said precept of sale and said decree, the undersigned Special Master in Chancery, in and pursuant to a proper precept of sale and said decree, will on the 6th day of March 1934, at the hour of ten o'clock, A. M. Central Standard Time, at the Court House in the City of Decatur, in the County of Adams, State of Indiana, offer for sale and sell at public outcry to the highest bidder, the rents and profits for a term of seven (7) years or less, year by year, of the following described real estate in Adams County, Indiana, to wit:

the south half of the southwest quarter (S 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the North half of the Southwest Quarter (N 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less; and the West half of the Southwest Quarter (W 1/2 SW 1/4) of Section Twenty-two (22), Township Twenty-six North (26N), Range Thirteen East (13E), containing Seventy-six (76) acres, more or less